

Canadian-Line Up Seen Likely When Bombers Meet Speedy Beaches

WINNIPEG (CP)—Everyone is trying to predict coach George Trafton's strategy for Saturday's Grey Cup sudden-death semi-final when his mighty Blue Bombers take on the light but speedy Toronto Balmy Beach.

The "experts" already have declared Bombers a "shoo-in," but they're stumped as to what method Trafton will use to try to eliminate the champions of the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

Most guess that Trafton will send his first-stringers in at the start and try to build up a comfortable margin, then come back in the second half with his Canadian bench.

If that's Trafton's system then some 16,000 fans on hand will get a glimpse of the squad which sidelined Edmonton Eskimos 30-24 in the thrill-packed western final at Edmonton Saturday night.

Some railbirds insist the Canadians, led by former McGill quarterback Geoff Crain, will get into the game at the opening whistle. If they aren't clicking, then first squad, with either Jack Jacobs or Joe Zaleski at the helm, can be called in.

The "Canadian-first" advocates claim Trafton will not take a chance on his starry imports being injured unless necessary.

The coach isn't saying until game time. He's had the whole team working out at full steam since their day off Sunday, with all three quarterbacks getting an equal share at calling the shots.

Emphasis last night was on passing, and the ball-handlers and receivers looked sharp.

After the two-hour drive, the team went back to the field-house.

Dan Bucceroni Scores TKO Over Beshore

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Philadelphia's Dan Bucceroni, whose record now shows 28 knockouts in 38 starts, registered one of the technical variety when referee Joe Stone waved Freddy Beshore of Los Angeles to the repair pit in the eighth round Wednesday night.

The favored Bucceroni, 26 and a ranking heavyweight contender, who hopes to get a shot at champion Rocky Marciano next year, was in command all the way, but Beshore showed an amazing ability to sop up punishment.

A national audience of television fans saw Beshore blasted from corner to corner, but he kept wading in as Bucceroni, possessing an edge of three inches in reach and five inches in height, slammed lefts and rights to his head. Bucceroni weighed 188½, Beshore 194.

There were no knockdowns in the fight, scheduled for 10 rounds.

ing Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 in a National Hockey League game last night.

But a lack of spectator interest didn't stop the Broadway Blues from giving their faithful followers their money's worth.

The victory was the Rangers' fourth over the Hawks this season and their third win in six starts. They tied one and lost two.

Andy Bathgate, recruited last week from Vancouver Canucks where he led Western League scoring, notched his first NHL goal in the first period. Ron Murphy, a former linemate of Bathgate's with Guelph Biltmores of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A series, and rookie Camille Henry assisted. Murphy with Don (Bones) Raleigh, also assisted on Harry Howell's tie-breaker in the second period. Paul Ronty, with the help of Wally Hergesheimer and Hy Buller, scored the third goal in the final period.

Murray Costello scored Chicago's goal.

Tonight, Toronto Maple Leafs, with a record of eight straight games without a loss, face the league leading Montreal Canadiens in Montreal.

Canadiens have lost three, tied one and won one of their last five games.

Detroit Red Wings, tied with the Leafs for runner-up spot, also tries for a first-place tie tonight when they meet the fourth-place Boston Bruins.

Stamps Hand Vancouver Canucks Worst Trimming of Current Tour

By The Canadian Press
The top two teams in the Western Hockey League tangled in Calgary Wednesday night and the home-town Stampeders bounced Vancouver Canucks 7-2 for the worst beating of their current campaign.

The largest crowd of the season watched the league-leading Canucks lose their third game in a row during their first swing through the Prairies this year.

Meanwhile, on the coast, Seattle Bombers were shaded 4-3 by Canucks' cross-town rivals, New Westminster Royals, who carried the game with a baffling checkerboard passing attack.

SCUFFERS DEEP GASH
The Calgary victory, by Pat Liddy with two goals and Max Gaekkenbush, Gus Kyles, Archie Scott, Johnny Michalik and Walt Trentini, was marred by the severe injuries suffered by Johnny's brother Art.

The starry defenceman suffered a deep instep gash and possible shoulder separation.

The Vancouver goals were scored by Al Stanley and Larry Popcin.

Spokane Trowned By Dynamiters

By The Canadian Press
It was no way to treat visitors, but Kimberley Dynamiters left their etiquette in the dressing rooms Wednesday night and polished off Spokane Flyers 7-1 in a Western International Hockey League feature played in the B.C. city.

At the same time, over in the Okanagan Senior Amateur Hockey League territory, Kamloops Elks were busy taking the measure of the WIHL Nelson Maple Leafs, 6-4.

For Kimberley, Buzz Mellor and Buck Kavanagh poured in two goals apiece and Gordon Andrea, Les Lilley and Andy Port scored singletons.

Bill McNally tallied for Spokane.

Carly Carlson with two and single efforts by Evans, Slater, Booth and Taggart, accounted for the Kamloops scoring.

Messrs. Lavell, Haldane, Koehe and Gare were Nelson shot-smiths.
