Dodgers Win Again As Cards Lose 8 Straight

Labor Trouble Holds Up Game—
Indians Beat A's 21 to 9

NEW YORK (Canadian Press)—Preacher Roe, Brooklyn's left-handed master, beat the St. Louis Cardinals for the eighth straight time as the National League-leading Dodgers scored a 4 to 1 victory in a game which began Tuesday night and ended at 3:30 a.m. Eastern Daylight Time today.

The start of the contest was delayed 65 minutes because umpires refused to cross "hot" lines thrown up around Sportsman's Park by members of another labor union. Lefty Maglie pitched a three-inning game and then singled a winning run in the ninth inning Monday night as New York's third consecutive victory over Cincinnati's Earl Blackwell by a score of 2 to 1. Blackwell had walked Alvin Dark in the final frame of the National League game. The shortstop advanced on Wes Strum's grounder before he was tagged by Maglie's hit. It was a tough one for Blackie as he yielded only four hits.

The game was Maglie's third consecutive victory. Earl Simmons made a smooth comeback to big league baseball by pitching Philadelphia Phillies to an 8 to 2 National League victory over the Chicago Cubs. The former army sergeant

Steelhead derby entries have been down. Reports of anglers' favorite Kiyah River say: "They're either not there or not doing anything."

A huge migration of cutthroat trout up the Skeena and tributaries is any indication, fishermen believe the trout season should be a heavy one. Late reports from anglers say they have taken limits of open season trout in the Skeena and confluences of Skeena with such streams as Khyex, Kwintsa and others.

Don Cornwell, manager of the Prince Rupert senior baseball club, announces a practice game for the team will be held next Saturday at Roosevelt park, 10:30 a.m. All former club members and interested ball players are invited to attend.

Another newcomer to Prince Rupert baseball is Bill Kaines, who comes from Penticton and is a pitcher. Bill, who manages bowling alleys, also announces the formation of a short track bowling league of 14 teams. More details later.

SUGAR RAY BRAINY—There never was much doubt that Sugar Ray Robinson did better than most when they were handing out brains to the prize fighters. Now it's official.

The middleweight champ had his choice of visiting Paris in the spring or staying here and getting himself cuffed around by Joey Maxim, the rugged ruler of the cruiser-weights. He chose Paris.

It would have made a great payday for everybody, probably above $100,000 for each fighter. There is no ring attraction in sight to match it. But Robinson doesn't need the money, and he was smart enough to realize the dice were loaded. Maxim, packing a 15-pound weight advantage, might have even evened money to slip Sugar the first knockout of his career.

SHOULD COOL OFF—Warren Giles, the new president of the National League, should have been given a year's cooling-out period between handing in his resignation as president of Cincinnati Reds and assuming his present post.

Under the Talbot plan, the popular and extremely able executive would have been required to sit through a full schedule of games with nothing to do for his salary except munch peanuts and learn to admire umpires for the truly fine job they turn in under trying conditions.

It would have been a tough course for a man who had watched the Knights in Blue rob his Reds all those years, but a man of Giles' calibre would have mastered it, and would not, for

RICKEY DOES IT AGAIN—Inmates of Branch Rickey swear that the inventor of the rookie assembly line has done it again—that he already has assembled under the Pittsburgh banner the biggest and finest collection of future greats controlled by any club in either big league. Said one baseball figure, fresh from a swing around the Mahatma's new domain:

"I'm not fooling you—he'll have the Pirates up in the race within another year or two. I never saw such wonderful kids before in my life. I don't know yet what it is that Branch has, the others don't have, but it's something."
