'Sub Fleet' to Fish Says Oracle

Gayle Talbot

PRINCE RUPERT (AP)—According to Stewart, sports editor of the Commercial Appeal, to get rich on a fish, the night fish have seen leave the stretch a week before that heart-stabbing Hill Galt. Says the oracle:

"To insure the future, to flourish second year, Hill Prince did a fish and became a year. So did Ca, and it was all a mis-king both Preakness and Bimelech, second of the Belmont, and Phalanx was a head, and then clout-ment and became the year-old of the sea-

... C. (Pinto) Allen, football coach, as Dick Snider in the city Capital.

... me like one of the actual sores in the Square Garden, is out. I have definite that fixes have been in the Garden since seems to me that no thing college president, his boys to be sub-vice that surrounds. It's one place bas-ly do without, and I'm sure that college presidents will take off the bas-ketball map."

They swear that two Pitts-burgh fans, leaving the park after watching the Pirates drop another decision, were heard dis-cussing one of Billy Meyers' numerous rookies. One of them said he liked the boy, but ex-pressed the opinion he should be sent to a minor league team for a year or two.

"Where," his companion de-manded, "can you find a more minor league club than the one he's with right now?"

Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Browns says his Clint Courtney is the first bespectacled catcher he ever saw. He recalls that Lee Meadows was the first pitcher and George Toporcer the first infielder.

"To me catching is 'he best spot' for a player like that," the Rajah reasons. "He has the mask to protect him, while any place else he's liable to get a bad hop. Courtney tapes on his glasses and he doesn't have any trouble when he throws the mask off on a foul fly."

Indians Trounce Yanks To Retain 2-Game Lead

NEW YORK (CP)—High flying Cleveland Indians trounced New York Yankees in a hard hitting American League contest Tuesday night to retain their two game lead over the Washington Senators.

The Senators took their ninth victory in ten games by edging the Detroit Tigers in at pitchers' duel 1-0.

In the National League, the New York Giants maintained their one game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers by defeating Cincinnati Reds 7-4.

Brooklyn walloped the St. Louis Cardinals 14-8 in a day me.

Larry Doby, Dale Mitchell and Ray Boone hit home runs as the Indians made it four in a row over the Yankees. Boone clinched matters by slamming a three-run homer in the eighth inning. Steve Gromek was credited with the victory although chased in the seventh. Belting Bill Miller and Bob Kuzava hit free- in the third and fourth in-ings, and Indians built up a 7-0 lead.

A New York rally cut the lead to 7-5 after seven innings but Lou Brissie and Early Wynn held the Yanks in check after that.

The Brooklyn Bats roughed up six St. Louis pitchers for 14 hits in the victory that spoiled Eddie Stanky's Ebbets Field "homecoming" as Cardinal manager, despite a pair of two-run homers by Stan Musial.

Preacher Roe, the Dodgers' "Tuesday" pitcher, pitched like it was Wednesday or Thursday as he let most of the early 7-0 lead slip through his fingers in his fifth straight Tuesday start.

Ben Wade rescued Preacher in the fourth and won his first major league game and also made his first major league homer in the sixth and a double in the eighth. The full schedule of four night games were played in the American League with three night games in the National.

stock market investing. Despite this caution, however, and sporadic selling sprees, the Toronto market closed accumulated enough strength during the week to push the exchange's indices to the level of mid-April. Industrials, base metals and western oils posted gains ranging to more than five points, while golds added slightly less than a point.

New York made little head-way in early trading Monday, slipped in mid-session but recovered by the close. Prices edged higher in quiet trading Tuesday and continued upward Wednesday. Late selling cut gains on Thursday and prices showed little trend yesterday.

From Friday to Friday the Toronto Stock Exchange indices showed industrials up 5.61 at 317.67, golds up .97 at 88.88, base metals up 3.41 at 185.06, and western oils up 3.76 at 148.44.

In the Montreal averages, banks were down .10 at 29.93, annuities up .8 at 84.4, industrials up 4.09 at 198.1, combined up 3.5 at 160.2, papers up 39.20 at 66.14, and golds up 1.01 at 66.85.

In New York, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks climbed $2.40 cents to $102.50.

PCHL Changes Name; Now Called WHL

Gayle Talbot

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Pacific Coast Hockey League, which stretches to Saskatoon, officially changed its name Tuesday to the Western Hockey League.

Last year the professional loop added three Canadian prairie teams on a tryout basis. Tuesday they reported they were happy with the arrangement and the league voted to make it permanent.

It is an eight team circuit with Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, Tacoma and Seattle hold-over members.
