ection of 50 Mexican prints will be shown ng Arts and Crafts Exhibition at the Civic ril 5 to 7. These, along with a collection of aintings for the covers of Maclean's Mag- photo finish with Patti Page as Starr. Canadian artists and a display from the Paul-Ford combo is expected to School of Art, completes the number of reach a total of six million discs side features being brought in to augment picting the life around him.

omposing 110

26. Sponsored by the Canadian

League of Composers, the concert will be heard on a CBC network and around the world via a short-wave international service.

piano and theory at 14. After studying at the Royal Conservatory of Music with the help of

In 1949 he won a Canadian

Mr. Somers began studying last summer. Of them he writes: prints, and is officially from the a visit to Mexico Toller . Popular Grafica (The ssical search blasted the opera Portfolios of contemporary ween the eyes-in graphic art. With the Rivera of classical music able political propaganda mixed operettas, say it is up in their work but this show anding that turns has virtually none which could the background of Mexican lithographer seems ecordings, labelled be working on a rougher stone

USIC FROM GIS- interesting effects. Leopoldo corded by the Royal Mendez, who made this show Orchesra, Convent possible, has some very fine is a Victor pressing. wood-cuts on display. Pablo whind the music is O'Higgins (an Irish expatriate) lle, a peasant girl and Fanny Rabinovitch, who has Loys, who is Prince an international reputation and eme in the German mainder seem to be pure bred novement is broken makes a fascinating study ng Giselle receives Mexican life as well as being been recorded 17 times on varither who fears the outstanding work in the graphic ous labels." "Sin," which is no treme love of danc- arts." e her into a "wilis." rding to Slavic leaffianced maiden before being wed order to satisfy her dancing, must rise ht and dance until wever, learns that ce Albrecht are one and that as the ver is engaged to d friend, Bathilde iration and friend by the Toronto Symphony March night. Albrecht has to dance with the n his way to offer prayer at Giselle's en enters the scene.

he who told Giselle wartime service with the Air recht's dual person-Force and Army, he continued the cause of her wilis force both the alarion to dance in-Veterans Affairs Department vater. Hilarian dies, closes with arrival Amateur Hockey Association Canadian Foundation. This sent party which tries to scholarship awarded through the cht, who has fallen him to Paris for a year. th emotion.

But "a Canadian composer entering the serious field must make up his mind he won't make a living at it," said Mr. Somers. the harp and four "At least under existing condiplay in their highfairyland melody tions-he must find some other income and work at his music lection of art is the as much as possible." SCHERZO, from "North Country," a work comphonique No. 4 by posed by Mr. Somers, has been d by Moura Lym- performed by the Toronto sym-Phil- phony. It was written in 1948 strict following a trip to Northern On-the orchestra of 12 perludes, then 12 onemelody and then movement sonatas. The complete

- Platter Parade -

by DICK WESCH

2—"Cry," Johnny Ray.

3-"Tell Me Why," Four Aces

4-"Any Time," Eddy Fisher.

9—"Bermuda," Bell Sisters.

Mills Brothers.

10-"Be My Life's Compan-

THE BOOKSHIELF

THE GREATEST STORY

EVER TOLD

THE HOLY SINNER

quite indescribable 'bouquet'."

With tallies almost completed NATION'S HONOR ROLL for 1951, the team of Les Paul OF HITS: and Mary Ford wound up in a 1-"Wheel of Fortune," Kay top selling record artists. The sold, with their biggest hits being "How High the Moon," "Mock- Cried," Johnny Ray. ingbird Hill," "Tennessee Waltz," "The collection is chiefly made World Is Waiting for the Sunead of the Western up of lithographs and woodblock rise" and "Whispering."

Patti Page hit the jackpot with 8-Please Mr. Sun," Johnny "Tennessee Waltz" and with this, Ray, Graphic Arts Workshop) in added to eight successive rec-Mexico City. The prints are ords, her total is also expected chiefly black and white with to reach the six-million mark.

just a few colored works. They Mario Lanza may pass the five represent fine craftsmanship million mark. He turned in two both in lithography and wood- million sellers, "Be My Love" block printing. Generally speak- and "Loveliest Night of the ing, the subject matter deals Year," the first time one artist vith Mexican contemporary life has had two such sellers on a and gives much of the story of classical label in one year.

the day-by-day activities of the Nat Cole remained close to the story of Jesus has made a twice a week—Tuesday after- The committee was assisted by Mexican Indian - his siesta, the top, selling close to three deep impression on thousands of noons and Friday evenings—the tollowing volunteers: Mrs. primitive farming, a little of the million discs in 1951, his biggest readers, and has been highly service carrying on through the J. Munthe, Mrs. C. G. Ham, Mrs. more modern work in the city one being "Too Young." Rose- praised by ministers of all summer holidays without inter- A. M. Hurst, Mrs. B. Lester, Mrs. and a number of portraits. Only mary Clooney's "Some On-a My Christian faiths... The author ruption. two or three are devoted to scen- House" also put her in the top was a "contented agnostic' for CONTINUING TASK ery as the Mexican artist seems ten. to be primarily interested in de-

