NAVY NEWS

Christmas and the New Year's festivities are all over in Chatham and life has settled down to normal at the base.

This is a great honor at any time, and the consensus at Chatham is that the award is well deserved.

The holiday season saw a great deal of non-service activity on the base. On Sunday, Dec. 21, the Ship's Company held a Christmas Tree for the Children, and comments were uniformly congratulatory.

New Year's Eve saw two Navy sponsored parties, one in the Canteen, sponsored by the seamen and the other in the wardroom sponsored by the officers.

And so, into the New Year of Training and more Training. Wednesday night saw five new recruits attested, with more of the old, but not so familiar faces showing up all the time.

Preview of Outstanding Film Seen by Teachers, Clergy

An extraordinary picture, and the antagonism of the government, the children nevertheless return each month to the view at the Capitol theatre yesterday by teachers and members of the clergy.

Completely authenticated, the picture tells the remarkable story of the origin of the great Catholic basilica at Fatima in the province of Ourem, Portugal.

Meeting with scorn, disbelief its narration.
