KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better.

Oriental Theme Featured At Royal Purple Tea, Sale

Pretty girls in exotic Oriental costume and Chinese lanterns, fans and other articles set the theme for the successful spring tea and sale presented Saturday afternoon in the Elks' Home by members of the Ladies of the Royal Purple.

Interesting Chinese figurines centered the small tea tables and the serving booth was attractively decked with mock cherry blossoms, a pretty Chinese parasol, lanterns and more figurines. Lanterns and fans were placed around the walls and in one corner stood a beautiful Chinese brass dining gong.

Receiving guests at the affair was Mrs. Viola Anderson, past honored royal lady, while Mrs. Ole Siatta convened the tea.

Serviteurs, clad in the lovely Chinese costumes, were Mrs. Don Wanamaker, Mrs. B. Watson, Mrs. Eric Moore and Mrs. Pete Petersen.

In the kitchen were Mrs. R. Elliott, Mrs. R. Currie and Mrs. J. Flaten.

The event featured sales of home cooking, sewing, plants and a white elephant sale, plus a variety of prizes.

Mrs. P. Deane and Mrs. T. Mosley were in charge of home cooking, with Miss Margaret Mackney at the white elephant stall and Mrs. J. Hyndman in charge of plants. Mrs. R. Boychuk, Mrs. Olga Clapp and Miss Mildred Furness were at the sewing booth.

Mrs. R. A. Holkestad was cashier and Mrs. George Girard was in charge of prizes, winners of which were: Mrs. J. Currie, quilt; Mrs. N. Moorehouse, grocery hamper; Mrs. J. Flaten, dolly; Mrs. T. Beattie, tea cloth and Mrs. P. Deane, eke.

Poulette Madsen of Rupert Wed in Vancouver Ceremony

eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thor Thorsteinson of Vancouver.

Rev. A. H. Cumming conducted the service at St. Philip's Church, for which the bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a charming en-Thorstein James Thorsteinson, semple of white nylon point d'esprit over fawn taffeta.

The groom's sisters, Vaughn and Sandra, were bridesmaid and flower girl, respectively, wearing frocks of violet and mauve. Mr. Lavinie Gleason was best man and ushers were Mr. Douglas Drummond and Mr. Al Morgan.

Following a reception in the Lion's Gate Hall, the couple left for a honeymoon trip by car to San Francisco and other California points, returning to make their home in Vancouver.
