Counterpoint and Form Honors-Aletta Gilker. Counterpoint Honors-Olive Strand. GRADE III THEORY Harmony and History Honors-Elizabeth Oswald.

- Olga Zabudney; June Henry; Olive Strand. GRADE II THEORY

History

irst Class Honors-Ann Eyolf-

GRADE I THEORY First Class Honors-Carol Nelail Redpath; Elaine Chris-

Church Program

mor adviser of the group.

The L.D.R., organized in the

the Mother of Jesus.

By JOHN STIRN

odical mind and wonderfully apt | It is too bad we are not taught |

opular

ards and

s Kevenue

ortunity to put your adals away at a

general meeting

Lounge, Civic Centre,

Increase

and community centres. In Prince Rupert the community centre has the appropnate and proper title of Civic Centre and the facilities for furthering education in its broadest sense are not sur passed by any similar centre in any city in Britsh Columbia and possibly in Canada, although Ontario has some very anvanced centres.

hing for each to do. you want to learn to draw, carv leather, weave small articles

aders

and Drama Festival be received untill athout penalty. (53c)

we can solve it.

aby Week March 3 to e, at THE STORK fill your every need, and to add more efficiency to edpert Fishing Vessel your operations.

equested to attend.

Leap Year Dance At Rupert Club

It was Leap Year night for sure at the Prince Rupert Club Friday when the ladies took over the proceedings. They invited the guests, chose their partners and provided the refreshments.

It al. proved jolly indeed. Admission was in the form of phonograph records which were ersonals-

A good sized party of bridge carpenters expect to be leaving here tonight for Kitimat.

James Madsen, who has been in Shaughnessy Hospital for the past few weeks, returned to the city last evening.

Paddy 'O Gorman, who entered hospital during February, was boys younger than he who discharged Saturday and is now have been told are two of at home, feeling much improved. five brothers.

John A. Clark, production manager of Nelson Bros. Fisher- to me should he quit school ies Ltd. left by plane today on This year he is in Grade Eleven. his return to Vancouver after He has two sisters, one of who He has heard from some of the a spending a few days here on is older and one whom is fellows he knows that there is a and membership committees of in most of his tests. He attempts The Lutheran Daughters of the Women of the Moose was most of his home work, but he the Reformation presented a held at the home of Mrs. A. never seems to get any results. program at St. Paul's Lutheran Ritchie. Plans for the coming Of his subjects, Math seems to Church elast night under the spring bazaar were discussed be the best. adership of Mrs. Lars Olsen, Refreshments were served after . Johnny likes working with the meeting.

all, has been an active girls' and Dr. J. Bede Harrison, Vancou- to be able to buy an old Model T young wemen's group. Besides ver radiologist, arrived in the Ford which right now is parked spiritual fellowship, various sew- city on the Camosun last night right outside my window and projects have been under- from the south, being here on Johnny is there tinkering with taken under senior supervision. his monthly visit to Prince Ru- the windshield wipers now. The program consisted of con- pert General Hospital. Tonight Johnny has an opportunity to gregational hymns and other he will be a speaker at the get a job in one of the garages inging, devot.on, a reading and special civilian defence class of down town under some of the tered Nurses' Association.

Civic Centre and Education

cation and schooling were prac- with a band or symphony? If room 11, should be quit school? tically synonymous and the re- you want to do these things, the Because of bad health in the last sponsibility for teaching the Civic Centre can accomodate year he missed quite a bit of oung prople was placed at the eacher's door. The origin of you. the idea that the teaching pro- If there is nothing for you at repeating grade 12. Most of his fession could take one hundred your centre and some peop's friends have graduated and have children from one hundred dif- claim there isn't-write and ex- letf school. Some of them are ferent families and twenty-five plain what is needed and if its now working for some of the or more varying environments within our limited budget it shall stores and companies in town and turn out one hundred true be supplied. and identical scholars is obscure | Limited budget? Unfortun- because of an unlucky break out has been very popular. If the ately yes. Still if each adult in last year, he was not able to Jones boy failed to keep page Prince Rupert took out a memwith the Smith boy, it was be- bership, not because they need cause the Smith boy had a bet- the Civic Centre but because the ter teacher. The possibility that Civic Centre needs them, the the Jones boy had a slow metn- budget would not be "limited."

hands was not considered. nted against tellow pupils out this." against their ability to learn.

From the age of two when the doler joins fellow toddlers of Wednesday afternoons to learn o play and share their toys and ollow simple instructions and

Do you want to learn to sing stand on your head, turn carte, to act in plays, to play

If you have a printing problem

We've a printing form to

Education Week

(This is the second of a series of estays for Education Week by pupils of Booth Memorial High School. The subject: Should John Quit School and Get a Job?)

