Crosby, Hope Should be Barred From Golf Tourney Says Writer

LONDON (AP) - A British sports writer says crooner Bing Crosby and comedian Bob Hope North coast region - Cloudy should be barred from taking part in the British amateur

The same applies, columnist Desmond Hackett of The Daily Express said, to various "elderly American business men" who somehow turn up on the entry list every year.

Hacket is one of Britain's most outspoken critics of the United States.

Hacket accused Crosby of turning the 1950 amateur into a cheap circus and said Hope "made an ass of himself and a bigger ass of British golf when he clowned around in the amateur at Porthcawl two years

Hackett said Crosby is only entitled to enter if he can comply with conditions of the championship in that he does not have a handicap exceeding three strokes.

"If Bing Crosby can play to three then I am entitled to top billing at the Palladium." The Palladium is London's top variety theatre.
