WAS of MOUNTAIN GROVE, Mo., uses his portable power saw to cut down another tree one of his cattle enjoy a meal of oak leaves from the downed trees. Pastures in this area withered away months ago and many dairy herds have been existing on leaves dropped-down trees like these. This method of feeding the cows is cheaper since it takes good Jersey milk cows' output to pay for a truck load of alfalfa hay on the current in the Missouri area.

Support For Bulkley Valley Products Led Here by New Milk Distributors

Dairy farmers from Bulkley Valley in relation to Prince Rupert to buy their milk from the Bulkley Valley Milk Producers Association maintained that they were so much closer to the Fraser Valley, where they have a first-class product, than Prince Rupert but they were able to make headway in the local outlets.

"We look upon the Bulkley Valley in relation to Prince Rupert in the same way that the Fraser Valley is to Vancouver," association president Ray Oulton said. "We feel we are in a position to give you good service here."

In answer to a question by W. F. Stone whether there was any evidence that Bulkley Valley produce was being boycotted here, vice-president Lipe said that is what they were trying to find out.

ts of Dresses Like Mother's Fair But Heads Different

LAS, Tex. (AP)—Bobby Eager, 4, like many another the State Fair of Texas here, got lost.

When his mother finally located him, Bobby said he had for her: "I saw lots of dresses like yours," he said, "but they weren't right."

este, Arab-Israel Issue Before UN Security Council

NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—United Nations Security Council today — Soviet de- the internationalization of disputed Trieste and continued debate on a Big Three call for a probe into the bloody Arab-Israeli border squabble.

The Arab-Israel question was first on the bill with the 11-nation group meeting this morning to decide how the item shall be listed on the agenda.

Britain, the United States and France asked for an urgent council session on the Palestine issue after denouncing an Israeli attack on a Jordan village last week in which Jordan claims 66 lives were lost.

The council Monday approved a U.S. suggestion that it request Maj.-Gen. Vagn Bennike of Denmark, chief of staff of the UN truce supervision organization in Palestine, to report fully to the council in person on recent Arab-Jewish border violence.

This afternoon the council was due to continue debate on the Soviet-sponsored move to name a Swiss governor for the free territory of Trieste under permanent UN control.

Both Yugoslavia and Italy oppose that solution for the future of the strategic area, which each claims.

Chief Dies Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—William H. Mason, 79, general president of the AFL Carpenters for 36 years and a towering figure in the American labor movement, died in Methodist hospital today of a heart ailment.

Police Quell Rioting Italians

ROME.—Club-swinging police beat back protesting Italian students in front of the Russian embassy today as demonstrations over the disputed free territory of Trieste broke out in various parts of Rome.

The students answered the police club attacks with sticks. Many of the demonstrators were bruised, but no serious injuries were reported.

Hundreds paraded elsewhere, carrying Italian flags, angrily shouting against Yugoslav President Tito's stand on Trieste and demanding the strategic Adriatic peninsula be returned to Italy.

It was the first demonstration in Rome on the Trieste issue since the United States and Britain announced Oct. 8 they planned to pull out their 7,000 occupation troops from Zone A of the free territory, including the port city of Trieste, and turn the area over to Italian administration.

The demonstration in front of the Russian embassy apparently was in protest against the Soviet demand that the Security Council meet soon to appoint an international administration for the area under permanent United Nations supervision.

32,000 Pounds Of Black Cod Landed Here

About 32,183 pounds of black cod have been landed in Prince Rupert since October 1, it was reported today. The catches were made by two boats, the Kenn Falls and the Parma.

Kenn Falls landings included 5,994 pounds of black cod, 1,468 pounds of red cod and 146 pounds of halibut. Parma brought in 26,189 pounds of black cod, 2,355 pounds of red cod and 4,359 pounds of halibut.

Under fisheries department regulations fishboats are allowed to land halibut in a ratio of seven pounds of black cod to one pound of halibut or other saleable fish other than salmon or tuna.

The season ends November 15.

Britain, U.S. May Slow Down Troop Removal From Trieste

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain and the United States are reported to have decided to slow down evacuation of their troops from disputed Trieste while they try to resolve Italy's and Yugoslavia's bitter quarrel over the area.

