ELMORE PHILPOTT

to her real home. I notice that the young people who are born and brought up on these prairies have a fierce attachment to the land that laughs to scorn all such talk as whether the thermometer reaches 40 or just 30 below in wintertime. The prairie sunshine seems to heat their hearts so white hot they never cool off in their loyalty.

Of course it also makes a difference who is waiting at the other end of the line. In the case of the pert young miss it was a handsome Mountie—all complete with wedding party.

There is room in Canada for a better and more intensive and intelligent use of farm woodlots.
