Australian Trip Planned By Brundage

LAUSANNE, Switzerland A-Avery Brundage, American president of the International Olympic committee, may make a flying visit to Australia in the next two months to check on the organization of the 1956

Melbourne games. "I'm seriously considering it. the top Olympic executive said today. "If I go it will be before the IOC meeting in Athens in

The last obstacle in Meibourne's fight to keep the games apparently was eliminated Sunday when the Olympic executive committee declined to take action on a proposal to move the event elsewhere.

Angelo Bolanaki, Greek member of the IOC general committee, had suggested a change in site because of Australia's quarantine laws which make it impossible to hold equestrian competition there. The executive committee which cannot make decisive moves but can merely recom mend to the IOC, referred the equestrian issue back to Melbourne for "comment and ad-

Garner Rink

Monday, January 18, 1954

Neely Moore's rink or himself Leon Blain, Bobby Anderson and Jack Mitchell failed to wrest the Young Challenge cup from the Garner rink yesterday as Ed Garner and his three cohort came from behind to take the close game 8-6.

Moore was leading 3-5 at the conclusion of the eighth end but Garner, George Morgan, Bil Vance and Bill Anderson tied if up in the ninth. The tenth end saw Garner's crew place two scoring rocks, which, properly guarded, made it impossible for Moore to score.