Reds Stall Explanations To Anti-Red Prisoners

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The day-riddled Communist efforts to woo 22,400 ex-Red soldiers home to communism halted indefinitely today after the Reds were turned down flat on demands that the POWs be dragged to the explanations by force if necessary.

Stung by the rebuff from India, Switzerland and Sweden, the satellite Polish and Czech delegates on the neutral nations repatriation commission walked out Monday and gave no indication when they would return.

The explanations apparently were postponed indefinitely—at least until the commission can get operating again.

Observers speculated that the Red Walkout could be a prelude to dropping their persuasion efforts entirely in an effort to avoid more of a propaganda whipping than they have already taken in two days of interviews.

Only 19 of the 921 Chinese who heard the Red pleas to return home chose the door to communism.

Despite the upsid results, the interviews with the 7,900 Chinese POWs were proceeding smoothly, but the 14,600 Koreans completely stopped the show with a belligerent refusal to even listen to the Red persuaders.

The Koreans once threatened a mass breakout to make their refusal stick.

Native Baby Dies of Burns

A five-months-old native baby died early this morning in Prince Rupert General Hospital as a result of burns received in a stove explosion at his Port Edward home last night.

Lyle Alexee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Alexee of Port Simpson, was brought into hospital at 10 p.m. last night and died at 5:15 this morning.

RCMP are investigating the accident and a coroner's inquiry will probably be held by deputy coroner George Daves.

The baby is survived by his parents, three brothers, Gary Edward, Charles Franklin and Gene Wayne and one sister, Sharon Darlene.

New Offer for Airport

VANCOUVER (AP)—Mayor Fred Hume disclosed Monday that the federal government has offered Vancouver $1,100,000 for its interest in International Airport, an increase of $100,000 over the last offer.

Mayor Hume declined immediate comment on the proposal. Previously, the city had put a -1,250,000 price tag on the airport.

Percy Wright Resigns Seat To Make Way For By-Election

VICTORIA (CP)—Percy Wright, who walked off his job to represent Victoria riding as a Social Credit member of the legislature, resigned his seat Monday night to make possible a by-election that is intended to seat a B.C. cabinet minister.

Mr. Wright said at a Social Credit constituency meeting here he was giving up his seat to allow a by-election for Finance Minister Einar Gunderson defeated in the June provincial election in the neighboring riding of Oak Bay.

Mr. Wright, officially told 12 hours before that he no longer worked for the city of Victoria, also said he would try again today to regain his post as assistant city clerk.

Almost all the provincial cabinet except Mr. Gunderson, holidaying in Peru, attended the meeting. The by-election date was not announced.

Mr. Wright emphasized that the decision to resign—"one of the hardest" of his life—was his own. He had not been asked to do so.

Search Party Leaves For Crash Scene

A Pacific Western Airlines plane missing with five persons aboard was found "totally wrecked" in the mountainous Garibaldi country, 55 miles north of Vancouver, shortly after noon today.

Brief reports received here said no survivors were sighted.

A company spokesman in Vancouver said the plane was located "on the ground" near Garibaldi station on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and that a ground party has started for the scene.

Names of only three of those aboard were known by PWA officials. They were identified as Bob Drinkwater of New Westminster, pilot; Lucille Warden of Langley Prairie, a nurse, and a Mr. Neumayer, a miner. Two unidentified men passengers were also on the aircraft, which went to Gun Lake Monday morning following an urgent call to transport the miner to hospital in Vancouver.

Twenty planes, including four RCAF Canso flying boats and a crash boat, combed inland seas in Howe Sound this morning.

They took off at dawn to join a fleet of fishboats and the RCMP patrol launch which searched dark, rain-swept waters Monday night for the missing single-engine De Havilland Beaver.

It had been overdue since Monday afternoon on the 125-mile flight from Bridge River to Vancouver.

BOATS ALERTED

On a theory that the Beaver's seaplane may have put down along the rugged Howe Sound coast to ride out a storm raging when it vanished, all boats in the area were alerted.

Ross Baker, president of Pacific Western Airlines, owners of the plane, said the aircraft was traced along its route down the tracks of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to the southern terminus at Squamish.

