

South Korea Against Use of Indian Troops

JOHN HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. said President Eisenhower of an early defence of South Korea representative generous concession to Korean government cooperation with the impending Communist truce agreement not by any means, meet the demands laid by Korean President Rhee in a statement through the embassy recognized by officials there is a fundamental irreconcilable difference between the Korean and U.S. positions on carrying on a war, and there is deep uncertainty about any compromise can in run produce real status Korea. Authorities said they have to do the best with what they have.

To Continue
Basic issue is whether should be unified by military political and diplomatic means. Rhee wants to end the war until, he says, and it with a united force of Red power. But United States and its UN ally upon a truce with now, in the middle of leaving the matter of to later, peaceful negotiation.

Rhee's offer of a detente was contained in a made public by the White after it was released in President Rhee. Friday Rhee indicated in a statement that he would settle and agree with the United States. The department felt he was saying that he wanted assurance that U.S. would not get into trouble through future efforts to North Korea by military force.

While, however, there are various intimations to United States that Rhee would settle and agree with the United States. The department felt he was saying that he wanted assurance that U.S. would not get into trouble through future efforts to North Korea by military force.

Change
posed the question of a change in long-range Eisenhower administration policy. While it has been probable that a detente would be made with Korea, officials were in terms of action to

Atomic Weapon Production To Be Raised

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atomic Energy Commission officials, viewing 1954 as a year of "urgency," have told the United States Congress that they plan a sharp increase in the output of weapons with "new and greater effectiveness."

In testimony released here, they said a boost of more than 25 per cent in the production of atomic materials and weapons is scheduled for next year.

This would build up stockpiles at "a much higher rate" than last year when atomic developments were described as "revolutionary."

Chairman Gordon Dean cautioned against any further cuts in next year's atomic budget, which he said already has been slashed 32 per cent. It had been "pared to the bone" and "contains risks."

Russia, Dean said, is pushing a top-priority atomic program that underlines "our sense of the urgency which we feel about the year 1954 and the importance of our program."

Rehabilitation In Korea To Be Costly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—The cost of rehabilitating what fighting in Korea destroyed will be huge, a statement by J. Donald Kingsley, retiring agent general for Korean reconstruction, indicates here.

Mr. Kingsley estimated recently that up to $1,500,000,000 worth of capital investment would be needed in Korea.

He also told the five-nation UNKRA advisory committee that the 1954 budget of the agency, the main UN instrument for long-term aid to Korea, should be $250,000,000 instead of $130,000,000 estimated as the maximum to be available.

"I have always believed very deeply in the historic mission of the United Nations in Korea," said Mr. Kingsley.

"If we can succeed in Korea, not only in terms of stopping aggression but also in restoring the economy, we will have made collective security a reality for the first time. Moreover, if we can do these things in the right way, the march of Communism in Asia will be checked and the whole history of the world will be altered."