By PATTY MORTON

Who is Johnny? Is he the boy who lives next to me, whose father works in the mill and whose mother works at the dress shop on the corner? He may be reality. put to good use for the dancing, the boy who sits in the first seat of the front row of If he is the Johnny Jones Room II—the fellow who is very pale and thin and seems to be absent most of the term. Johnny might even be the boy who I see often in the new black become very ill. Johnny's help is

Plymouth always packed full of kids, some of whom I never see graduate with his pals. Now ne family. Working at the grocery at school. Perhaps it is Johnny wishes just to quit school and Jones who I see hurry after get a job. My advice to Johnny school to the grocery store where moping. Today the chances for he works. He is a tall thin chap advancement in jobs depends on with clean but, rather worn whether you have a High School clothes. Several times I have diploma. When his friends are climbing the ladder of succes. noticed him walking with two Johnny will be on the bottom be-PLAY BOY

If he is the boy who lives next younger. He has never been a swell job at one of the factories: A joint meeting of publicity very bright boy. He seems to fail in a nearby town. The pay he > tools. Last year he saved enough money by working after school two topics on Hannah and Mary, the local chapter of the Regis- best mechanics. I think he should take the job and quit school for he seems to be skilled in this line of work and his only method of learning is by being taught by a

If he is the boy who sits in the TUESDAY-For many years the words edu- bridge, chess or checkers, to play first seat of the first row of school and, as a result, failed most of his subjects and is again Johnny begrudges the fact that,

BABY WEEK

Flannelette Diapers,

coverage by Lloyd's THE STORK SHOPPE of London. March 3rd - 8th We Have Many Special Values

is recommended by

Canada's

leading fur-

Complete

insurance

Fine Upholstery Bassinette Sheet, pr... Hospital Sheeting Contour Sheets. 1.75—1.89 may now be safely cleaned Baby Gowns, each and revived with consid-Shouderettes, each eration for their life and T. Shirt, Long Sleeve, textures * Duracleaning Babyalls Cotton, each 1.49 restores resilience to wool Baby Dress fibres *. Pile unmats and * Colors revive Rompers Furnishings are Dura-Baby Jacket Set 1/3-Off cleaned in your home Bunting Bags No inconvenience in hav-Jackets, Bootees, Bonnets,

Phone Green 328 THE STORK A World-wide Service

ing them gone . Also

DAVE JONES

mothproofed, if desired

SHOPPE 303-Third Ave. W. Phone Blue 810

The state of the s

Vests, Training Pants, Bibs,

Stockings, and many other has been told is super. There is not much work required to obtain it either he is told. To Johnny this is exactly what he anyway. Today there are many examples of the reasons for stud.

he would probably regret all his end he will profit by it. lite. There are many students All these Johnny's are typical ting school are being solved.

should he quit school? Johnny is a bright student who works very hard. He comes from a big family. Recently his father has needed for the support of his store after school and on Saturday does not provide enough help for the family. He has been offered a full time job at the cannery where his father worked. This job will meet the needs of his family. Thus Johnny must

If he is the boy who I see often the black Plymouth should he STOVE POLISH quit school? He is a fun-loving for a quicker, nicer, blacker

Prince Rupert Daily News Monday, March 8, 1952

wants. If he can get a soft job opportunities given to people ents quitting schools today. without finishing school why not who must quit school and go to Some of these cases show foolish grab it? Poor Johnny can't work to gain a high school grad- reasoning on the part of the seem to understand there is no uation. In taking correspond- pupil. Others leave an attitude such job. He is living in a dream ence courses Johnny may obtain of wanting to help in our minds world. He would be making a his diploma. This will probably Today, however, through the big mistake to quit school which take a lot more work but in the guidance of teachers many of these problems of students quit-

Come and Enjoy

The Business & Professional Women's

Shamrock Card Party

at the Civic Centre, Friday, March 7th, 8 p.m.

Admission 75c

CANADIAN EDUCATION WEEK

(March 3 to 10)

Program --

6:45 p.m.—Radio: Jaycees Discussion on Education

8:00 p.m.—Public Meeting, Civic Centre. Guest speaker, G. W. Graham, Inspector of Schools

1:30 p.m.—Open House at King Edward School—Visit classrooms, program by pupils, tea by PTA.

WEDNESDAY-

Open House at Borden Street, Seal Cove and Conrad Street Schools, PTA will serve tea to parents following classroom visits.