Billy Eckstine and Joe Louis found, the intensely religious "None of the internationally are reported merging their in- feelings of his youth reawakened by by the women who engage in A. D. Ritchie, Mrs. T. N. Youngs. known names are in the show... terests in the marketing of sports and he began a devout contemthat is, Rivera, Orosco, Charlot equipment. . . . Tony Martin is plation of the life of Jesus. Out -but most of the artists are to making a new RKO musical, of this study grew his awardbe found in anthologies and is slated to go coast-to-coast via Greatest Story Ever Told," and NBC radio net after his return this best-selling book. from England. . . Burl Ives school there is usually consideropens in England next May. He'll tour through the summer travelling as far as Australia.... critics as the liveliest and most music. be labelled propagandist. The Robert Clary, diminutive singing readable of Mr. Mann's novels comedian, is now playing at the this new book by the dean of La Vie En Rose nite club in New living novelists recounts a fam-York. . . . Jo Stafford has just ous medieval legend of romance, than we do and he achieves some have been invited and are flying who becomes a great Pope deto Bermuda Easter week-end to spite his grave transgressions. In highlight a special program. The number of recordings isguise. They pledge who now is living permanently made on two of the top songs on has ever told—for more direct clated by patients and hospital dance to a beau- in Mexico, are others. The re- the Honor Roll of Hits stands as follows: "Cry" leads with 20 Mexican stosk. The collection different versions, followed closeof ly by "Slow Poke," which has longer in the top ten, has also had 17 versions put on wax.

TOPS IN VOCALS - Dean Martin's "When You're Smiling" and The Four Knights with "The Doll With the Sawdust Heart" (both Capitol); Perry Como and the Fontaine Sisters, "Noodlin' Rag," and Phil Harris and the TORONTO-A 26-year-old Bell Sisters, "Hambone" (both composer who had at least one Victor); Burt Taylor's "Solitude" work played by the Toronto and Doris Day's "A Guy Is a Symphony Orchestra, drove a Guy" (both Columbia); the Four taxi last year because in Canada Aces, "My Hero," "Spring Is a composer of serious music Wonderful Things " (Decca); "can" possibly live on what he Patti Page's "Love, Where Are You Now?" and "Whispering Blonde Harry Somers is one Winds" (Mercury); Tommy Edof seven Canadians whose com- wards' "Forgive Me" and "The positions will be performed here Bridge" (MGM).

1000-Book Hospital

Achievement of Women's Auxiliary During Past Year

An outstanding achievement 5-"Little White Cloud That of the Women's Auxiliary of the 6-"Slow Poke," Pee Wee King. during the past year was 7-Blue Tango," Leroy Anderbringing of interesting reading Under the leadership of Mrs. covered novels and, with good goal was reached.

Now the library at the hospital THE WORKERS has on hand approximately 900 novels, 900 pocket books and a chairman, the 1952 committee variety of magazines and digests. consisted of Mrs. W. S. Kergin, By Fulton Oursler - This rev- The books and magazines are Mrs. M. B. Lemon and Mrs. H. A. erent and faithful retelling of distributed to the patients Breen.

many years. However, while on a tour of Palestine in 1935, he ing the giving of time unselfish- Johnson, Mrs. R. Davidson, Mrs. the work. At least one evening a week is spent sorting and dis- was so appreciated that it was carding magazines, cataloguing, re-appointed en bloc at the W.A. "Song Forever." . . . Billy Daniels winning radio program, "The carding and checking books and annual meeting this week. setting up library cards. The hard covered novels have all been catalogued, carded and arranged alphabetically on the By Thomas Mann — Hailed by Nor has the benefit of the work been confined to the Prince Rupert General Hospital itself. Books and magazines, when found out of date but still readable, are packed into boxes and been married to orchestra leader sin and expiation. It is the tale sent to Miller Bay Hospital and Paul Weston. . . Bell Sisters of a noble young knight-at-arms the Pioneers' Home. Some even find their way to personnel stationed in the lonely lighthouses his report, Henry Seidel Canby along the coast. called this book "one of the most

The work, popular and appreentrancing stories Thomas Mann and lively than his previous staff, has now reached a point, works, carried forward with con- the committee reports, where a tinuous suspense and flavored room is required for the library with a delicious dry wit and a and, when the new wing of the hospital is fully opened, it

THIS WEEK'S ARTIST

This week the spotlight falls on CHAMP BUTLER. Still single at 24 years of age, red-haired, freckle-faced Champ is the possessor of a voice that can wrap itself around an amorous ballad

In his high school days Champ, Prince Rupert General Hospital which incidentally is his real first name, would sing for fun at parties and dances, but fired to the patients of the hospital. by a strong determination to make "big money," he suddenly R. G. Moore, an active committee quit school just six months before set itself a goal of 1000 hard- graduation. Before being called response from the public, that hoped that the hospital board will make such provision.

