More Schools Needed Here

Principal Tells P-TA Convention

Principal R. G. Moore told the King Edward School Parent-Teacher Association Prince Rupert's population was increasing and that more schools will be needed in this area in the not too far distant future.

The Association endorsed the P-T Council in their efforts to procure more suitable shows for the children Saturday afternoon. A letter will be written to the city council to that effect.

Committee reports were read. A survey of the schools has been made regarding Scotch lights, as a safety device for bicycles. It is hoped they will be in use by next fall. It was noted that Scotch lights have already been put to use as an aid to navigation in our nearby waters. It was felt that it would greatly add to the children's safety on the streets at night.

The book, awarded a monthly prize to the class with the largest number of parents present, was won by Miss Patterson's class.

CONVENTION REPORT
Following the business meeting, Mrs. A. Logan, who attended the annual convention of the PTA at Kelowna, gave an interesting address. She told of her trip, including many interesting little anecdotes, also dealing with the serious convention business, in a capable manner. She said that if any of the members ever had a chance to attend a convention to do so. It was indeed a "marvellous" experience.

Following Mrs. Logan's address, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. W. Petersen and her helpers.

Mrs. Kenneth Hardy was chairman of the meeting.

PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. V. Grant are sailing tonight on the Prince George for a trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. William Noble and family returned to the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday from a trip to Vancouver.

Diocesan W.A. Meets

Annual Sessions At Anglican Cathedral

Annual meetings of the Caledonia Diocesan Board of Anglican Church are being held in the city, having opened with a corporate communion of members at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Wednesday morning. The celebrant and preacher was Rev. Canon B. S. Procter, assisted by the Rev. H. G. Bird. At this service the United Thank Offering from all the parishes in the Diocese was presented.

The meetings were held in the Cathedral Hall following the service, at which were presented reports from each Diocesan Board Officer and from branch delegates. The president, Mrs. N. E. Arnold, was in the chair.

A lunch was served by the members of the Prince Rupert branches of the W.A. in the hall and the luncheon speaker was Miss E. Rathbone, of Miller Bay Hospital. Miss Rathbone lived for considerable period in the Sudan and Egypt where she taught classes of native girls. Her description of the native people, their lives and customs was given with humor, understanding and sympathy and was listened to with great interest. She illustrated her talk with objects and articles of native clothing, pictures and maps.

At the afternoon session the speaker was Rev. S. C. Deacon, Rector of Ocean Falls, who was formerly a missionary in South America. The study of the W.A. for 1952 is on Latin America, and it was interesting for the members to have first hand information of the work in that continent.

Mrs. H. G. Bird sang a solo, "Correct Me, O Lord," by Handel. This is the first time the members had heard Mrs. Bird, who has a most pleasing trained soprano voice.

A number of delegates from out of town branches were welcomed by Mrs. L. A. N. Potterton and the reply was given by Mrs. H. Hinchliffe of Smithers.

All those attending the meetings were the guests of Bishop and Mrs. Gibson to tea at Bishop's Lodge.

The sessions will continue tomorrow.

The visiting delegates are: Mrs. Spears of Hazelton, staying with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Black.

Mrs. Finn of Pouce Coupe, representing also the branches at Dawson Creek, Cecil Lake, Sunset Prairie, Fort St. John and Taylor. Mrs. Finn is staying with Mrs. A. E. Evans, of Beach Place.

Mrs. Morgan, of Terrace. Mrs. A. Hinchliffe, of Smithers, representing also the branch at Telkwa.

Mrs. B. Francis, of Burns Lake. Above two ladies are the guests of Mrs. N. E. Arnold.

Mrs. Robinson, of Ocean Falls, staying with her parents, Sgt. and Mrs. Potterton.

Other visitors are Miss Queenie Calvert of Taylor, B.C., guest of Mrs. J. B. Gibson; Mrs. E. Hodson of Terrace, guest of Mrs. Hoff; Mrs. E. V. Bird of Hazelton, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Fiddes; Mrs. Frank Skinner sr., life member of diocese of New Westminster.

Timely RECIPES

TUNA OLIVE PICK UPS
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 tablespoon flour
1/3 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated onion
Dash tabasco sauce
(6 1/2 or 7-ounce) can tuna
1/2 cup chopped ripe olives
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
Pastry (basis 1 1/2 cups of flour)

Melt butter and blend in flour. Stir in milk and salt, and cook and stir until very thick. Remove from heat and stir in onion and Tabasco. Drain oil from tuna and flake. Blend tuna, olives and pimiento into sauce. Cool. Roll pastry very thin and cut into 2 1/2-inch squares. Place a rounded teaspoonful of filling on centre of each square and bring two opposite corners together over filling. Fasten with a pick. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) about 10 minutes. Serve hot. Makes about two dozen.

Everything But Audience

Pops Music By Artists

Millan Clubbers From Vancouver Start With Classics and Swing Into Lighter Vein

There were Prince Rupert's popular music last night? were certainly not at the concert of the Sir Ernest MacMillan Clubbers from Vancouver where a delightful trio of young musical artists from Vancouver provided a diversely different entertainment. They won the hearts and captured the fancy of an audience, though small, was in its appreciation.

The party consisted of Joyce Chen, pianist; Don Gaylor, violinist; and Howard Pottin, clarinetist. Each an artist evidently not out of the teens but already attainment of much accomplishment and full of future promise.

Chen has been playing piano for eight years; Gaylor the marimba for nine, and Pottin, the clarinet for three. Audience wondered that could attain such proficiency in such a short space of time. But that is the progress of youth.

Beginning on a classical vein, the program included such numbers as Chopin's "Waltz in C Sharp" and "Fantasia Impromptu" by Chopin; Monty's "Czardas" by Gaylor and Weber's "Scherzetto" by Pottin. Here young artists showed why they are honors winners in the Columbia Music Festival.

The concert party turned to popular items as "Deep River" by Pottin, "St. Louis Blues," "Slowly" by Pottin, "In the Evening" by Gaylor, and numerous others.

When it was over, Master of Ceremonies Rowland Miles had the small audience into a family party as the trio "let their hair down" and into a generous presentation of current pops on the brightly lit stage.

Before they sail on their return to Vancouver, the trio will be heard again in an hour of music after which there is an hour of dancing. By the way, the word will have got around what a really delightful evening this is and the audience was as large tonight as it was last evening.

Well Dance
A social dance for the purpose of raising farewells and God-blessings to Prince Rupert's soon departing fishermen was held in the Civic Centre auditorium last evening under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association membership relations committee.

A large crowd thronged the hall to make merry to the Mike Colussi's accordion.

A committee planning the dance consisted of Andrew Brown, Joe Hipp, Norman Einar Spruce, Olaf Juvik and Frank Spruce sr.
