Publisher To Address City Canadian Club

The winter season program for the Prince Rupert Canadian Club will get underway at a meeting next Wednesday night when Dorothy Taylor, veteran newspaperwoman and publisher of The British Columbian in New Westminster, will be the speaker. Miss Taylor, well-known in the newspaper world, will talk on "Today's Newspaper" and discuss her experiences last summer in Europe.

She will be the first of about six speakers to be heard here this season by the Prince Rupert club, which has just opened its membership ranks to men. The club has been limited to women members for many years, although it was originally a men's club here. Joint clubs are a comparatively new venture in the Canadian Club field.

The local group hopes the change will increase its membership, and officers, in announcing the first speaker, stressed that membership is open to everyone. The aim of the Canadian clubs, active across Canada, is to help develop an informed opinion and a distinctive Canadian outlook as well as a wider view of world affairs. Canadian citizenship also is stressed.

The meeting at which Miss Taylor will speak, is open to members only.

DAVID M. CHENOWETH has been appointed executive vice-president in charge of all operations for Molson's Brewery (Ontario) Limited, a newly-formed subsidiary of Molson's Brewery Limited. Former president of the Pepsi-Cola Co. of Canada, he will continue to be a director of that company.

Klondike Night Held at Terrace

Special to The Daily News
TERRACE.—The early days of the north were recalled here Friday and Saturday nights when the Terrace Kinsmen Club staged two successful Klondike Nights in the Civic Centre.

Hundreds attended the affair, dressed in the costume of the Klondike era and games of skill and dancing were featured. Costume prizes were won by Gordon Vosburg both nights, and by Mrs. Tugeau and Mrs. W. J. Richards.

Al Davis convened the affair, assisted by president Ernie Robinson and a large committee.

Proceeds may be used for development of the Kalum Street playground, where there is a drainage problem, or for the Terrace General Hospital.
