Many Visitors At Conrad St.

More than 150 visitors thronged to Conrad Street School Tuesday afternoon to take advantage of "Visitor's Day" in the school—another Education Week feature.

Instead of the usual class-to-class visiting, Principal T. G. Bateman arranged a program for the visitors in the assembly hall in the school basement which featured demonstration lessons actually being taught. The demonstrations thus presented by the pupils proved to visitors the tremendous strides which methods of teaching had taken within the past few years. "Our schools now try to teach in each grade the knowledge the child will actually require and use within his own age group," Mr. Bateman said. "Gone are the days when Grade four spelling consisted of words like philosopher or 'psychology,' which a Grade 4 child would never use. The new spellers teach them only words useful to them NOW."

Following the singing of "O Canada," the Flag Salute was given by Lucy Olsen.

The program continued as follows: Rhythm exercises by Miss N. Irving's Grade one class. Choral reading, "A Wanderer's Song" (John Masefield), by portion of Principal T. G. Bateman's Grade Five class. Play, "The Boy and His Goats," by pupils from Miss C. Sirett's Grade Two.

Folk dance, "French Minuet," by some of Miss M. Hamilton's Grade Three class. Choral reading by Grade Three pupils from Mrs. C. Weise's class. Play, "The Princess Who Never Laughed," by pupils from Miss M. Hamilton's Grade Three.

A unit in spelling demonstrated by pupils of Mrs. C. Weise's Grade Four class. Choral reading, "Sir Brian Botany," by pupils from Mr. Bateman's Grade Five class.

TIME WASTERS
LONDON (CP) — Every time there's a minor factory accident hundreds of working hours are lost by those who gather around to watch, says a report in a British medical journal. It estimated 36 percent of the time lost in factories is through curiosity.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (CP) — Leopold Premyslav, a violinist who was a friend of Brahms and Richard Strauss, died here. Native of Germany, he once played for the Czar of Russia and settled in South Africa 14 years ago.