With Mrs. R. G. Moore as

G. E. Moore, Mrs. E. Boulter, Mrs. H. A. Breen, Mrs. L. Charbonneau, Mrs. D. Galbraith, Mrs. J It is a continuing task, requir- P. Cade, Mrs. R. Jones, Mrs. R.

The work of the committee

LEADERS IN

RECORD PARADE

Blacksmith Blues; Love Me or Leave Me(Ella Mae Morse) Tell Me Why; Garden in the (Four Aces) Perfidia; You Brought Me (Four Aces)

Tenderly.; Did Anyone Call? (Rosemary Clooney) Silver & Gold: Unforgettable (Billy May)

I Wanna Say Hello; Chapel in the Moonlight (Four Knights) Three Bells; That Lucky Old (Les Campagnons de la Chanson)

Give Me More, More, More; How Long Will It Take? (Lefty Frizzell)

RUPERT RADIO & ELECTRIC

Prince Rupert Daily News Saturday, March 22, 1952

into the armed services Champ, and in a short time received his concentrated on making money diploma. Now he returned to the and having a good time. He was parking lots in order to earn working at some of the biggest enough money to pursue his night spots in Hollywood, how- career in full force.

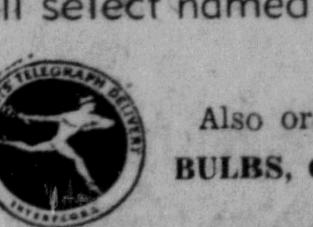

ever, not as a singer but as a While working on the parking lot of the Mocambo night club. In March, 1945, Champ was Champ was asked to do an audicalled into the army and for the tion by Barbara Belle, who was next two years lived the life of then also Fran Warren's pera paratrooper and later that of sonal manager. Champ signed a an MP. While in the service he contract and with Miss Belle berealized that he had been foolish hind him he was finally on his to quit school when he did, and way. Within a matter of weeks or a bouncy jump-tune with immediately after his honorable he signed a long term contract discharge, went back to school

(Continued on page 6)

Get your

Eddie's Roses NOW while they last.

All select named varieties

parking lot attendant.

Also order your BULBS, GLADIOLI

PRINCE RUPERT Phone 777

300-3rd Ave. Box 516

Ever Popular Recordings McRAE BROS. LTD.

CLASSICAL L.P.

A Treasury of Easter Songs Robert Shaw Chorale The Carnival of Animals Saint Saens: Snoken by Noel Coward Played by Andre Kostelanetz

SEMI-CLASSICAL L.P.

Quo Vadis: Music from the MGM Musical Volume II

Leroy Anderson conducts his own compositions

POPULAR L.P.

Eddie Gordon Jazz Band Ball Doris Day I'll See You in My Dreams

45 RPM ALBUMS

Carmen Cavallaro's piano Strauss Waltzes Louis Armstrong Jazz Concert, Vol. II

78 RPM POPULAR Gandy Dancer's Ball Frankie Laine When You're in Love Blacksmith Blues

Ella Mae Morse Love Me or Leave Me WESTERN

Boogie Woogie Square Dance Jim Boyd Texas Moon Waltz I Want My Rib Hank Penny White Shotguns

COLUSSI'S MUSIC STORE

Agents for the finest in

Musical Instruments PIANOS TUNED

and . RECONDITIONED Phone Black 389

210-4th Street

See The Easter Parade

Salt and Peppers

POLE GIFT SHOP 211 Sixth Street

FILM SHOWING

at CIVIC CENTRE

entitled

"That Babies May Live"

(Put on by Carnation Co.)

Will be shown in the Ladies' Lounge

Civic Centre, Wednesday 2:30 p.m.

Civic Centre Association of Prince Rupert

Prince Rupert Rotary Club

Presents a

Musical Concert

SUNDAY, MARCH 23, 9 P.M.

CAPITOL THEATRE

featuring

The Rotary Mixed Choir and Assisting Artists

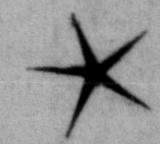

Tickets on sale at the CAPITOL and from all Club Members

General 50c

Lodges $1.00

Sime...

Is the most precious commodity known to man.

Knowing this, the Daily News is devoting this page today to a glimpse of the MUSIC, ART and LITERA-TURE of the past and present in the hope that some of its readers will have some of that precious commodity, TIME, to delve further into these subjects.

Today's Top Ten

At present the young composer work will take between two an

Available Now

Also a large selection of Western, Popular and Classical Recordings on Long Play and

Phone 100