

Musial Sets New Mark With Five Circuit Blows

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Now you know why they call Stan Musial, Stan the Man. No other hitter in major league history ever hit five home runs in one day.

Nine days ago Musial was bumping along at 250, gripped by the same slump that tortured him last spring. Now he is hitting 400 with eight homers and seven doubles among his 24 hits. The $80,000-a-year St. Louis Cardinal outfielder leads the majors with 21 runs batted in and shares the home run lead with Chicago's Hank Sauer.

Stan got four for four Sunday in the first game, three home runs and a single off New York Giant pitching. Then he added two more homers in the second game to set a record.

The Cards lost the second game 9-7 to the Giants after taking the opener 10-6.

12 HOME RUNS

A total of 12 home runs were hit in the two games at Busch Stadium and 21 in all in the National League.

Philadelphia Phillies gained a 4-3 edge over Cincinnati in the first half of a doubleheader. The second game was washed out. Bob Miller's relief pitching and Del Ennis' home run saved the day for the Phillies.

Chicago and Pittsburgh also went on a homer spree with eight, three by Hank Sauer as they split a pair. A Sauer homer and single gave Paul Minner a 5-3 first-game decision over Vern Law. The Pirates ripped into the Cubs for eight runs in the first inning of the second game on the way to an 18-10 decision. Darkness halted the slaughter at the end of eight innings.

Brooklyn's game at Milwaukee was rained out. The American League also had a postponement, the Baltimore at Boston doubleheader.

PAIR FROM SENATORS

Cleveland won a pair from Washington 6-4 and 6-3 in 10 innings, while the other American League clubs split. Chicago won its third straight shutout 4-0 at Philadelphia with Don Johnson throwing a two-hitter but lost the second game 2-1 on Elmer Valo's pinch single in the ninth.

New York Yankees broke loose with their biggest inning, six runs in the third, to smother Detroit 12-4 but were shut out 4-0 with one hit by Billy Hoelt in the second game, cut to five innings by darkness.

Wally Westlake's double in the 10th gave Cleveland its double score over Washington after the Indians tied the score in the ninth.

Four homers were hit in the American League but two of them by rookie Bill Wilson and Chico Carrasquel provided Johnson's cushion for Chicago's first game verdict over Philadelphia.

RED SOX MANAGER LOU BOUDREAU (left) checks team signals with catcher Mickey Owen. Owen, who just turned 38, says his spot behind the plate is an easy one and expects to go on catching until he's 50. Since he joined the St. Louis Cardinals back in 1937, Mickey's 17 years on the diamond have been anything but dull, including a short tenure with the Mexican League and a court case, now pending, in which Mickey is charged with biting a rival player while managing the Norfolk (Va.) team last year.

Cold Weather No Deterrent As Pony Loop Teams Chosen

Enthusiasm was high yesterday afternoon at Roosevelt Park, despite a cold wind, as Pony League managers and coaches pooled information on youngsters' abilities and came up with the three teams for the season.

After the final tally, Gyros had a roster of 15, Moose 16 and Elks 14 players.

The boys were segregated into the positions they normally played, after which coaches and managers were allotted players to make the teams as nearly equal in strength as possible. Registration forms are still available from league secretary-treasurer Harley Lewis and it is expected that additional players will join each club.

Choice of battery staffs and infields depleted the entire turnout of 45 aspirants and team managers will pick their outfields from substitute infield positions.

Working out strategy for the Elks will be manager Bobby Anderson, while Doug Wood guides the destiny of the Moose Club and Bert Young leads the Gyros. Coaching duties for the Elks are being handled by Lon and Syd Scherk and Bill Sundberg. Joe Giordano will pilot the Gyros

Allan Cup Title Opener In Penticton Tonight

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP)—The battle of the amateur giants opens here tonight when Sudbury Wolves, eastern amateur hockey champions, take on Penticton V's, the best in the west.

At stake is the Allan Cup, symbol of senior amateur hockey supremacy in Canada.

