CLASSICS

In the strictly classical department, Lili Kraus and Szymon Goldberg was born 41 years ago in Wloclawec, Poland, and began his musical career at the age of seven. He became a pupil and protege of Carl Flesch and his first solo performance took place when he was 14. He first appeared in America in 1938. His latest appearance took place in October 1949, when he gave a Carnegie Hall recital, as soloist and conductor of a string orchestra.

His pianist teammate, Lili Kraus, was born in Budapest in 1908 and began her musical training at the age of six. Since 16, she has been playing as soloist in recitals and orchestra concerts throughout all European countries. She made her first appearances in the United States during the 1949-50 musical season, playing both in recitals and with orchestras.
