

AROUND THE WORLD . . . with PICTURES

FOR REX HARRISON AND FILM STAR GRETA GARBO discover that there is no escape possible from the persistent cameraman who catches them as they enter a restaurant in Rapallo, Italy. At left the fabulous Garbo covers her smile as Rex beams in submission to the photographer. Earlier, the camera caught Harri on giving the hand signal to "stop"

A FOURTH-GRADE SCHOOL-MARM is Michigan's choice to cop the Miss America title in Atlantic City in September. She is 20-year-old Velva Robbins of Dowagiac.

REPAIRING A TELEPHONE LINE high above the sands of Saudi Arabia, Mohammed Iba Ali applies his skill to maintain a communication whose speed even the famed Ahmed and his magic carpet could not match. Ali helps to keep the telephone system of Arabian American Oil Company in good working order.

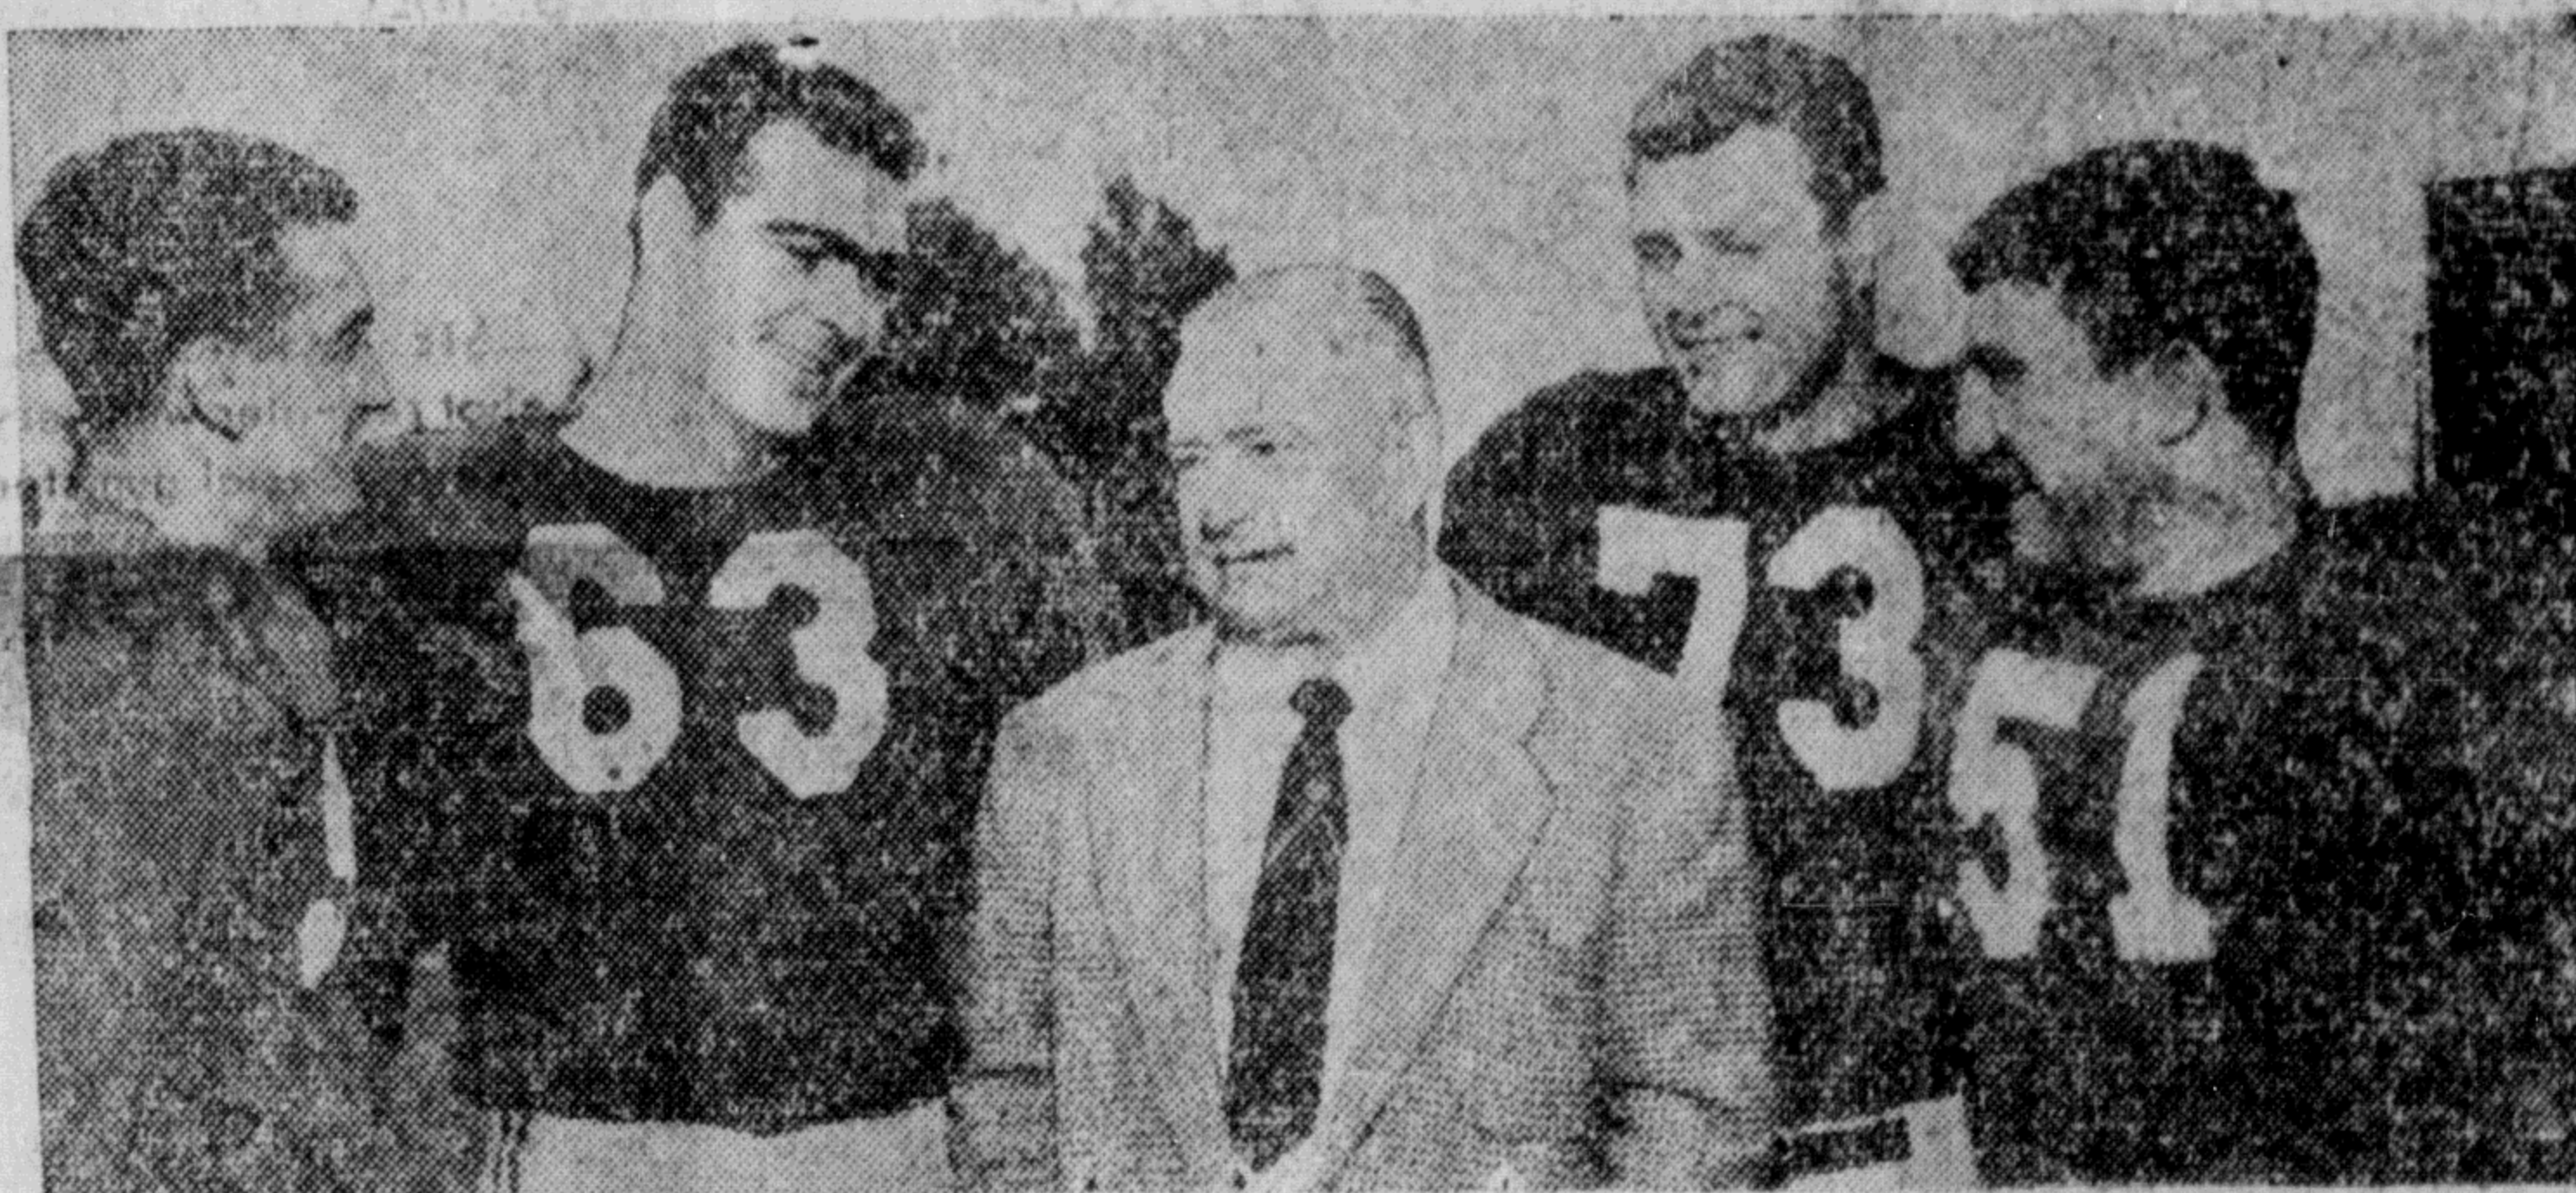

THIS IS THE TEMPLE of Mont Thabor in Quebec city where 19-year-old Marie of the famous Dionne quintuplets may take her religious vows and enter the Roman Catholic order of the Servantes du Tres Saint Sacrament.