Coach Max Silverman, the guiding light of hockey in Sudbury, Ont., for 23 years, is leading the Wolves along the path that could lead to their second such cup in history. They won the battered mug back in 1937. His formula is work. The Wolves had been in town less than two hours when he had them out adding still more ice time to the 100 league and play-off games they have gone through this season.

The best-of-seven run for the cup promises to be the toughest of a tough season for both clubs.

Penticton V's rolled over all opposition in regular Okanagan Senior Amateur Hockey League play, clinching top spot long before the season ended. Then, in a playoff with Nelson Maple Leafs, Western International Hockey League kinsmen, they had to come from behind to take the B.C. title in eight games.

EIGHT-GAME SERIES

The Penticton-Winnipeg Maroons series for the western championship also became an eight-game affair after both teams won two. They tied the other three games, by 4-4 scores.

The road that brought the Wolves all the way to the Okanagan valley lay past the strong Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds, who Sudbury trounced for the Northern Ontario Hockey Association's southern group championship. They got past Troquois Falls Eskimos, Owen Sound Mercurys and Matane, Que., Red Rocks to earn the eastern title.

An impressive record and an impressive team—but facing

Bombers Bar Press Box To Newsmen

WINNIPEG (CP)—Officials of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers said Sunday night they have every right to bar a newspaper man from the stadium press box and, unless circumstances change, will continue their ban on a city sports writer.

Ralph Misener, president of the Bombers, and James T. Russell, vice-president in charge of public relations, made the statement after it was revealed Saturday that the Western Interprovincial Football Union club intended to bar Bob Moir of the Winnipeg Free Press from the press box.

The ban was put on after Moir reported that Bombers were said to be negotiating with Claude Conerly, quarterback of the New York Giants in the National Football League. Bomber officials objected to the report although they refused to deny it. Misener explained that under a five-year lease with the Winnipeg Stadium, the Bombers control everything in the park except the concessions. Under this arrangement, he said, Bombers control the press box and, if necessary, could bar anyone they wished.

Work at Algoma Slated Tonight

Weather permitting, a Little League work-bee has been called for tonight between 7 and 7:30, to complete work on the diamond at Algoma Park.

A good turnout for work parties over the weekend was reported today by Archie Bowen, league president. The combined efforts of fathers and sons completed work on the backstop, and Mr. Bowen says that the extra bleachers should be completed in a couple of days.

Extra cinders have been spread over the diamond, and tonight's work-bee to rake them in, should provide a good bind with the gravel, Mr. Bowen stated.

Carl Erickson, manager of the Little League Super-Valu team has called practices for tomorrow and Friday at Algoma Park at 7 o'clock sharp. Coaches Dan Johnston, John Rosedale and Dan Morrison will be on hand to put the boys through their paces.

Rally in Ninth Gives Bears Split in WIL Doubleheader

YAKIMA (CP)—Yakima and Vancouver divided a Western International League baseball doubleheader Sunday, Yakima winning the nightcap 6-5 after dropping the afternoon game 12-5.

Yakima pulled the night game out of the fire with a four-run rally in the ninth, sparked by Danny Rios' pinchhit double with the bases loaded.

Rios' blow emptied the sacks and he was singled home with the winning run after reaching third on a wild throw.

Meanwhile, the baseball players and franchise of the Calgary team of the Western International League have been "surrendered" to the league, president Robert Abel said in Spokane Saturday.

In a phone call from Yakima, Abel said the league will operate the team at least until May 6.

"Every effort will be made to try to locate the team elsewhere by next Thursday," he said.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Robert Moses Lefty Grove of the Boston Red Sox fanned six Detroit Tigers to pass the 2,000 mark in strikeouts in an American League game 16 years ago today. It was Grove's 260th victory in 25 years of baseball. In the following season, 1939, he was the champion American League pitcher for the fifth time since 1929—the previous four titles earned with Philadelphia.

Leonard Wins

VANCOUVER (CP)—Stan Leonard retained his city match play golf championship Sunday by defeating Ben Colk 4 and 3 in the 36-hole final at Shaughnessy course here.

It is the fifth time the Marine Drive professional has won the F. B. McElroy Trophy.
