

Three Couples Exchange Nuptial Vows at Cathedral

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the setting for three formal afternoon weddings, Friday, Saturday and yesterday, two of which were for sisters. Canon Basil S. Proctor officiated at all three ceremonies.

Friday principals were Miss Lydia Halzinsku, daughter of Mrs. Rhoda Grandison of Alysh and Albert William Barlow, the Alysh Harmonie Silver band was in attendance.

Family Feted Before Leaving For Old Country

Honored by friends over the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wildgoose and family, 501 Herman Street, who left last night by train on their way home to England. The Wildgoose family has been in Canada for five years, four of which were at Vanderhoof and the last year in Prince Rupert. While here Mr. Wildgoose worked at McLean's shipyards.

At one of several going-away parties the five Wildgoose children, Ian, Stephen and Keith and twins Ann and Alleen, were presented with "Canada" T-shirts and Mr. and Mrs. Wildgoose were given Prince Rupert souvenir cushion covers.

Mrs. Glassey Whist Winner

Mrs. Herbert Glassey was a double winner taking women's second and pool prizes Friday night when the Sons of Norway weekly whist drive and dance series got under way at the SON hall.

Mrs. Robert Murray was the women's first prize winner. In the men's division, B. W. Mostad took first prize, John Mostad second and Ted Rorvik pool.

Committee in charge were Mrs. Egli Sorres, Mrs. John Ritchie, Mrs. Oscar Giske, Nels Gunderson, John McNaughton, O. K. Olsen, Oscar Havroy and Mrs. P. L. Peterson.

Dancing and refreshments concluded the night's activities.

PERSONALS

Sam Marsh, 633 Tatlow Street, left this morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane for Vancouver where he will watch the world series baseball games on television. He plans to return in ten days.

William Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, 894 Third Avenue West, left by CPA plane today for Vancouver to watch the world series baseball games over television.

Mrs. Elin Telseth, 945 Ambrose Avenue, returned home yesterday via Canadian Pacific Airlines plane via Terrace after a month's vacation. While away she was guest of her son-in-law, James Thorstenson in Vancouver and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Abbottsford and Langley.

readers

Avoid theatre line-ups—buy your show tickets at the Grand Cafe. This week the Grand offers you Long Spine Ribs & Chips, Deep Fried Prawns, Chicken Giblet Chop Suey, Best Red Brand T-Bone Steaks and Fried Hell'le Chicken. Dial 3215. Open till 2 a.m. Saturday. (232)

Memorial service for Col. Cy Peck V.C., D.E.O., will be held on Sunday, Oct. 7 at 2 p.m. in St. Andrew's Cathedral. All Legion Members and Women's Auxiliary are requested to attend. Dial 11 at Legion at 1:30 p.m. Dress—Medals and Berets. (234)

What a day... October 5th opening of '57 Ford showing in the Civic Centre... what a dead humor in such a situation. (234)

NEAL EVANS TRANSPORTATION CO. LTD.

Phone 2085

Bus Service and Express Parcel Service
Prince Rupert — Terrace

Connecting with CP Airlines

The times of departure and arrivals are as follows:

LEAVE DAILY ARRIVE
P. Rupert 7:30 a.m.
Terrace 11:15 a.m.
P. Rupert 4:00 p.m.
Terrace 12:30 p.m.

MEZZO SOPRANO Inez Matthews and bass Marvin Hayes tonight launch the 1956-57 Prince Rupert Concert Series in a two-hour recital of popular and classical selections in the Civic Centre at 8:30 p.m. Miss Matthews, who was hailed at her debut recital in New York's Town Hall and won highest praise as soloist with the New York Philharmonic at Lewisohn Stadium, climaxed by her sensational success as Carmen in the Broadway hit "Carmen Jones." Mr Hayes' long musical career was highlighted in 1954 when he was awarded a fellowship of the International Institute of Education. In 1955 he won prizes at both the International Music competition in Munich and the International Vocal contest in Geneva. Accompanist will be Don Jones.

Plenty of Novelties, Fun Set at Catholic Bazaar

The two-day fall bazaar of the Annunciation parish will officially open tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the new Annunciation school hall on Fulton Street. The annual event is sponsored by the Catholic Women's League, this year under the chairmanship of president Mrs. Frank DeBlass.

Decorated stalls will feature home-cooking, sewing and candy. There will be a hot-dog stand, a fish pond and a surprise package booth. Tea will be served both afternoons and bingo played both evenings.

