A TRIO OF ATHLETES perform a difficult balancing act on the bank of the famed River Seine which runs through the heart of Paris. The cool river waters, a portable radio, the warm weather and an afternoon off provide a holiday haven for those who cannot get away from the city for a week-end. Against a background of horns honking along nearby boulevards the river is a "beach" by sunlight and a romantic setting for lovers by moonlight.

A. J. Wirick Leaves Co-Op

VANCOUVER. — Thomas J. Robertson, president of the B.C. Co-operative Union, announced today that the resignation of the organization's secretary-treasurer has been accepted, with regret.

A. J. (Art) Wirick, well known in co-operative circles throughout the province, has served the Co-operative Union in his present capacity for more than six years. He will leave the union's employ at the end of July.

Mr. Wirick has accepted an appointment in the University of Saskatchewan's department of extension, where he will act as supervisor of adult education.
