South Koreans Will Push North If Peace Talks Fail Says Rhee

Warning Reiterated As U.S. Aid Arrives

PUSAN, Korea (Reuters)—President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said today his forces are "going to push up north" if the Korean political conference fails.

Rhee reiterated his warning as United States Senate Republican leader William Knowland stood at his side in a ceremony marking the arrival of the first shipload of American supplies for Korean rehabilitation.

The 77-year-old president, in a fighting mood again after weeks of comparative silence, offered to send his troops "whenever you need Koreans to come to your aid in Indo-China and India." This, he said, is the meaning of collective security through the world.

"We are going to push up north in case the political conference fails, gaining nothing for us," he declared.

Before the armistice was signed July 27, Rhee threatened to resist by force the landing of Indian troops on South Korean soil to guard unrepatriated war prisoners.

The first contingent of Indian troops is expected to land at Incheon, west of Seoul, Tuesday, on their way to the neutral zone at Panmunjom.

Knowland arrived here Friday night from Tokyo for a week's stay in Korea. He was entertained at Rhee's residence Friday night by the president, his Australian-born wife and leading members of the South Korean government.

Agreeable Prisoners To Be Freed

PANMUNJOM (CP)—The Communists today announced that all United Nations prisoners of war who wished to return home would be freed. This, they said, included all those sentenced to jail for offences allegedly committed during Red captivity.

However, there are "more than 300 Koreans and more than 20 non-Koreans" who refuse to be repatriated, the Reds told the joint prisoner of war repatriation commission.

"Owing to the fact that the operation of repatriation is still going on, our side shall continue to persuade them to be repatriated," the Communists continued.

"Therefore, there still will be changes in this number."

At the port of Incheon, a returned U.S. soldier, Pte. John McNeill of Brooklyn, said he had been told that 22 Americans and one British soldier were among those either refusing or reluctant to be released.

McNeill said he understood that the 23 are expected soon at Kaesong, Red assembly point near Panmunjom, to be turned over to the neutral nations repatriation commission.

The Reds promise to repatriate all prisoners asking to be returned with in reply to a question from UN.

Numerous prisoners had been sentenced at the time of the truce signing to prison for "investigating against the peace."

But in reply to UN questions, the Reds told the commission: "Our side will . . . repatriate all the POWs who insist on repatriation. The repatriation of prisoners of war who insist on repatriation is now approaching the end. All the POWs under our custody who insist on repatriation will be returned to your side by the time the repatriation operation concludes."

Former Resident Dies in Victoria

Word was received here today of the sudden death in Victoria of Arthur Brooksbank, former resident of Prince Rupert. Mr. Brooksbank was in the city only two weeks ago on a business trip.

A Mason, Mr. Brooksbank was in his early 70s and started out his business career here at the Percy Morris Drygoods Co. He later worked at the city hall until going into business with Dybbavn and Hanson Ltd. He retired a few years ago and moved down to the capital to live.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Fred and William and a daughter Lucille (Mrs. Harry Lipsett).

BENNETT DENIES REPORT ON HOSPITAL INSURANCE

VICTORIA (CP)—Premier Bennett Friday denied a Prince Rupert report that the provincial government will enforce compulsory hospital insurance.

The report quoted Prince Rupert Hospital Board chairman R. G. Moore as saying the premier had told the board he proposed to have payment of premiums put on a more compulsory basis.

The premier explained he was referring only to the government's already announced policy to expand compulsory payroll deductions.