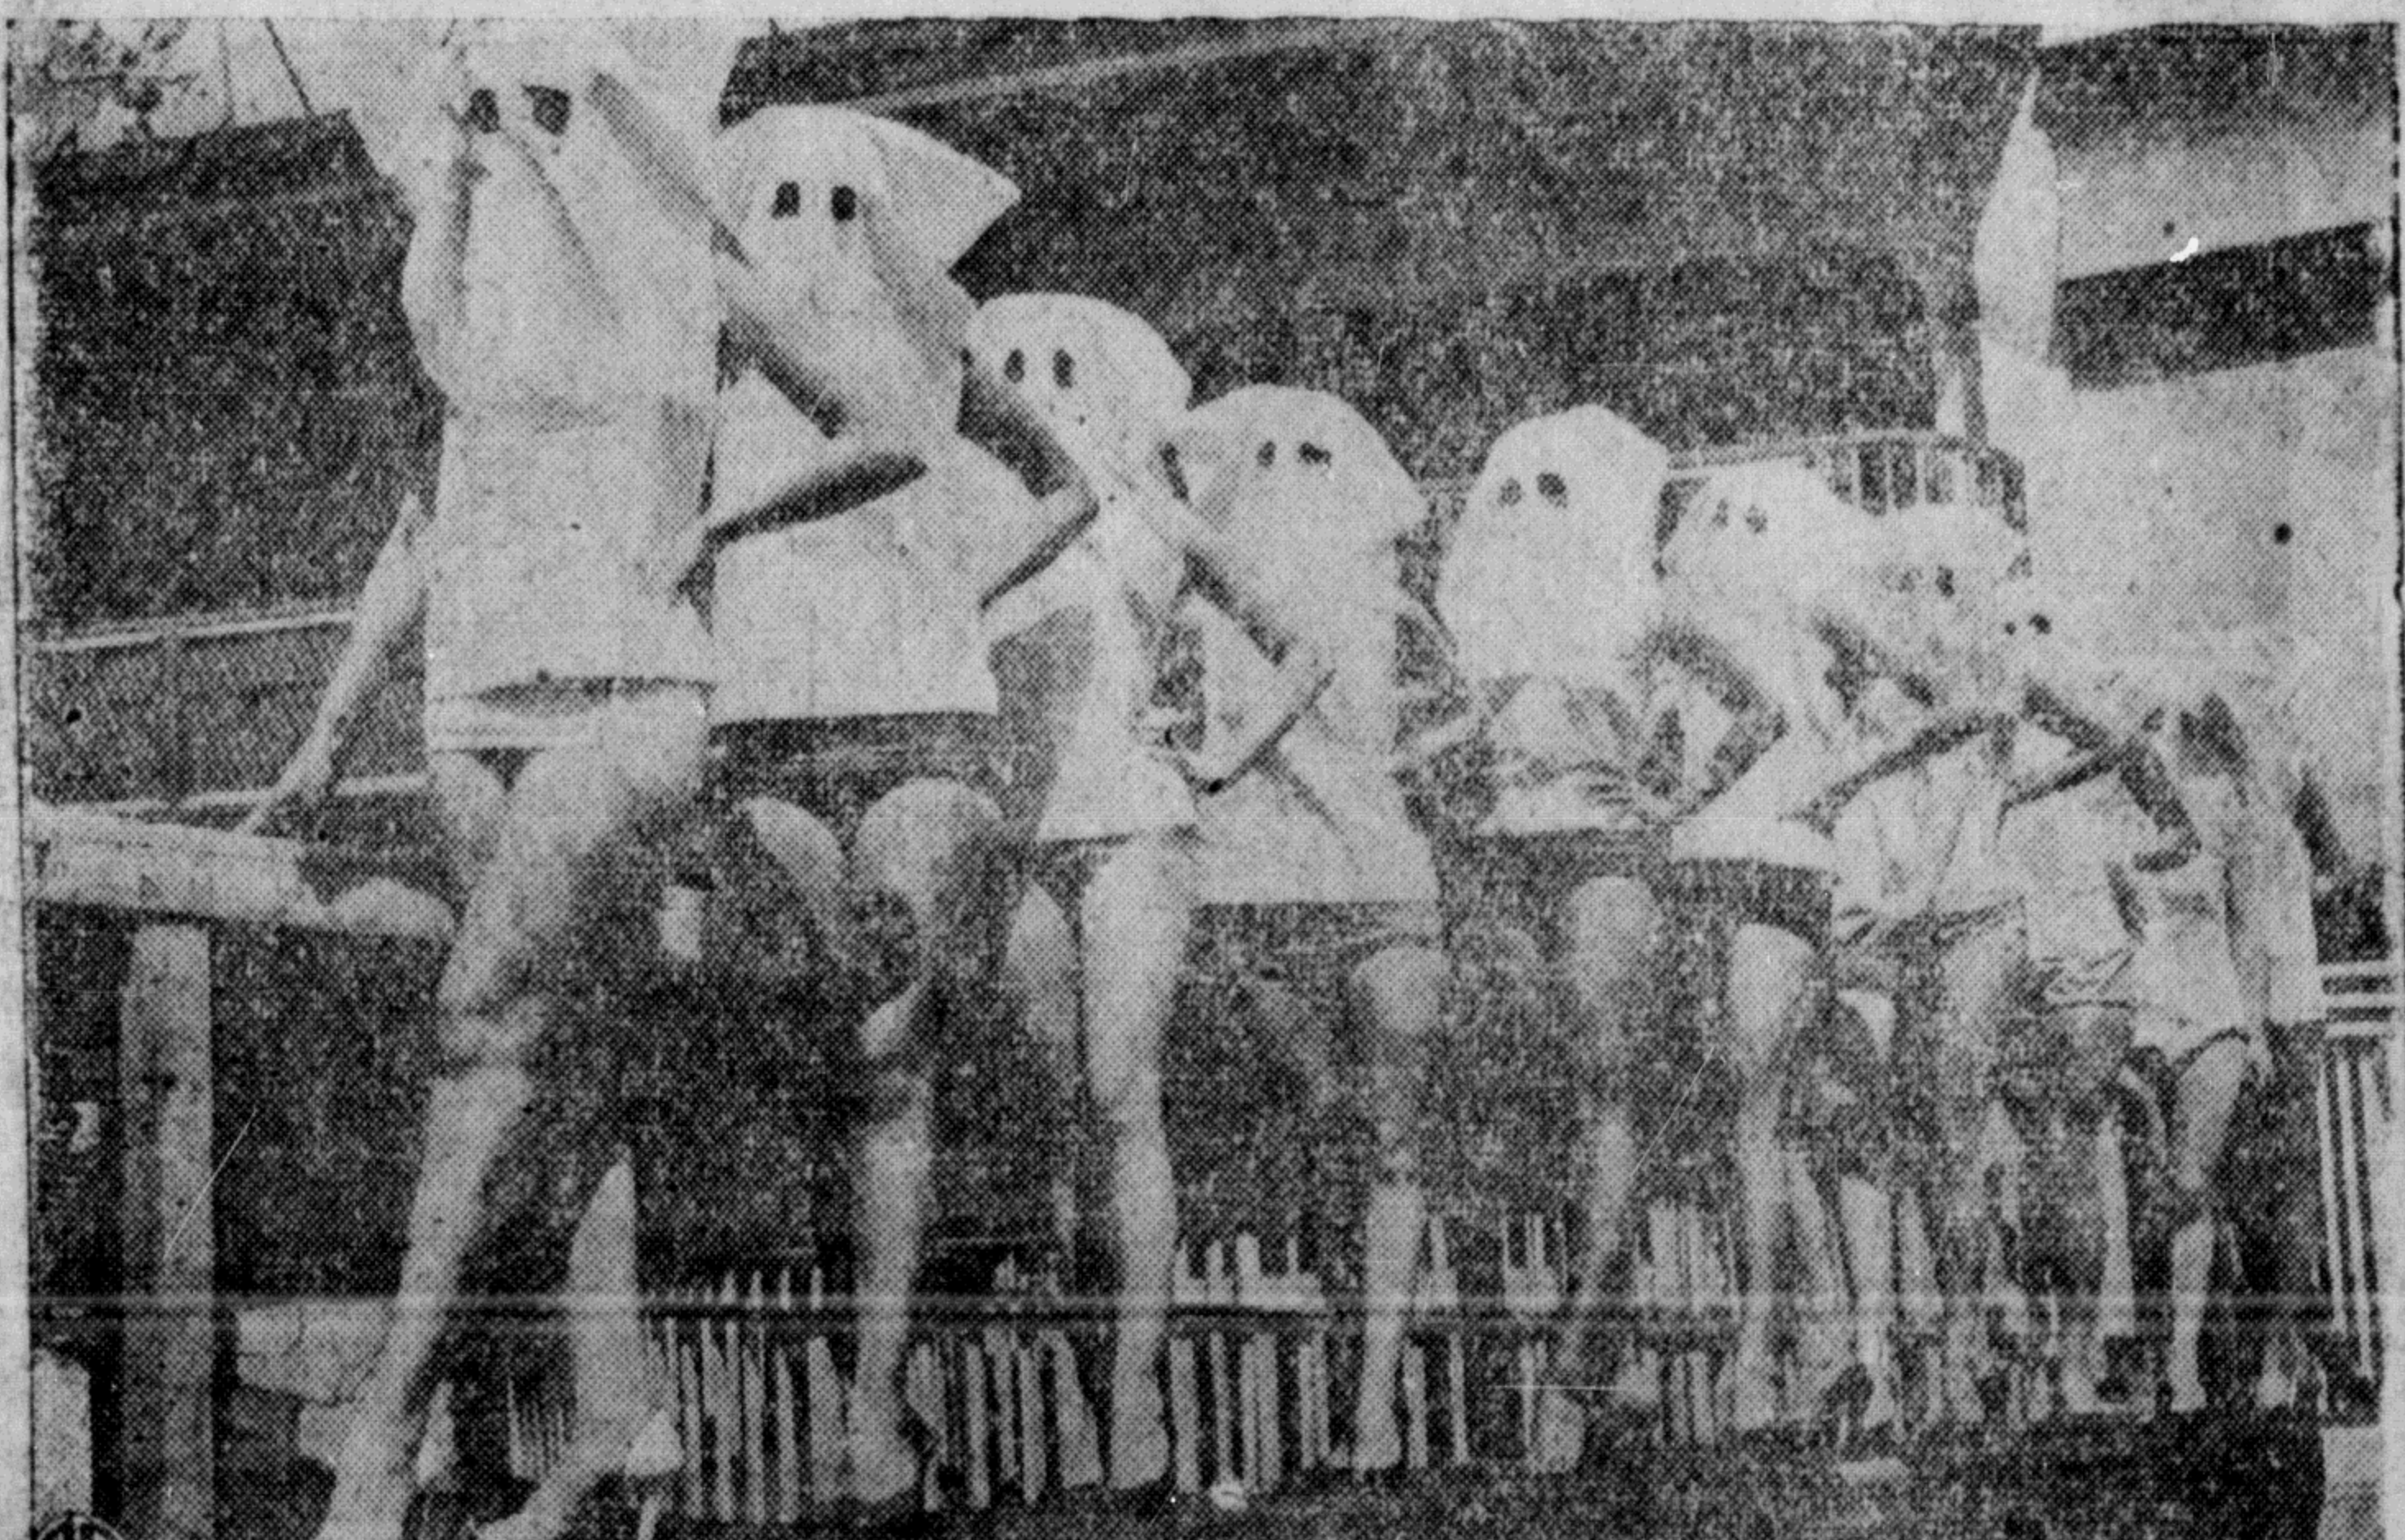

NEW YORK GIANTS' ROY CAMPANELLA, in a familiar pose, has a finger-shaking duel with umpire Tom Gorman during the argument that resulted in a recent game in which Roy Campanella of the Dodgers complained of being pitched to too closely. The argument ended, as all of them do, with Durocher on the short end of the decision.

DOUG FORD, 31, of Harrison, N.Y., hugs the trophy after winning the $25,000 Open golf tournament at Montreal. Ford's sensational 15-under-par 265 for the 72-hole tournament won him $5,000 first-prize money.

COACH DOUG (PEAHEAD) WALKER discusses strategy with four of his import huskies from the Montreal Alouettes in the Big Four Football Union. Left to right: Sam Etcheverry, Jim Station, Walker, John (Red) O'Quinn, and Ray Cicia. Etcheverry is a quarterback, O'Quinn an end and the other two are linemen.