NO RADIO CONTACT

Weather conditions made it impossible to make radio contact with the plane.

The plane was dispatched from Vancouver earlier Monday to Gun Lake, near Bridge River, to pick up the nurse and her patient, suffering from a brain hemorrhage.

Squamish, where the plane was last sighted, was named from a Pacific coast Indian word meaning "bad winds."

The area is noted for rain and wind squalls. To the north are snow-topped mountains and heavy timber. To the south, the sea and a hundred islands.

Bonner Given Education Post

VICTORIA (CP)—Attorney-General Robert Bonner was sworn in Monday by Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace as Minister of Education to replace Mrs. Tilly Rolston, who died last week in Vancouver.

Following the ceremony, the Premier said "Mr. Bonner will hold the education portfolio until the successor to the late Mrs. Rolston has been chosen."

"Mr. Bonner's appointment is only temporary."

Land Seized From Leaders Of Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (Reuters) — The war against terrorism in this once carefree colony entered its second year today with the government announcing new measures of retribution against the anti-white Mau Mau movement.

Governor Sir Evelyn Baring told the colony's Legislative Council that all land owned by past and present Mau Mau leaders will be confiscated, and terrorist chiefs will be banished from the colony forever.

The seized lands will be used for clinics, schools of agricultural experiments. Entry of Kikuyu tribesmen — among whom the dread movement originated — into African areas will be controlled "for some years to come."

The government also will push development of agriculture and industry, which he admitted has bogged down since the Mau Mau nightmare descended on the colony.

Kikuyus who went back to preservers will not be allowed to return to European-settled areas, and Kikuyu independent schools, now banned will not "in any circumstances" be reopened.

Douks Demand 'All Children'

NELSON, B.C. (CP)—More than two dozen Doukhobors staged a disturbance in court here Monday during a hearing of an application for the release of Doukhobor children.

Children of more than 100 Doukhobors jailed on nudism charges are being held at New Denver, B.C., near here.

