

Marshall Pitches No-Hitter

By The Canadian Press

Vancouver's Clarence Marshall reported in with the Western International Baseball League's first 1953 no-hitter Tuesday night, but lost his bid for a shutout due to wobbly control.

The 28-year-old righthander, making his second appearance in a Vancouver uniform since his release by the Pacific Coast League Hollywood Stars, held Salem hitless for nine innings but walked nine men as the Capitanos rolled to a 12-1 triumph. The Senators combined three bases on balls and a long fly in the eighth inning for their only tally.

The loss dropped Salem two full games back of the pace-setting Spokane Indians who shaded Tri-City, 4-3. In other games, Victoria turned back Yakima 8-3; Lewiston edged Calgary 10-9 and Edmonton and Wenatchee divided a doubleheader. Edmonton taking the first game 5-1 in seven innings and Wenatchee the nightcap 3-2 in ten.

Marshall, who was signed by the Caps as a free agent last week, almost lost his no-hitter with two out in the ninth inning when Salem's Gary Ballard lefted a long fly to left centre field. Gale Taylor made a stab for the ball and lost it but the official scorer ruled it was an error.

Marshall pitched for the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Browns prior to his stint with the Stars. In his first start for Vancouver last week, he was driven to the showers in the early innings by the Victoria Tyees.

Wenatchee's Charley Oubre turned in the evening's next-best pitching job, a five-hitter in the extra-inning affair with Edmonton. It was his 13th win against 11 losses. Edmonton's John Conant was trying for his 20th win but suffered his 10th loss.

First Division Teams Stand Chance to Catch Leaders

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The first division teams in both major leagues could look at the calendar today and tell themselves "we can still do it." That's because on Aug. 12 two years ago, New York Giants were 13 games behind Brooklyn, yet they caught the Dodgers on the final day of the season and went on to win a playoff for the National League pennant.

The teams in second, third and fourth place in both leagues go into today's contests less than 13 games out of the lead. In the National, Brooklyn is 7 1/2 in front of Milwaukee Braves with Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals tied for third, 11 1/2 games back. In the American, New York Yanks lead Chicago White Sox by six games with third-place Cleveland 11 behind and fourth-place Boston 12 1/2.

The size of the leads changed in both leagues Tuesday night. The Yankees lost a full game as they bowed to Washington Senators 2-1 and Chicago defeated Cleveland Indians 6-2. The situation was reversed in the National where Brooklyn whipped New York 4-0 and St. Louis edged Milwaukee 4-3.

Boston Red Sox won twice at Philadelphia, whipping the Athletics 7-6 and 7-5. Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Browns

Not Finance Minister
VANCOUVER (CP)—Fisheries Minister Sinclair, re-elected in Monday's federal election, has denied reports that he may be in line for the finance portfolio in the Dominion cabinet.

"I don't care who the next finance minister is, but it won't be me," said Mr. Sinclair, assistant to Finance Minister Abbott before taking over the fisheries portfolio.

split a pair. The Browns took the first 5-2, the Tigers the second 9-3.

Chicago Cubs edged Cincinnati Redlegs 1-0. Philadelphia Phillies defeated Pittsburgh 3-0, but lost 7-4 in a game that was finally finished after being left hanging since July 5 by the Pennsylvania Sunday curfew law. The Pirates had been ahead 7-0 when time was called after 6 1/2 innings.

The Brooklyn victory was a great personal satisfaction for righthander Carl Erskine. The Dodger ace gave up just two hits—both singles by Hank Thompson—as he beat the Giants at the Polo Grounds where he had failed five times in a row. Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges homered.

Back-to-back doubles by Solly Hemus and Red Schoendienst in the ninth gave the Cardinals their victory over Milwaukee. Fine clutch pitching by Walt Masterson saved Washington's triumph over the Yankees.

Billy Pierce, who pitched a three-hit shutout for Chicago against New York Sunday, came to the rescue in relief at Cleveland.

Boston's Mel Parnell became the first American League pitcher to win 16 games this season as he took the first game of the Red Sox twin bill at Philadelphia, but he needed help from three relief men in the ninth inning. In the second game Ellis Kinder preserved Skinny Brown's 11th victory.

