THIS 20th CENTURY mermaid is all decked out for a plunge into the cool deep-green sea, adorned with seafaring jewels done by designer Majeska. Strands of waterproof white, turquoise and coral porcelain beads entwine the lovely lady's wrist, ankle, upper leg, and cluster enchantingly at her bosom and ear lobes.

CONSERVATION OFFICER Harold Bonnett of Evert, Mich., takes a look at his tiny patient—a three-week-old fawn. Some boys found the animal hobbling in the nearby woods with a broken left foreleg and brought it to Bonnett who applied splints. The fawn is "at home" under a thick cedar tree in Bonnett's back yard. Its leg is healing nicely.