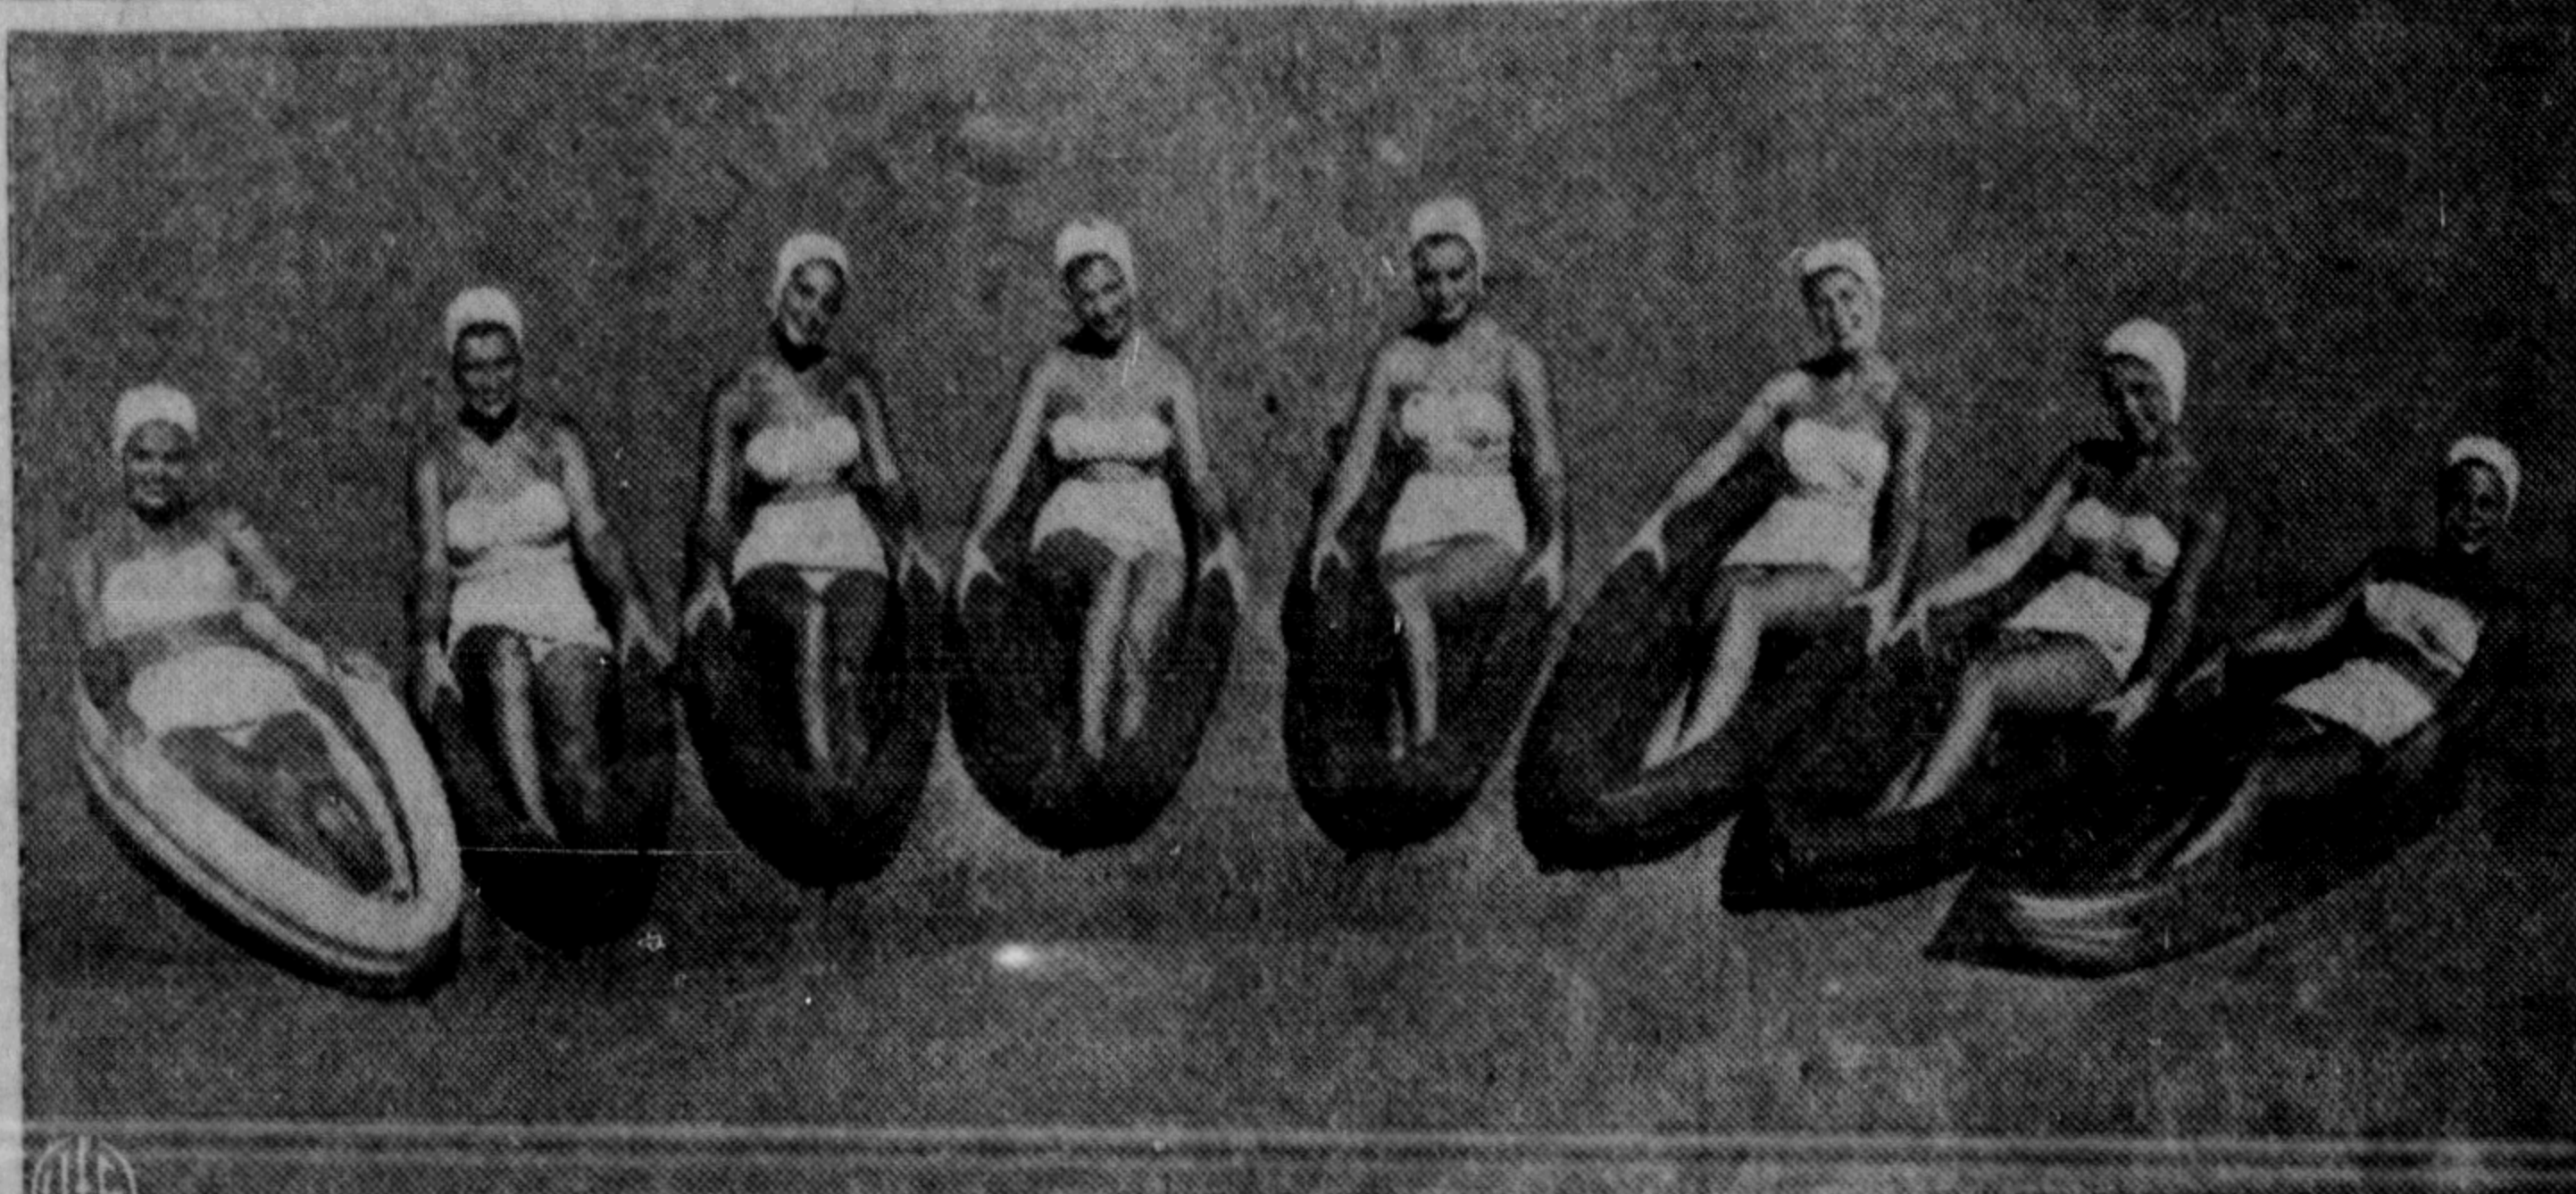

The Doukhobors, members of the radical Sons of Freedom sect, charged that some of the children had been released to live with relatives other than their parents. They refused to sign applications to have the children returned to those parents not in jail.

"We want all or none," they shouted. "If we can't have all our children, we don't want any."

Magistrate William Evans said there would be no resumption of the hearing unless the applications were signed by parents only. Then he adjourned court.

Many of the Doukhobors present were uncles and aunts of children in welfare department custody.

When court adjourned, the Doukhobors refused to leave until escorted from the court by four RCMP guards. Outside, some of the women burst into screams and shouted at the officers in Russian.