Italian Army and Defence Chiefs Alerted As Yugoslavia Ponders Policy on Trieste Issue

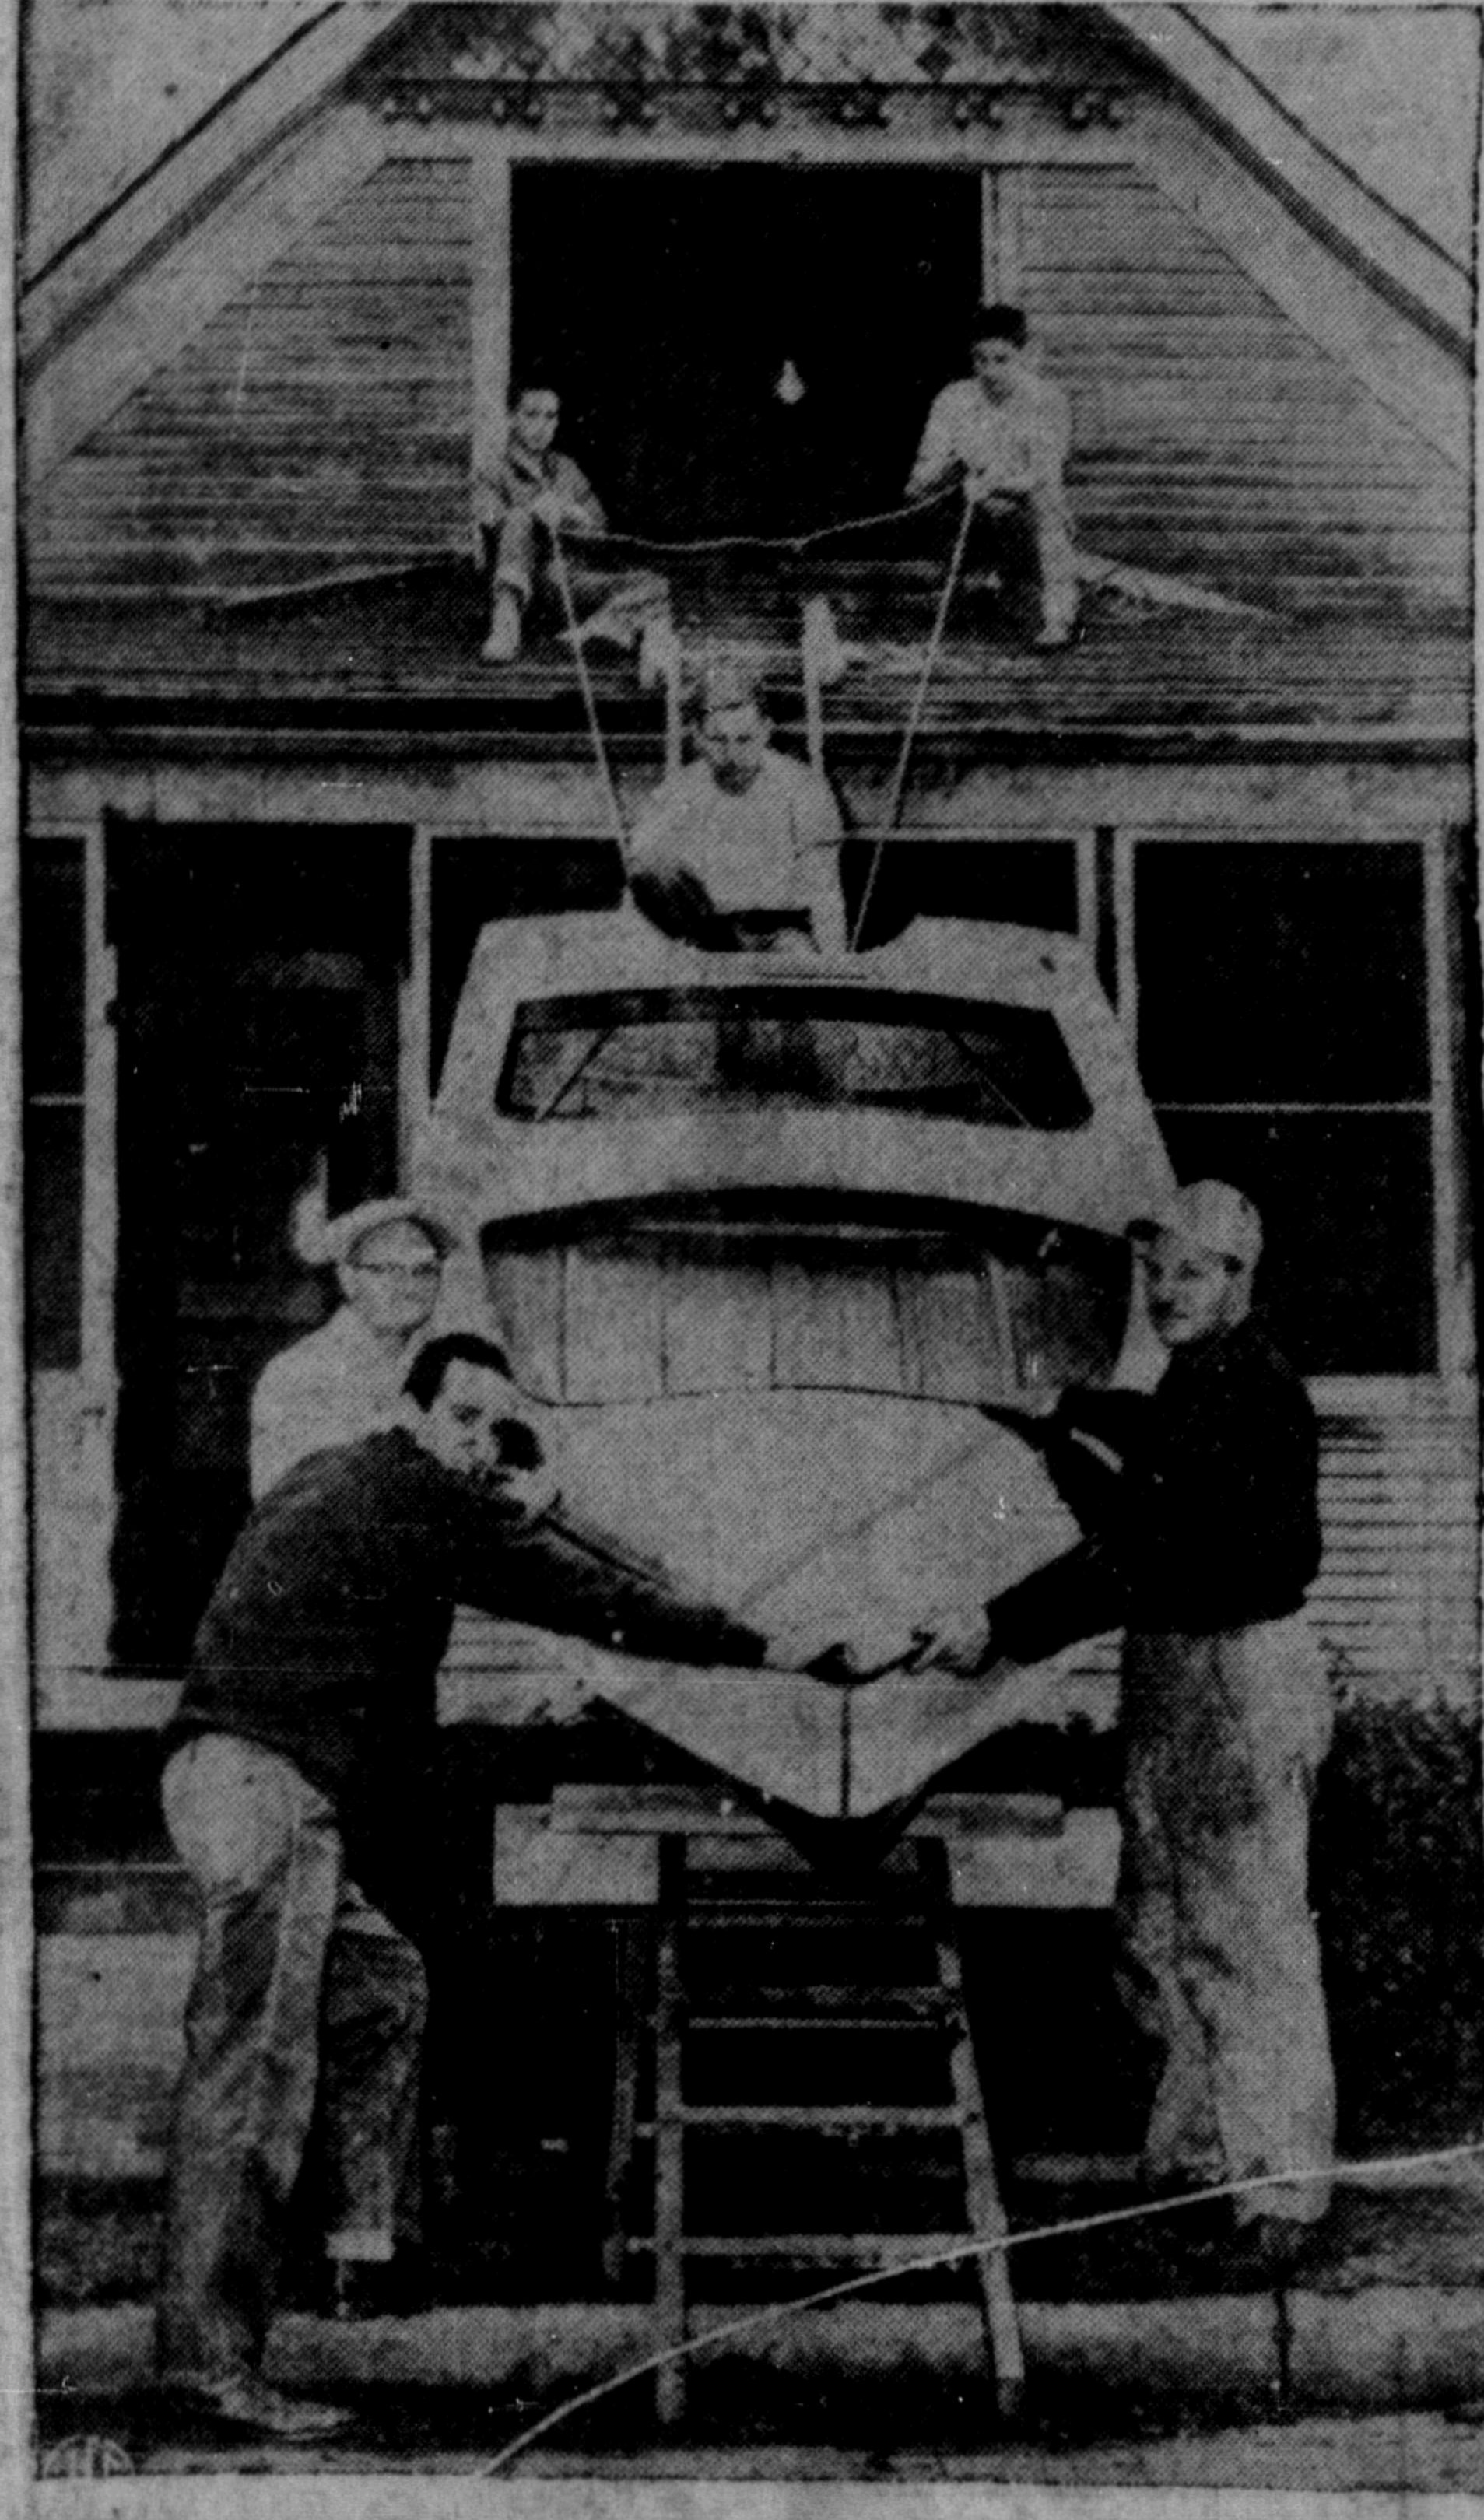

ROME (AP)—Premier Giuseppe Pella called his defence minister and army chief of staff into urgent conference today as a result of open Italian alarm that Yugoslavia's President Tito may try to settle the hot Trieste issue by force.

The move came as the government officially warned Yugoslavia and the Atlantic Pact countries against any Yugoslav move to annex permanently the Trieste zone she now occupies.

