Soroptimists Offer Bursary

Pen Pal Sought By English Girl

In vision for its first business election of the year Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Han, the Soroptimist Club of Prince Rupert decided to again offer a bursary of $100 to a high school girl to help her further education in the field of her choice. A bursary committee, consisting of Miss Joy Bryant, Mrs. Norma Irving and President Jay Kullander, will draw up rules and conditions of the award.

A satisfactory report on the work held before Christmas showed a substantial sum was raised towards the equipping of an additional hospital bed which one of the club's current projects.

Mrs. Lillian Alexander reported the Club's Christmas work.

Plans for a "Theatre Night," to be held early in February, were discussed.

Miss Doris Hall, R.N., chairman of the T.B. Seal Committee, stated that returns continue ready and the total sum received to date is just over $2500.

Gyro Tops After Church Visit City

To participate in the installation of President Mac Gormley and other 1952 officers of Prince Rupert Gyro Club, two prominent international leaders of Gyro, both from Nanaimo, are in Prince Rupert. Jack Ryan, international vice-president, and Gerald Berry, former district governor, arrived on the Prince George this morning from the Canadian Leadership Training School at Naramata.

The convictions that led up to its formation, the various stages in its development and the tremendous measure of success that has been already achieved, combined to make the story fascinating and compelling.

Pictures were shown giving different views of present stage of construction as contrasted with the very inadequate physical equipment at the start. Rev. L. G. Sieber told of the early struggles to get the scheme approved by the United Church and then the amazing success of the venture and the equally amazing
