Readers Have Difficulty Solving Cartoon Contest

Norton Youngs discovered that readers disagreed with the judges in the cartoon contest he has been running in the Daily News.

The idea was to place the cartoons in order of preference to agree as closely as possible with the judges.

Out of 10 cartoons, winner Donna Douglas had only two in the same order. Five others had only one in the preferred position, so winner of the second prize was drawn by lot at the Daily News office. Lucky person was Mrs. David Hewan.

Another winner drawn by lot to fill the last position was Charlene Ballinger. Other winners were Mrs. H. F. Glassey, Robert H. Knutson, Mrs. J. Mitcholuk and Miss M. Furunes.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. MACFIE

Mrs. Helen Macfie, 66, of 241 Ninth Avenue East, died here Tuesday after 25 years' residence in the city.

A widow, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Fred Peagan of the city, and a son, Lt. John Macfie, with the Navy in Montreal.

TERRACE
A unique sight in Terrace these days are the bearded "hops" wearing tags labeled "Hop."

Emphered the tags are meant as a reminder and invitation to hobo hop, first public frolic sponsored by the recently organized Jaycees. The hop will take place tomorrow at the Civic Centre.

The Terrace Agricultural Association is sponsoring a roller skating in the Civic Centre to be held shortly.

Bobby Robertson will give instructions and skating will be held on three nights a week, with separate nights for students, beginners and adults.

The Best Farm Display" was added section to the fall fair at the recent meeting of Agricultural Association. And the person with the best farm display will take the prize of $100 offered this year by Cook's Jewellers.

Other additions are: A junior section. A miscellaneous section. House produce. More grain and grasses. Crysanthemum and large Dahlias to the flowers. A sugar fudge to the candy section.

FRANCOIS LAKE
Trading vehicles in Edmonton, Fred Gardner arrived here towards the end of the week leaving a panel car.

Joe Hendricks and his small niece Pam have taken up residence for the summer at "Sun-mer's Rest." They are expecting guests from their home town shortly.

The trout have been biting well. Mrs. Mel Matchett caught one in an hour and a half.