Stars Leading By Eight Games

By The Canadian Press

Eight games separate first-place Hollywood, and the pursuing Seattle Rainiers in the chase for the Pacific Coast League pennant.

Hollywood's "cousins," the Sacramento Solons, who've won only four of 20 games from the Stars this season, bowed to the leaders Tuesday night, 3-1. Los Angeles, meanwhile, was turning back Seattle, 4-1.

Portland outslugged Oakland and took a 10-6 decision in Portland. The game produced 25 hits, 16 by Portland. Jehosie Heard, Portland rookie, went the distance for his 13th victory, but Bill Howerton found him for a homer in the eighth with two aboard.

San Francisco and San Diego Bradford hurled San Francisco divided a doubleheader. Bill to a 4-2 victory in the opener, besting Lloyd Dickey of the Padres. Bob Kerrigan was the difference in the second game as he blanked the Seals, 6-0, and permitted only four hits.

Declarer's Play Can Give Clue to Correct Defence

Sometimes an alert defender can get a clue as to the correct defence, from the way declarer is playing the hand.

In today's deal, the defenders could have defeated Mr. Champion's four heart contract by two tricks. They could have won two tricks in clubs and then knocked out the ace of diamonds. Later, when Mr. Abel got in with the king of spades, his side could have cashed two diamond tricks.

But unfortunately Mrs. Keen didn't relish leading away from either of her minor suit kings. She opened the nine of trumps.

Canadians Still in Fight For Open Title

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Some of the top women golfers in Canada and the United States got through the opening round of the Canadian Ladies' Open golf championship here Tuesday and enter the third day of play for the title today.

Marlene Stewart, Canada's 19-year-old golfing hope from Fonthill, Ont., was in top form Tuesday, defeating June Baker of Winnipeg 7 and 5 as she showed a great improvement over her qualifying round of 78, one over par for the difficult London Hunt Club layout.

One of the toughest battles of the day came as defending champion Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., downed Rae Milligan of Jasper, Alta., 2 and 1. The Canadian was up one at the sixth, but the U.S. player gradually moved ahead as she found her form.

Among Canadian survivors who play today besides Miss Stewart are Ada Mackenzie, Toronto; Shirley Woodley, Toronto; Babs Davies, Vancouver; Mrs. Helen Cleat, Vancouver; Anne Sharpe, Fonthill, Ont.; Mrs. J. H. McCarter, Toronto, and Mrs. W. S. Edey, Winnipeg.

Eight Americans are also in the running, including the defending champion.

One of the favorites for the title is Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., twice champion, who won 8 and 7 from Marlene Wanh of Winnipeg after taking seven holes in a row to win on the 11th. She meets Mrs. Edey today.

Death-Defying Feats Slated In Kinsman-Sponsored Show

On Saturday night, Roosevelt Park will be the scene of crashing, rolling cars and speeding, crashing motorcycles as the Vancouver Death Dodgers put on a fender-twisting exhibition. Managed by A. L. Klatt of Vancouver who has been 16 years in the automobile and motorcycle stunting business, they will give a solid two hours of nerve-tingling entertainment.

The Death Dodgers are being sponsored by the Kinsmen Club of Prince Rupert. Funds raised by the club will be used for the numerous Kinsmen projects such as the Kinsmen Kiddies' Camp at Lakelse Lake.

Although this show will be something new in Prince Rupert, automobile and motorcycle stunting done by experts has become one of the most popular entertainments in the last few years. The Death Dodgers themselves are well known throughout Canada as one of the top crews.

It is hoped that the full crew of 10 entertainers will be on hand for Saturday night here.

At present two are in hospital from slight injuries suffered in performances during the last few weeks but are expected to join the rest of the group in Prince Rupert.

Included in the cast of stars is Mary Allen, 29-year-old Vancouverite, billed as the only woman motorcycle stunter in Canada, who does acrobatics on a speeding bike.

Other acts in the show include a ramp to ramp motorcycle jump through a blazing hoop, a motorcycle jump over 10 men, an Iron Man feat in which a loaded truck is driven over a plank supported by the chest of the manager, and the Human Battering Ram who crashes through a flaming barrier while mounted on the hood of a car.