Pella conferred for almost two hours with Defence Minister Emilio Paviani and Gen. Erisio Marras and immediately afterwards called the U.S., British and French ambassadors into conference, one after another. He also sent a warning note to Belgrade.

San Francisco or Honolulu Possible Korea Parley Site

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—South Korea was reported today advocating San Francisco or Honolulu as the site of the Korea peace conference. An alternate choice would be a city in Latin America, perhaps Rio de Janeiro.

This development came as UN delegates waited for Communist reaction to the general assembly decision Friday that its side would be made up of UN countries which sent troops to Korea, plus South Korea. The Soviet Union is to be invited if the Communist side desires it.

The UN hopes that Red China, North Korea and the Soviet Union will be the Communist representatives. Some sources here pointed out, however, that the Reds have the right to invite other countries beside the Soviet Union. These sources speculated they might undertake to enlarge their side to meet the UN representatives nation for nation.

As the special Korean session of the assembly adjourned Friday, UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold sent its decisions regarding the peace parley to Red China and North Korea.

No date has been set yet for the conference, but under terms of the Korean armistice it should convene before Oct. 28. The United States, which bore chief responsibility for the unified command in the Korean fighting, was asked to consult the interested nations as to the time and place for the meeting.

An Englishwoman, believed to be a former anonymous donor who has contributed greatly to the Anglican church in Western Canada, has left £5,000 ($14,000) to the Synod of the diocese of Caledonia, of the Church of England in Canada. News was received this morning in a Canadian Press dispatch.

The bequest was learned when the will of Mrs. Marion Beatrice Smith of London and Bourne-mouth was filed for probate.

Mrs. Smith stipulated in her will that the money be used to maintain the ship "Northern Cross," which she gave to the diocese in 1934, and to provide a replacement if needed.

The Bishop of Caledonia, the Rt. Rev. H. G. Watts, of Prince Rupert, was not available for comment this morning. The bishop is on his way to the executive meeting of the general Synod of the Anglican church in Fort William, Ont.

However, Canon Basil S. Procter, of St. Andrew's cathedral, said that he thought Mrs. Smith was the anonymous donor who has given so much to the churches in western Canada during her life time. He had heard that the anonymous donor had died, he said, but he didn't know that it was Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Smith died last April, leaving £130,549. She also made a £5,000 bequest to the diocese of the Arctic for maintaining a mission at Cambridge Bay.

Canon Procter said that the "Northern Cross" mission ship which plied the B.C. coastal waters since 1934 until about a year ago, has recently been put back into operation. The ship, formerly skippered by Rev. Charles L. Lomas, who is now at Port Alice, has been tied up at the Prince Rupert Yacht club floats for nearly a year. New engine blocks have been installed and Bishop Watts is earnestly seeking a permanent skipper for the mission ship, Canon Procter said.

Before leaving for the Synod meeting, Bishop Watts journeyed up into the Peace River district, as far north as Fort Nelson, where he performed a Confirmation.

New Tremors Cause Damage

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Three new tremors, accompanied by gales and heavy rains, caused heavy damage Friday night on the earthquake-devastated Ionian Island of Keffallinia.

The Greek ministry of information said the destruction wrought by the shocks and storm was "incalculable." At Argostoli on the main port, the strong winds were said to have "played havoc" with anchored vessels.

Cherry Captures Canadian Open

Little Hope Held For Hall Party

VANCOUVER (CP)—The search for a New Mexico private plane missing 11 days is continuing, but British Columbia's top bush pilot said Friday he considers it a "pretty slim chance" that any of the persons aboard will be found alive.

Russ Baker, general manager of Pacific Western Airlines, made the comment after returning from a personal two-day search of the mountain territory over which several of his company's planes are taking part in the 30-plane hunt.

RCAF search and rescue officials meanwhile, said they will continue the search at least another seven days for the De Havilland Dove, flown by oil man Ellis Hall, who had his wife, two daughters and a family friend along as passengers.
