Simple, Tender Story Touches Hearts Anew

By The Right Reverend HORACE G. WATTIS
Bishop of Caledonia

The hearts of people everywhere this Christmas season are touched anew by the simple, tender story of the young Mary and Joseph who journeyed to Bethlehem, but who found there was no room for them in the inn.

That night the world was busy with many things—too busy to notice the unusual things that were happening and the Christ-child had to be born in a manger.

He came to tell the world that God lives—God loves and God saves.

The tragedy is that man has always been too busy with many things and his heart is not touched by the fact that there is still "no room" for the Christ-child. Never did the world need the Saviour more than it does today, but the sign is still up in so many hearts—"no room!"

Will you have room for Him this Christmas?

It is easy to miss the religious significance of Christmas and be content with its more human associations, forgetting what lies behind the story of the manger. Christmas bids us make grateful response to the revelation that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son."

It calls on us to worship and adore. As we do homage at the cradle of the Babe, let us think of Him as the world's Saviour, as one who can redeem men from their sins and discontents and bring peace instead of division.

All can find in Him their ideal, for He speaks to the common heart of humanity. The best birthday gift that we can bring to Him is the heart open to His influence and the will set on forwarding His cause.

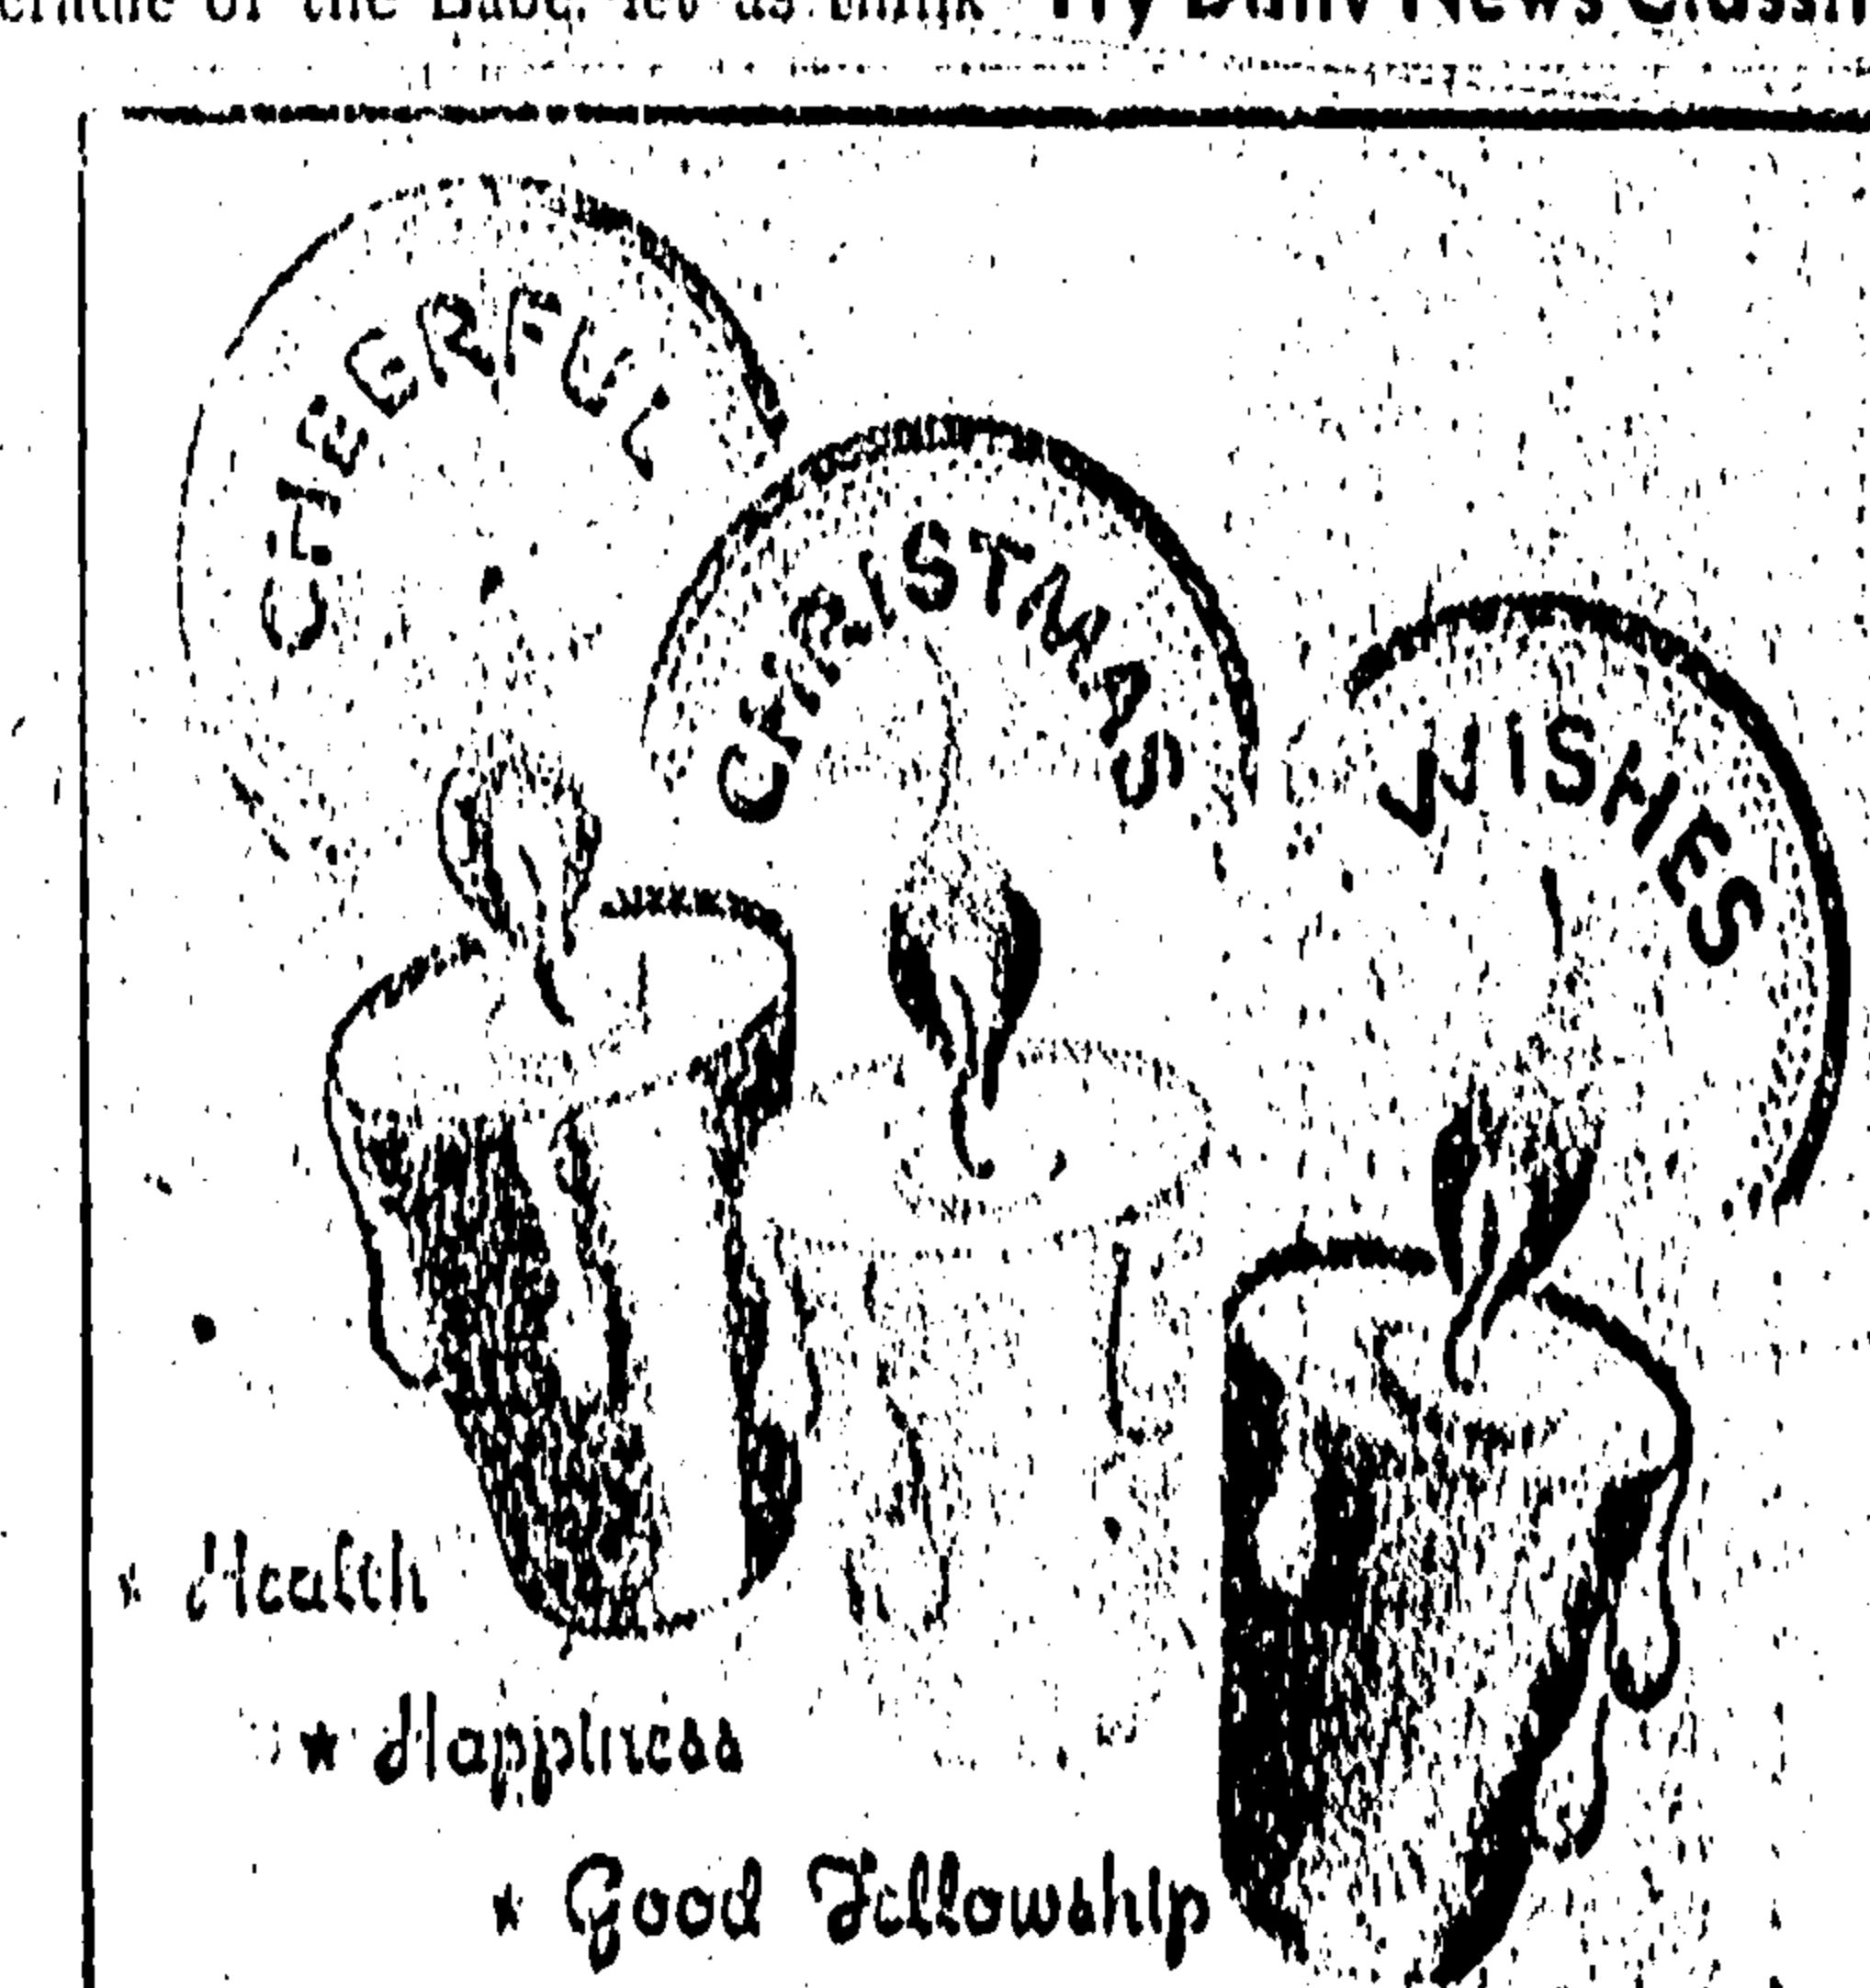

We invite you to be present to worship the Child of Bethlehem as Lord and Saviour at the Christmas services at which ever church you call your own.

May the Highest blessing of God be upon you and your home this Christmas season and throughout the coming year.

COST OF GUNDERSON TRIP APPROVED FOR PAYMENT

VICTORIA (C) — It cost British Columbia $6,000 to send a trade commissioner on an extensive tour of Europe this year. In an order-in-council the government has approved payment of that amount to former finance minister Elmer Gunderson who made the trip, described as very successful, by Mr. Gunderson and Premier Bennett.

The government now has appointed Mr. Gunderson to a new position which will increase his government-paid income to higher than the salary of a cabinet minister.
