

FINISHING TOUCHES on the colorful costumes for the forthcoming musical production "Brigadoon" is Iona Campagnola, (centre) costume designer, assisted by Bernice Michaloff and Evalina Boulanger, members of the cast. These and other workers have nearly completed the big cast of the Little Theatre production which opens in the Civic Centre tonight.

Brigadoon Cast To Show Off Costumes In Full Dress Preview Parade Tonight

Prince Rupert tonight will be the scene of a preview of the musical production "Brigadoon" when members of the cast will parade in their full dress costumes. The parade, which will give an idea of the striking costumes designed for the production, is scheduled to start at 8 p.m. Leading the parade will be the cast members, followed by the costumed townsfolk. The production, which opens Tuesday at the Civic Centre, is the first of the Prince Rupert Little Theatre's undertakings. The play centres around a miracle, the miracle of the town of Brigadoon which appears only once in every 200 years, for one day. Director Ian Dobbie today termed the local production of the show a miracle in itself. Enough local talent for a cast of almost 60 dancers, singers and musicians for the orchestra, plus more than 30 backstage workers is a miracle for a city the size of Prince Rupert, said Mr. Dobbie.

THE LAMB OF GOD
By Rev. R. W. Starrett
PENTECOSTAL CHURCH
"In whom we have redemption through His Blood, even the forgiveness of sins." Colossians 1: 14.

The death of Christ is due to the love of God. God gave His Son because He so loved the world. The cross is the expression of a love which is older than the oldest star; more ancient than the most venerable elder who stands in the zenith light of heaven; long as eternity; vast as infinity; deep as the being of God. In this was manifested the love of God, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

We can catch the exultant throb in Peter's heart when he wrote: "Ye were redeemed not with corruptible things as silver and gold from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." It is not the grace which was in His lips, not the glory which men beheld, and still do behold in His life, not even that adorable deed of the Incarnation, which is the sublimest truth to sinful men. The church of Jesus has never exalted any one of them to the pre-eminence without loss. It is the cross and its redeeming sacrifice. And, therefore, the song which the whole ransomed Church shall sing, when it looks back with clearer eyes than are given to man on the earthly pilgrimage, is, "Unto Him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and His Father; to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen."

It would be no violation to the sense of Scripture to say, "God so FORGAVE the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." By substituting forgiveness for love you may more easily get at the heart of this matter, for God's forgiveness is as free and full and unconditional as His love. If we will not receive the love or forgiveness of God, it cannot help us back to life and character, and we are left to suffer all the misery of sin both in this world and the world to come; and that is to be lost. Lost, notwithstanding God's love, lost, notwithstanding His forgiveness! But if we will accept this love and forgiveness into our personal lives they will give us eternal joy and peace with God.

NO FIRE DAMAGE
No damage resulted from an oil heater which became overheated through flooding at the home of Martin Erickson, 303 Fourth Avenue East last night. The Prince Rupert Fire Department responded to a call from the Erickson home at 8:50 p.m. and stood by until danger of the flames' spreading had passed.

Called the "French Touch," the creation is said to be an entirely new concept in optical styling. A slim 10-karat gold brow piece is gracefully contoured and then poised above tapered lenses, expertly shaped to follow the natural curved line of the eye, giving the appearance of a "vanishing lens line." The youthful upswing of the brow is accented with a bold dash of gold trim suspended above.

Young Miss Barbara Hinton of Division 1, Grade 6, was emcee for the enjoyable program which opened with Grade 1, division 11 students singing "Pigeons" and "Five Little Chickadees."

Most of the presentations were designed by teachers to fit the students, and especially pointing up
