Champion Shows Muzzy He Knows What He's Doing in Trumping Good Diamonds

Mr. Muzzy enjoyed this hand very much-up to a certain point. He was sitting behind his arch enemy, Mr. Champion, and he was sure he had caught the great man in a glaring error. It is not surprising that Mr. Champion knew exactly what he was doing | Phone Green 810 and Red all the time. North dealer

The king of spades was opened and Mr. Abel made the right play, over-taking with the ace and returning his small spade. Mr. Masters won two more spade tricks, on the last of which Mr. Abel discarded the four of dia-

He then shifted to a small diamond and dummy's ace won. Mr. Champion cashed the king of hearts, then led the trey and finessed his eight spot. He got the good news that the queen was right-but the bad news that it was well-guarded.

Skeena Member Urges National Library Soon

E. T. Applewhaite, M.P., gave a broadcast last evening speaking from Ottawa. The member for Skeena gave particular attention to the question of a national library for Canada. The need, he says, has been evident for many a year. The time has come, said Mr. Applewhaite, when instead of recommendations, there ought to be action. He mentioned having had a recent conversation with Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade, and of the latter's satisfaction to realize the increasing scope of grain shipping at Prince Rupert.

There's a story floating round trade union branches in Lancashire about the union official Notice is hereby given that on the who had a suspicious wife. one occasion he stayed out all night "on union business." He said he had missed the last train respect of premises being part of a and had had to stay the night

So his doubting spouse found a list of branch members and sent all 250 of them a telegram "Did my husband stay with you steel, brass, copper, lead, etc. Columbia, from Harold Willard Hel- last night?" and prepaid replies. By return she received 250 tele-
