Prince Rupert Wins Shoot

Prince Rupert Rod and Gun club won the Northern B.C. Trap Shoot Sunday at Terrace when they captured both the team event for the Corner Snack Bar Trophy and the individual high score.

Tommy Boulter of Prince Rupert was individual high score winner with a total of 22 points to win the Terrace Motors Ltd.
 Trophy. Runners-up were D. Ellison and C. Blackburn of Terrace both with 21.

Rupert's winning team was made up of T. Parlette (captain) 17, R. Mongom Montgomery, 18, T. Boulter 22, G. Armstrong 16, A. J. Dominato 19, for a total of 92.

The crowd was held in suspense during the sudden death elimination shoot when after six rounds R. Montgomery, J. Strong, and T. Boulter remained with no missed birds. On the seventh all three marksmen missed and on the eighth round Montgomery dropped out and it took three more rounds before Strong missed his bird.

Local marksmen praised the Terrace hospitality and a return match will be held in the future.
 Prizes were as follows: F. Parlette won an overnight bag; R.
 Montgomery, hunting knife; G.
 Armstrong, back up light; A. J.
 Dominato, gun cleaning kit; T.
 Boulter, shells and game carrier; Bobby Mathews, (11 years old) won a flashlight; Mrs. Crossley won a box of chocolates.

Bombers Tied For WIFU Lead

EDMONTON—What looked like a solid lead for Winnipeg Blue Bombers in the Western Interprovincial Football Union was slashed to a first-place tie in the three games played during the Labor Day week-end.

Edmonton Eskimos started the big chop at Winnipeg's two-game lead Saturday night in Calgary as they licked the hapless Stamp-eders 18-6. Saskatchewan Roughriders held Bombers in check at Regina Monday afternoon with a 23-19 victory, the first loss for Winnipeg and the first win for Saskatchewan, and Edmonton slid into the tie easily Monday night on home ground with a 19-5 triumph, again over Calgary.

Edmonton and Winnipeg now have six points gained from three wins and a loss each. Calgary and Saskatchewan are tied at two points from three losses and one win.

Billy Vessels, the former Oklahoma Sooner, took the fight out of Stamps Saturday night. He ran back the opening kickoff—95 yards—for a major score.
 Saskatchewan had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to ease by Winnipeg.

Riders got touchdowns from Nellie Greene, Stan Williams, Mac Sneedie and Herb Johnson.
 Reg Whitehouse added three points on converts. Two of Winnipeg's majors were scored by Lorne Benson while end Neil Armstrong counted the other.

AS I SEE IT

hate to be fenced out of some place where there never was a fence before.

LAST NIGHT a single shot rang out and a cheery bear came to a sudden end. In these protected premises it almost took an order from Ottawa to stop that fat boy's midnight snack raids. For the law says you can't shoot bears, or anything else in this national park.

The bears, deer, moose and elk know the law better than the strange species known as homo sapiens. For there are signs all over the park warning people of a $500 fine if they feed the bears—but the tour-lists pay about as much attention to that law as to the one about declaring everything bought in the U.S.A.

One lady (who is a very close and friendly reader of this column) received three nasty gashes on her wrist last week when she took a bear's picture.
 He was polite enough till the picture was done, but got annoyed when the camera was lowered. No doubt the spoiled boy had mistaken it for a lunch basket.

Yesterday another (male) tourist received gashes across his chin. Maybe the internation experts can learn a lesson from this truth.

If the Russian bear ever gets really nasty it may be when somebody tries to snatch back what he has eyed as his lunch.

Four-fifths of the population of Romania, now under Soviet domination, are engaged in agriculture.
