

Lemon Posts Fourth Win As Tribe Bests A's 7-2

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bob Lemon looked at his 4-0 record today, doublechecked the date and began wondering if this is the season he escapes his May jinx.

The 33-year-old Cleveland righthander, busiest pitcher in the American League in 1952 and 1953, has won at least 20 games in five of the last six years. But May has been his hard-luck month.

Wednesday night, in his first May appearance this season, Lemon coasted to a 7-2 victory over Philadelphia Athletics. It was his fifth start, and his fourth complete game.

Two years ago he won 22 and lost 11. When May came he dropped five out of six.

Only one game Wednesday, Detroit at Boston in the American League, was postponed because of the elements.

Washington's Bob Porterfield, the American League's biggest winner last season, shaded Bob Keegan of Chicago White Sox 1-0 for his first shutout. Baltimore's Bob Turley lost a two-hitter for the second time this year, 4-2 to New York Yankees.

In the National League Philadelphia made it two in a row over St. Louis, 10-3. Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 4-1. Brooklyn whipped Chicago 7-0 and Sal Maglie of New York Giants was beaten for the first time after winning four, 7-1 by Cincinnati.

The pitching duel at Washington was broken up in the eighth inning when Keegan, who had won three in a row, walked Roy Sievers with the bases loaded.

Turley's wildness proved his downfall as Baltimore paid his first visit to Yankee Stadium. The fastballing righthander walked the bases full in the fifth, watched one run come home on a sacrifice squeeze bunt by Eddie Lopat and then, after another walk, served up a fat pitch that Joe Collins blasted for a three-run triple.

Robin Roberts came back 24 hours after being knocked out by the Cardinals and checked them on seven hits. His mates solved five St. Louis pitchers for 13 safeties including four singles by Earl Torgeson.

The Cubs had hit at least one home run in every game this spring until they met up with their old team-mate Russ Meyer. The Brooklyn lefthander shut them out on seven hits for his 11th straight over the Chicagoans.

Eddie Mathews hit his first home run for Milwaukee in 10 days and drove in another run with a sacrifice fly in the first inning in beating the Pirates.

Released Seal Downs Bears For Wenatchee

By The Canadian Press
"Nick O'Time" is the Western International League nickname for pitcher Ted Shandor.

Released by San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League, Shandor arrived at Wenatchee Wednesday night and was put right to work.

Sent in as a reliever in the third inning, Shandor nipped a Yakima rally, then spaced five hits while striking out nine men as the Chiefs downed the Bears 9-3.

The former Calgary Stampeders, the WIL's orphan team, played two of the seven games allotted them in last week's league directive ordering surrender of their owners' franchise. The Stampeders split a day-night doubleheader, losing 5-1 at Spokane in the afternoon and winning 8-7 at night.

Salem and Vancouver also divided a day-night doubleheader at Vancouver. Vancouver won the opener 10-0 behind five-hit pitching by Jack Nicholas and Salem bounced back 11-3 at night. Victoria shaded Tri-City 7-6 and Lewiston ousted Edmonton 11-8.

While the Stampeders battled through the doubleheader at Spokane the problem of disposing of their franchise remained the league's No. 1 headache.

Now playing directly under league control, the club will finish up at Spokane Thursday night, then move to Lewiston for a four-game series ending Sunday.

League directors will meet at Spokane Saturday to make a final decision on the franchise. They will vote whether to move it to another city. Tacoma, Wash., Butte, Mont., and Lethbridge, Alta., have been mentioned whether to make the club a permanent road team, or whether to disband the team.

The Stampeders were left homeless last week when WIL president Robert B. Abel, charging the Calgary owner had "abandoned" the team, ordered the franchise surrendered.

Forty-Eight Game Schedule For Senior Ball League

It will be "Play Ball" this Sunday in Prince Rupert and Terrace as the first games of the 1954 Prince Rupert and District Baseball League get underway, weather permitting.

Homer by Ex-Major Leaguers Give Beavers, Rainiers Wins

By The Canadian Press
A couple of old baseball hands hoisted Seattle and Portland back onto the Pacific Coast League victory wagon Wednesday night.

Gene Bearden, former American League ace now hurling for Seattle, spaced four hits and socked a home run as the Rainiers dropped Oakland 7-3.

Wait Judnich, another ex-major leaguer and veteran PCL hand, hit two round-trippers in Portland's 9-2 win over Los Angeles.

The weak hitting Angels succumbed to the sumarine slants of Joe Nicholas as Portland took the decision.

Judnich hit a homer with two on in the first, singled another run over in the fifth, and unloaded his second homer in the seventh with one on. Altogether Judnich was responsible for six runs. Fred Richards, Angel first baseman and leading home run hitter, socked his ninth in the seventh inning and Bob Usher hit another for Los Angeles in the ninth.

Lefty Bearden was pretty much the whole show at Oakland. Besides the home run, the ex-American Leaguer collected three hits and drove in three runs as he racked his third victory

Aces Seeking Win Tonight

CALGARY — Quebec Aces, champions of the Quebec Senior Hockey League and the east's hope to take the Edinburgh Trophy, will be gunning for a victory tonight when they meet Calgary Stampeders, the Western Hockey League champions, in the second game of the best-of-nine east-west series.

Aces need a victory to tie the series at a game apiece. They dropped the opener Tuesday night by an embarrassing 8-1 score. Third game will be played at Edmonton Saturday night.

Longden Ready For U. K. Ride

LONDON (Reuters) — Johnny Longden, English-born U.S. saddle star, who learned his riding in Alberta, will fly to England next week to ride Alberta Ranches' Irish-trained colt, Blue Sail, in the derby trial stakes at Lingfield Park, Sussex, May 14.

Frank More O'Ferrall, manager for Blue Sail's Canadian owners, said an application has been made to the stewards of the English Jockey Club for a temporary licence for Longden.

Monday on Penticton ice. The defence, which baffled the British Columbia team in the first game, leaked badly and only the agile work of Sudbury's goalie Al Millar kept the score from soaring higher.

From here, the series shifts to Kelowna for the third game Friday with the fourth slated for Penticton Saturday. Venue of the fifth is still to be decided.

V's were in command all the way, with Dick Warwick, Jim Fairburn, Jack McIntyre, Grant Warwick, Kevin Conway and Ron Montgomery dividing the spoils.

Ed Harrison and Gord Heale tallied for Sudbury.

The game was a carbon-copy of Monday night's as a brawl, with 17 penalties handed out in each. Wolves, who picked up 11 in the first game, were assessed 10 Wednesday night.