CLAIMING THAT TOO MANY JUDGES of "beautiful legs" are swayed by a beautiful face or shapely figure, finalists who competed in the 7th annual "Beautiful Legs" contest at Palisades Amusement Park, N.J., wore pillow cases over themselves as they paraded before the judges.

BUSES WITH EQUIPMENT and full instruction on manual training, operated by the Nova Scotia education department, travels throughout the province instructing students at schools where there are no permanent workshops. Teacher Noel H. Johnston instructs a class at Lucasville school in Halifax West.

15-FOOT, 692-POUND black and silver marlin struggled for three hours, 50 minutes before it surrendered to Capt. A. H. Lincoln of Lafayette, Calif. After battling for supremacy Captain Lincoln was exhausted, but the smile on his face is the fisherman's way of saying: "It was worth it!" The sea fighter was caught off Panama City, Panama.

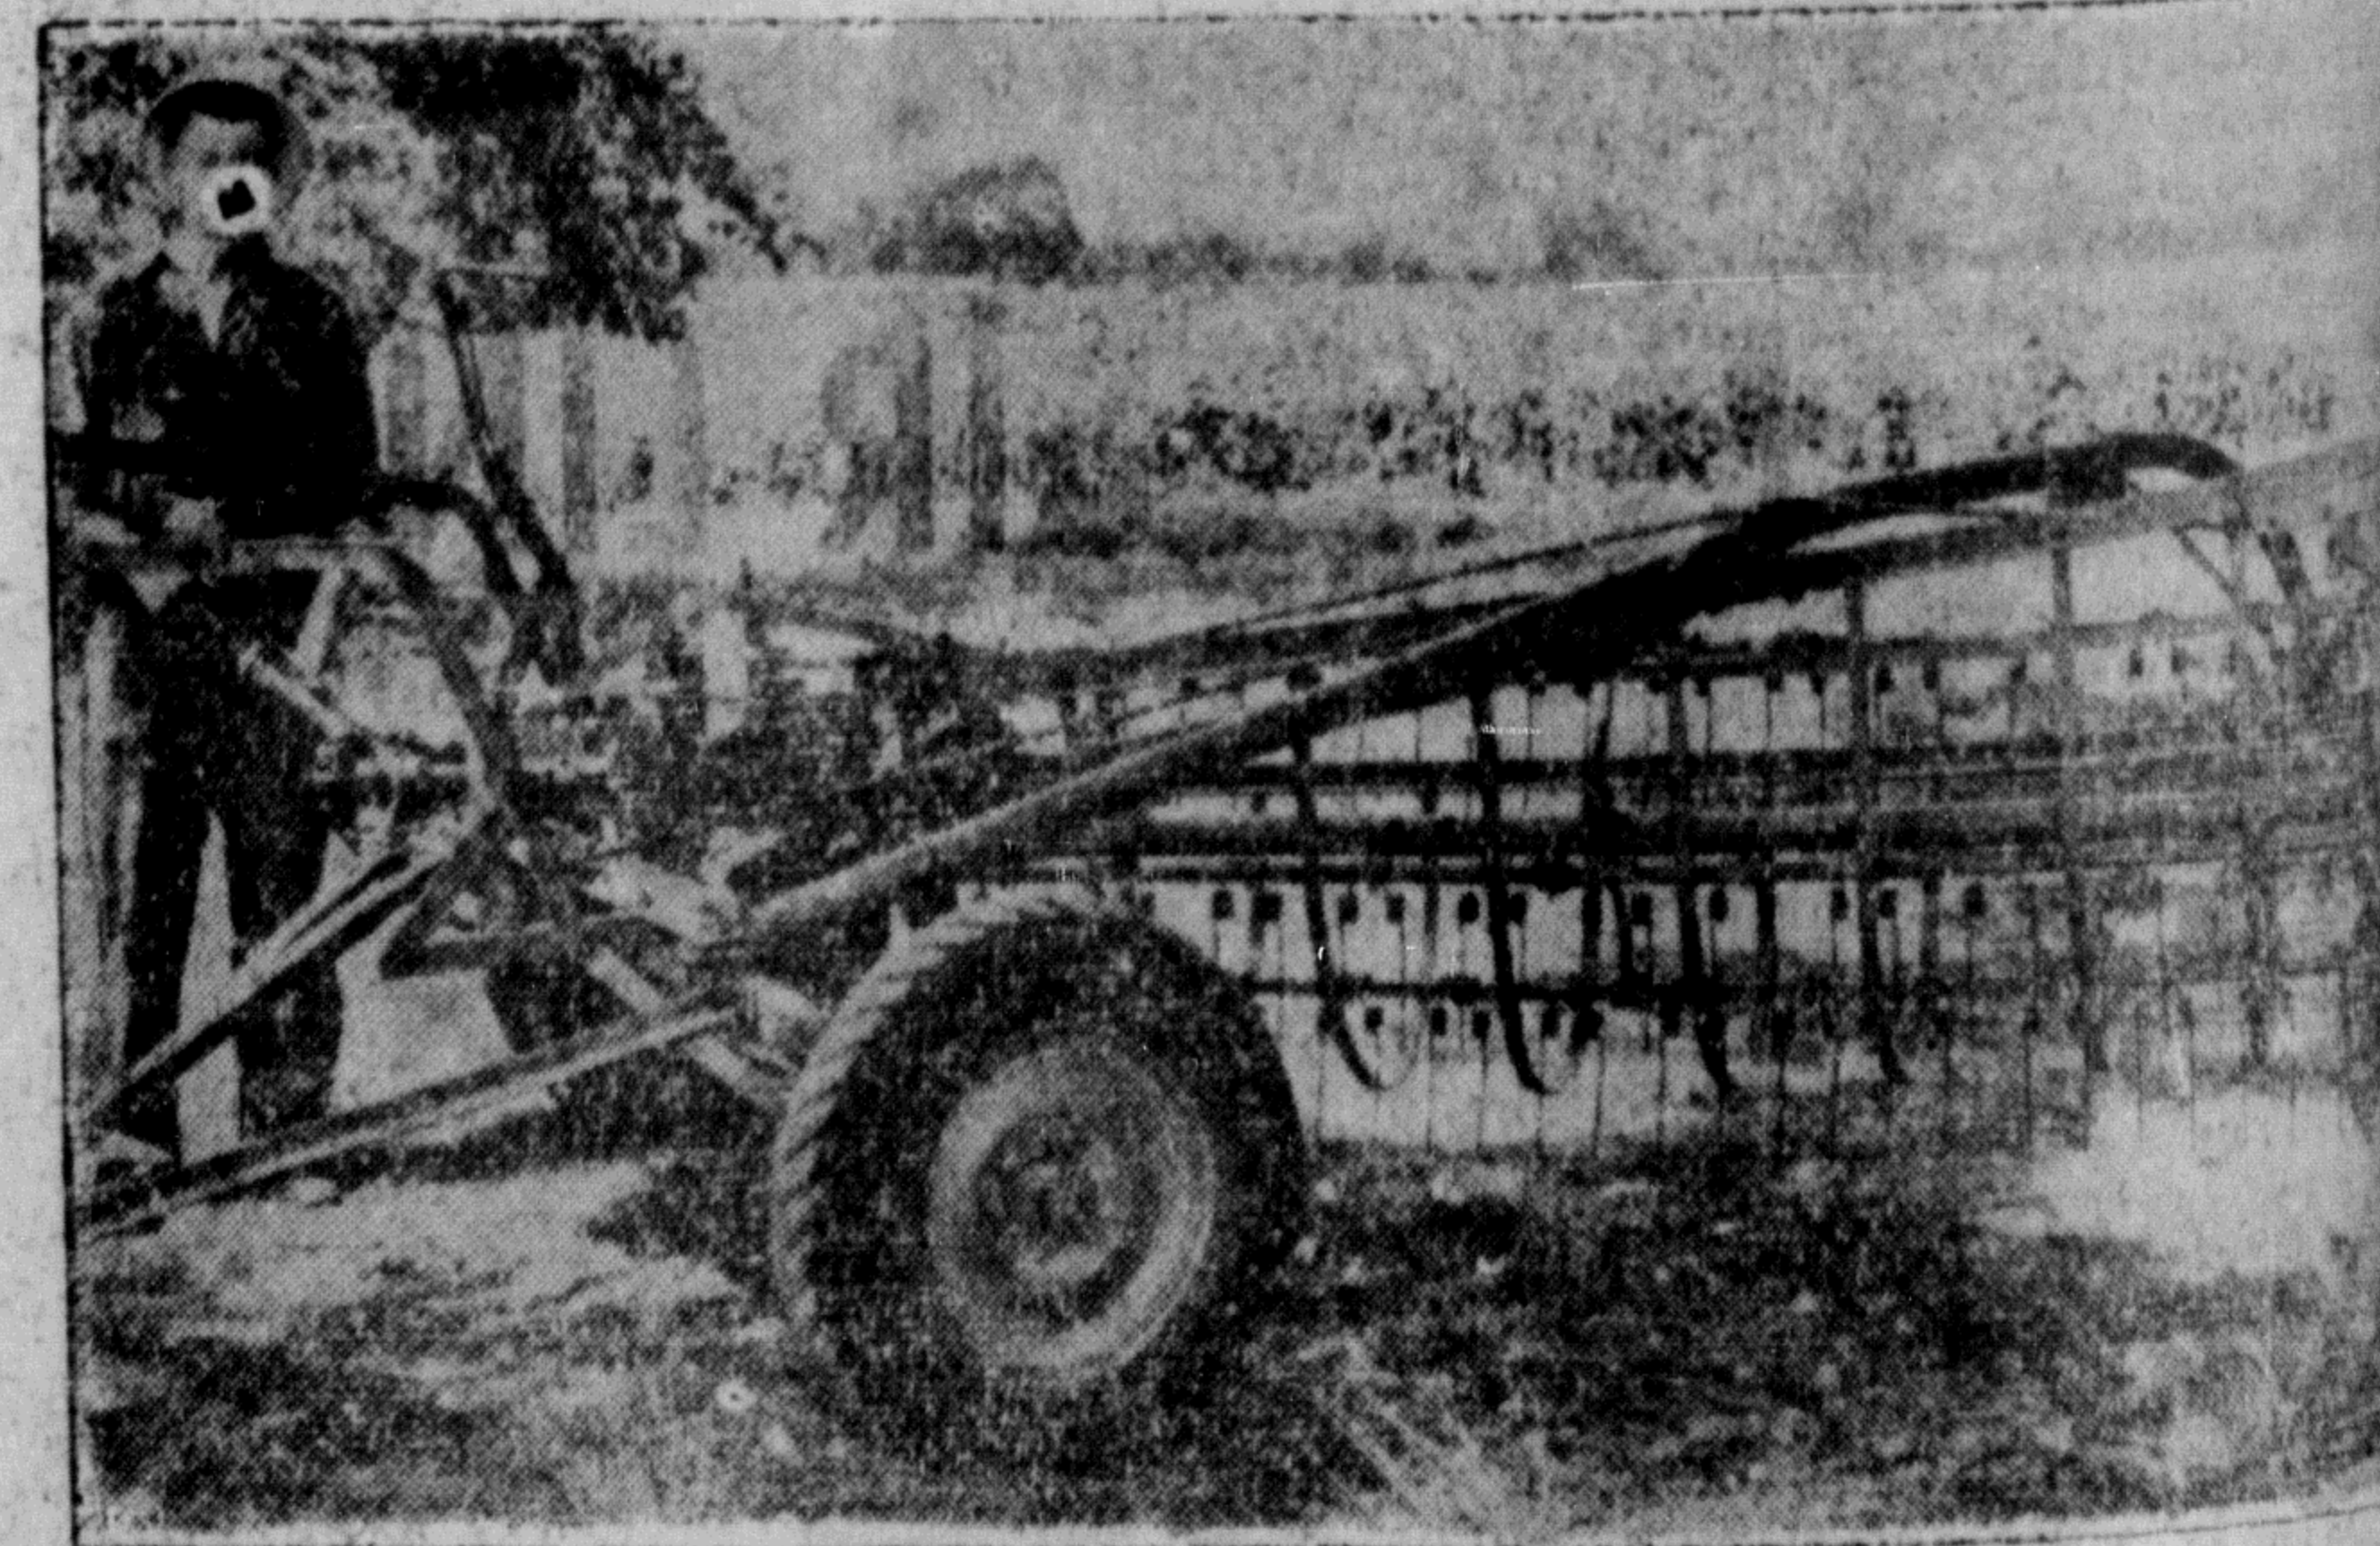

1950. RAYMOND D. WEST of Fort Madison, Iowa, wears the "samadai" suit as he hunts for mines buried along a road in the demilitarized zone of Korea. The suit weighs about 24 pounds and consists of a modified armored vest, and regulation Army field trousers with laminated nylon plates attached.

THE LADY UP HIGH RELAXES as she strums her guitar—then to the strong brow of her mandolin-playing partner. The music that results entertains patrons at a Frankfurt, Germany, club.

BEING PARALYZED hasn't dampened the competitive spirit of Margaret Webb as she prepares to hurl the javelin from her wheelchair. She's competing in the international sports meet for the paralyzed at Stoke Mandeville, England.

SIMON HAGERMAN, a Lebanon, Ill., farmer grew the power-driven side-delivery rake made himself before he takes it into the fields to use it. Hagerman, who makes all of his farm machinery, says the rake contains his own invention, the power-driven device, which had already started to build before farm supply companies thought of the idea. Part of Hagerman's 150-acre farm is shown in the background.

PROBABLY THE ONLY SOUND being heard at the National Chess Tournament in Milwaukee is the scraping movements of pawns, kings, queens, and knights as some of the 182 contestants ponder their next moves.