

Raymond Manton Recalled by Concert Crowd

With a rich, clear and sparkling tenor voice, Raymond Manton of San Francisco last night sang through a variety-filled program to the delight of a good attendance at the last Alaska Music concert here.

Under the leadership of his accompanist, Donald Jones, twice which he sang a short opera Rigoletto and Lehar's "You Are My Delight."

With a lot of power and fine control, Mr. Manton's talent was best displayed in his selection of two selections, "C" and "Air Chamberlain" in several instances.

His performance of the struck high C with great sweetness and clarity.

He also showed an familiarity with his in his chosen program, Italian and as well as English selections.

Manton was ably assisted by his accompanist, Mr. Jones played in Shirley (Reuters)—Shirley, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. Jones, Premier T. C. got a part in a teleplay because she looks as if she could swim the Channel.

Mr. Marsh, 21, showed up at rehearsal of "Half Past Four," a play about a swimmer, in an appropriate swim suit, to go to work.
