Mr. Smith criticized what he termed "socialization of architecture." He said that Alberta and Saskatchewan are seeking to arrange that the universities decide who shall become an architect.

"Control of architecture is this way by the government is absolutely ridiculous," he said.

Road Foreman at Burns Lake Honored

The cozy hall of the B.P.O.E.

No. 246 at Burns Lake, B.C., was filled to capacity by members of the crews of the Department of Public Works for a farewell party in honor of George D.

The Department of Lands was represented by the government agent Aubrey Fisher, the Forestry Department by Carmer Gibson and others, and Game Department by William H. Richmond. Other workers a the Court House building, even the district nurses, sent regrets at being unable to appear at the party for Mr. Benson, the popular road foreman who has been promoted to a similar position at Powell River.
