TRAIL STUDENTS FORCE MAYOR TO EAT WORDS

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—Mayor E. G. Fletcher, who recently had a few well-chosen words about words, at a few of them Wednesday night.
 Mayor Fletcher said recently that students of 20 years ago were better spellers than those of today—a remark which led to an adults-versus-students challenge spelling bee in Trail junior high school this week.
 Of the 48 words chosen from Grade 7, 8 and 9 courses, the adults missed six. The students tripped on two.

HORSEMAN FRED SCARER carries this week-old foal aboard the freighter Richard D. Lyons to reunite it with mother. A shipment of 250 horses from Australia to Bangkok was taken on the ship after it had waited in port for 56 days. This youngster was born while its mother was waiting at Keystbrook for the task of fitting the vessel with special stalls to be completed.
