Filchok Takes Revenge As Riders Edge Eskimos

By The Canadian Press
 Saskatchewan Roughriders, their coach Frankie Filchok again savouring the taste of victory in the city of his former triumphs, today hold the distinction of having given Edmonton Eskimos their first beating at home and two of their three in 15 Western Interprovincial

Football Union games this season.
 The Roughriders won the distinction with a close 20-19 decision over the Eskimos Monday night to move into second place in the WIFU standings.

In Calgary, gasoline salesman Neil Armstrong hit a high octane stride Monday night, leading Winnipeg Blue Bombers to an 18-6 victory over Calgary Stampeders in a Western Interprovincial Football Union game.

It was Winnipeg's first win on the road this season.
 The loss meant little to Edmonton. With the league schedule winding up this week-end, the Eskimos are eight points ahead of Riders.

The triumph must have been sweet to Filchok, for he coached the Eskimos to the Grey Cup final last year, only to lose his job when he came back from Toronto.

Alabama halfback Bobby Marlow, Sully Glasser, former West-pointer Herb Johnson and Riders' new quarterback find, Bill Todd, led the Roughriders ground attack.

Filchok, who replaced Glenn Dobbs in the quarterback slot, produced a sparkling passing and ground attack.

A crucial pass interception by import centre John Wosniak produced Marlow's major, and a boot to the deadline by veteran Ken Charlton brought the winning point with only three minutes of play left.

Other Saskatchewan majors came from end Harry Lampan and Todd.

Halfback Rollie Miles got Edmonton off to a fast start with his fifth touchdown in two games.

Claude Arnold, the Negro speedster danced over the line for the Eskimos second tally. Edmonton's third touchdown came when Oklahoma end Frankie Anderson caught Arnold's 37-yard forward on the Rider goal line for the five points.

Snyder converted all three majors, running his successful convert kicks to 33 straight.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By GAYLE TALBOT

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP)—There have been some fight training camps that were museum pieces, including one we recall in which Lou Nova delved into the mysteries of yogi and made pals with a live bear, but the one which has been going on here for a number of weeks seems to rank right up with the zaniest of the lot.

Those who have gone through it say they will never forget Randy Turpin as long as they live. The strange character who fights Bobo Olson for the world middleweight title Wednesday night at the Garden has distributed scars which will endure—and none of them on his sparring partners.

By great good luck, it seems, most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the world series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

MOODY MAULER
 About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sic dogs on his journalistic countrymen. The moody maunder wanted to be left severely alone.

The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

"The man was rude to me," the distinguished two-tongued

Murray Goodman, the head IBC publicist, claims the distinction of having been the first person outside Turpin's entourage to see him box, and that was less than a week ago.

"I don't know whether he's conceited or sensitive or just plain ornery," Goodman says, "but I do know that he's strong and in shape. From what I saw I really think he's improved 100 per cent over his second fight with Ray Robinson two years ago."

"I believe, too, that he has the killer instinct that Olson lacks. He had his brother Jackie boxing with him, a little guy no bigger than a featherweight, and he beat him up badly. He banged hell out of him and had him bouncing off the floor like a rubber ball—his own brother."

"You know, these British fellows are pretty crafty. Before he even came over Turpin had been hiding out in some old castle up in Wales or somewhere and I'm told he worked 58 rounds there. If I ever saw a fighter who's ready, he is."

The British reporters, meanwhile, are divided between loyalty to the Empire and their personal antipathy for the churlish fellow who one of them designated "Britain's ambassador of bad manners."

They would like to win the crown and see Randy get his brains knocked out too. Brumby has no such problem.

Canucks Notch Fifth Straight
 Vancouver Canucks, still to lose their first game this season, Monday night joined Calgary atop the Western Hockey League standings by virtue of a 4-1 victory over Victoria Cougars.

For Vancouver, the story is five wins and a tie; for Cougars, five losses and one win.

The Cougars started out in a manner to gladden the hearts of the 3,000 Victoria fans, slapping rubber at Vancouver goalie Lorne Worsley from all angles.

Jack Lancien tied it up for Canucks in the second period. Canucks' Fred Brown picked up a loose puck on the boards to make it 2-1.

Going into the last period, when twice Vancouver's Gordie Kerr passed the puck to Bill Wylie and twice Wylie scored.

Only game scheduled tonight is at Vancouver, when Canucks meet Edmonton Flyers.

Kid Gavilan To Challenge Turpin, Olson

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—The new middleweight champion of the world—Randy Turpin or Bobo Olson—will have a ready challenger in Kid Gavilan, the welter titleholder.

The Cuban Keed, training at Summit, N.J., for a Nov. 13 defence against Johnny Bratton at Chicago, is anxious to jump into the 160-pound division against the winner of Wednesday's 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

"Win or lose with Bratton, we want Turpin or Olson next," said Angel Lopez, Gavilan's manager. "Personally, I like Turpin a little bit. But who knows?"

NOBODY KNOWS
 Who knows? That is the story of this Olson-Turpin fight in which Bobo from Honolulu and San Francisco is an 11-to-5 favorite.

Almost to a man, managers and trainers who make boxing their business lean toward Olson. They respect Turpin for his first fight with Sugar Ray Robinson, but they have been bewildered by his sporadic training.

Turpin may pick up new support if he makes the 160-pound weight as easily as his handlers think. He weighed 161 when examined Thursday. When Randy fought Charles Humez for the European title in June, he had to sweat off a half-pound in a steam bath after the weigh-in.

As Asbury Park, N.J., Olson has worked on a consistent schedule of 70 rounds in 22 days.

Turpin boxed about 27 rounds in five workouts at his Grossinger, N.Y., camp but did his heavy drills in Britain.

Wait, Lady —
 It will go faster if you do these three things...

1. ADDRESS YOUR MAIL CORRECTLY — Write clearly and give COM- PLETE address; include Postal Zone Number in Quebec, Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Vancouver.
2. ADVISE YOUR FRIENDS (and some number if applicable) — especially if you have moved to a new address. Get the habit of including your return address on top left corner of envelopes or parcels.
3. WRAP PARCELS SECURELY — tie with strong cord—and put on sufficient postage. When in doubt have your Post Office weigh parcels and letters and avoid double postage due.

Keep the following information readily available for reference when you mail

LETTER MAIL
 1st Class requires: Local delivery, 3¢ for the first ounce, 1¢ for each additional ounce; out-of-town (Canada, U.S., and all other countries of North and South America, British Commonwealth, France, Spain) delivery, 4¢ for first ounce, 2¢ for each additional ounce. Air Mail (domestic), 7¢ for first ounce, 5¢ for each additional ounce. (Inquire at Post Office for airmail rates to other countries.)

PRINTED MATTER
 Cards, circulars, etc., entirely printed—when addressed to individuals by name—2¢ for the first 2 ounces, 1¢ for each additional 2 ounces. When such mail is addressed "To Householder" (not by name) it requires 1½¢ for the first 2 ounces, and 1¢ for each additional 2 ounces.

NEWSPAPERS or PERIODICALS
 mailed by individuals to places in Canada, U.S. or Mexico require 2¢ for the first 4 ounces and 1¢ for each additional 4 ounces. CANADIAN newspapers and periodicals may also be mailed at same rate to other places in the Commonwealth, North and South America, France and Spain.

PARCELS
 Play safe! Have your nearest Post Office weigh them. You can now send Air Parcel Post up to 25 pounds in weight. Ask about this fast air delivery service!