Open House, Booth and Annunciation Schools.

8 to 8:30 p.m.-Radio panel discussion by members of Booth Memor'al High School.

Downtown windows will hold displays of pupils' work. C.P.A. office will display work done at Civic Centre classes.

Watch The Daily News editorial page for special articles

THE CIVIC CENTRE ASSOCIATION

DEPARTMENT OF UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

PRESENT

A Ten-Day Course under EILEEN CROSS

March 17 - 29, 1952 - Afternoons & Evenings

Registration Forms are now available at the Civic Centre

Registration Fee $2.00

Rejuvenating Your Home - - -Tailoring (for advanced dressmakers)

is available to members of the Civic Centre Only Phone 231 for more details

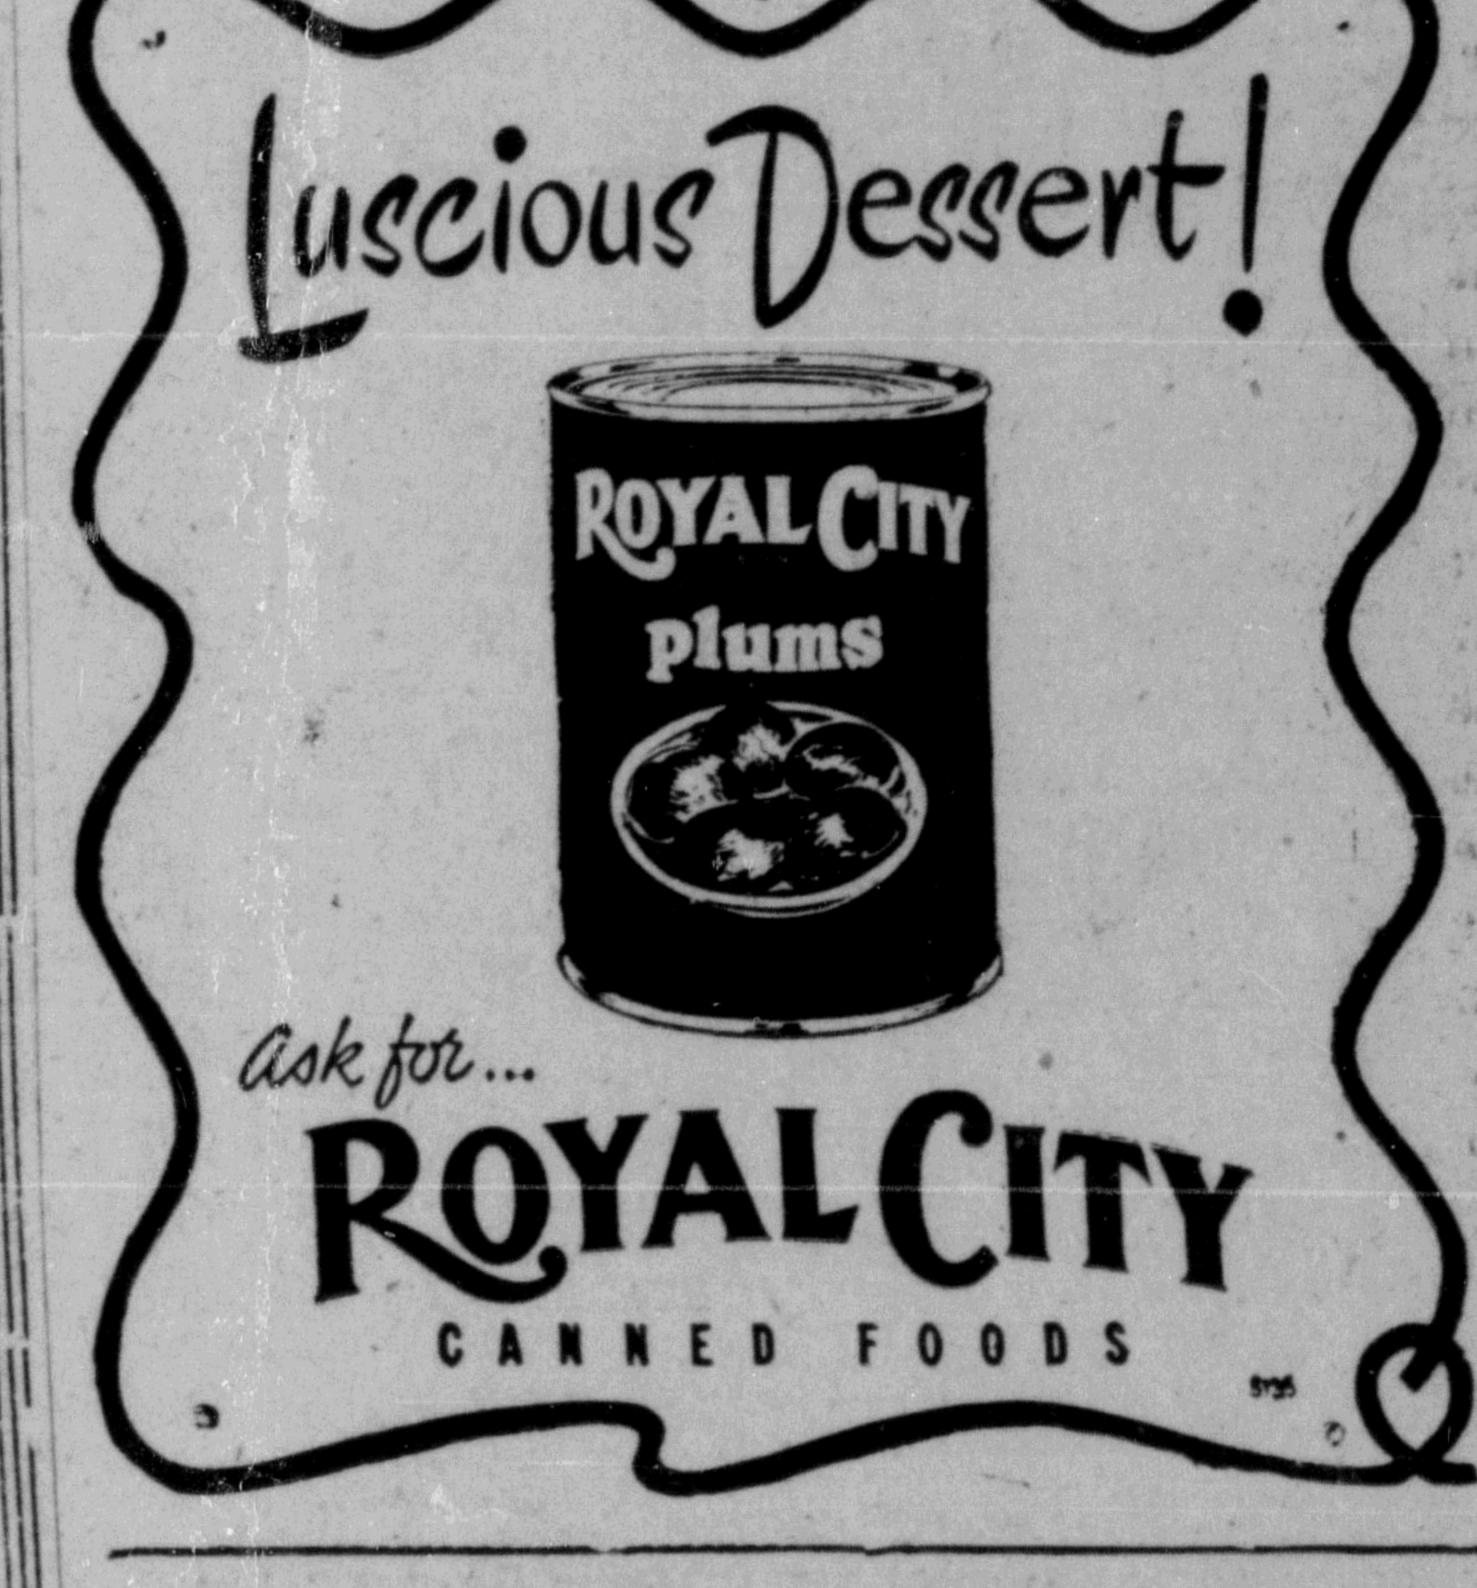

'PYREX' and 'FIREKING'

• CASSEROLES • PUDDING DISHES

O CUSTARD DISHES

• MEASURING CUPS • LOAF DISHES

Box 1118

Is your marriage funor a failure?

Don't let "Caffein Nerves" spoil your disposition SWITCH TO POSTUM!

IF YOU HAVE TROUBLE SLEEPING - if the caffein in tea or coffee sets your nerves on edge - switch to POSTUM. It's entirely caffein-free - can't cause "caffein nerves"! Many aren't bothered by caffein - but if you're one of those who just can't take it - enjoy the blessed relief POSTUM has brought to millions. You'll like POSTUM - it's real economy. Costs only about 1/2 as much as coffee . . . and as well as giving you delicious flavor, POSTUM is made instantly - right in the cup! Get the big 8 oz. size!

