Teepees Trounce Frontenacs 9-1

QUEBEC — A gamble by St. Catharines coach Rudy Pilous paid off Wednesday night for the Teepees to the tune of a crushing 9-1 victory over Quebec Frontenacs in the fifth game of the eastern Canada Memorial Cup final.

Pilous, whose team was smarting from a 5-3 loss to Frontenacs Sunday, sent his players into Okalta Wednesday night's game without a practice session on Quebec ice, figuring their trouble was more mental than physical.

The Teepees swarmed all over the Frontenacs to break the 2-2 series deadlock.
