

Arney Paces G & A's 67-46 Win Over CCC Pulpmillers Disorganized In One-Sided Victory

Gordon & Anderson 67, CCC 46

Man's faith in his fellow men paid off handsomely for Alex Bill and his Gordon & Anderson skaters Saturday night at the Civic Centre when Arney, in his first game for the hardware outfit, clocked himself a neat 18 points for an evening's work and helped to end in bringing his team within hailing distance of the league-leading Manson crew.

BERNIE GEOFFRION

Boom Boom Satisfied With Efforts

By W. R. WHEATLEY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL 9—Whatever else the current National Hockey League season holds for Bernie Geoffrion, Montreal Canadiens' exuberant right-winger is eminently satisfied with his accomplishments. He did away with his sophomore slump, snapped an off-season scoring slump and, now all appears to have over- the sophomore jinx.

The first came about through encouragement of Boom Boom's wife, the former Marlene Marz.

The second coincided with his outburst again at a presently abusive fan, who finally appeared, pitchfork style, by Boom Boom's stick.

ON SOPHOMORES
The jinx involves winners of the Calder Trophy for the rookie of the year. They have a habit of being come of their fire after being scoring freshman year.

Apparently it was just a matter of time for Bernie to overcome the jinx.

He won the trophy in the 1951-52 season, getting 39 goals and 47 assists in 67 games. For this season's statistical record, the rookie came galloping along from a poor start. After 39 games he had scored 17 goals and collected nine assists. He's aiming at least 30 goals this season.

He had only four goals after 10 games and only seven after 20. Then came the spear- ing incident. Right after that Boom Boom scored three goals against the New York Rangers. Since then he has been getting his share of goals with a team that rates as a strong defensively but not high in goal output.

He was worried about my slow start, said Boom Boom. "Then this fan, who sits near the penalty box at the Forum, kept telling me, blaming me for everything that went wrong and calling me names."

Finally, in one game after a penalty, he said something particularly dirty as I reached the penalty box. I blew my top and went after him with my stick.

I felt a lot better right after and quit worrying. There hasn't been even a peep out of him since.

Well, shoulder Boom Boom will be 22 Feb. 14. He played hockey with the immaculate reputation parish school team. Later he played with Concordia, then in the Junior Amateur Hockey Association, when he was only 14. After that he went with the Montreal National Hockey Club.

From there he made the jump to the Canadiens in the NHL in the 1950-51 season. He was in only 12 games but scored eight goals. After the season ended he married Marlene, figure-skating champion of the late Howie Morenz, one of the greatest hockey players of all time.

50 TRAPSHOOTERS FLOCK TO RANGE FOR PRACTICE

Some 50 trapshooters flocked to the range for a shoot on Sunday and saw the squad captained by Al Manson capture the team shoot.

This week club members under the direction of Jack Martin and George Robinson, the ground master, will move the small clubhouse onto the range.

The club is planning a practice shoot for anyone who has not been out and would like to try the range.

Officials also announced that a ham and grocery shoot will be held next Sunday.

The club is developing into one of the most active in the country with more than 70 regular shooters now on the roster.

Remember When
Howie Morenz was traded by Chicago Black Hawks to New York Rangers 17 years ago today for Glen Brydson. The great centre, star of Montreal Canadiens for nine years before coming to Chicago, slumped after the trade. He went back to the Hab tanks in 1936, however, and showed much of his old-time dash until death cut short his career in March, 1937.

Red Wings Tie With Montreal After Losing 2-0 to Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—The slumping Detroit Red Wings still retain a one-point margin over Montreal Canadiens at the top of the National Hockey League standings, but the field is closing in on the leaders.

While Detroit and Montreal played to a 3-3 tie Sunday night, each rounding out a week-end in which they gained one point of a possible four, all other NHL Clubs narrowed the margin.

Defenceman Bud MacPherson's second goal of the season with five minutes remaining gave Canadiens the tie at Detroit. The Red Wings, winless in their last five games, had taken the lead twice while Montreal was short-handed.

Red Kelly, Ted Lindsay and Gordie Howe potted the Detroit goals while Maurice Richard and Paul Masnick counted the remaining Canadian tallies.

Policeman Quits Over Ticket Issue

CHICAGO AP)—Policeman Alex Zielinski, 33, quit his job Saturday after seven years on the force because he doesn't like to issue traffic tickets.

This attitude first brought criticism from a captain several weeks ago. He noted Zielinski had not tagged a motorist since last June, Zielinski explained: "How can I give tickets to people in this district? Why, they are all friends of mine."

So Zielinski was transferred to an area where he was no so widely acquainted.

Capt. Stephen Naughton, Saturday found Zielinski directing traffic and ignoring illegally-parked cars.

He told Zielinski to dust off his summons book and get to work. "I'll do that, captain," replied Zielinski, "but not on those two cars because they belong to crippled veterans."

"You'll tag all the cars or resign," Zielinski quit.