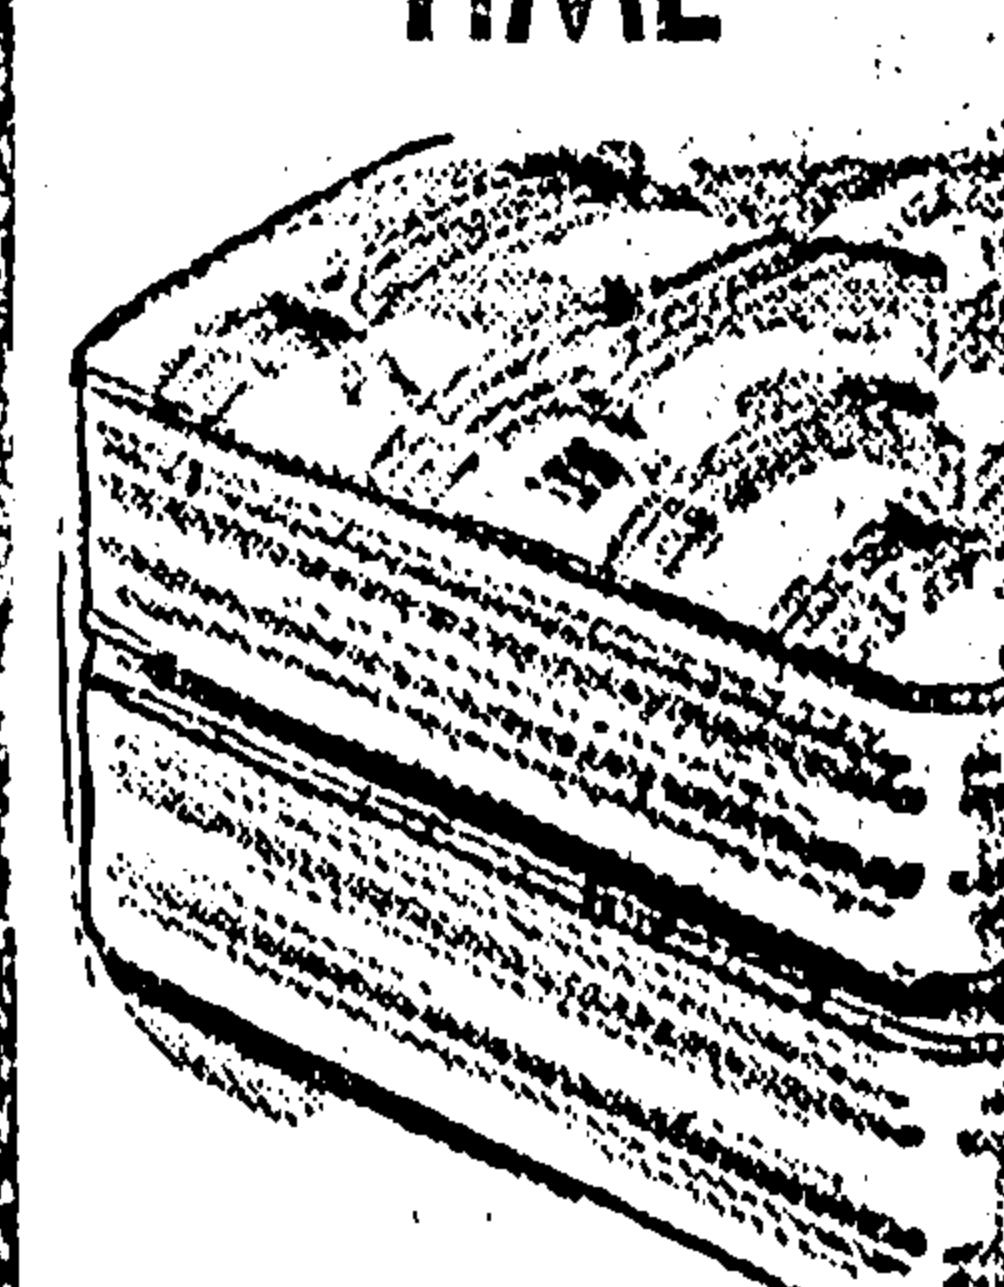

The Catholic Youth Organization is handling several novelty stands and games. Other conveners are Mrs. G. P. Lyons and Mrs. Alex Brebner, tea room; Mrs. Joseph Cloutier, home-cooking; Mrs. D. G. Kerr, hot-dog stand; Mrs. Denils Rows, fish pond and surprise package, while apron and fancy work booths are under the chairmanship of the parish sewing circles.

A home tea, to raise money for the scholarship fund, to be given a Mooseheart girl graduate, will be staged January 24.

Preliminary plans were made for the Academy of Friendship session to be held in Prince Rupert, May 5.

Fourteen members attended the meeting, chaired by Mrs. B. Skinner.

BETTER BEDDING TIME

Spring-filled MATTRESSES

Comfort is yours with a spring-filled mattress... cool and restful, with no sag, no tilt. Long wearing coverings make these mattresses complete.

$39.50 up

BOX SPRINGS

No bed is complete without a box spring. Wonderfully made to match your mattress.

$39.50 up

FELT MATTRESSES

Long wearing materials assembled under the bands of skilled mattressmakers. Comfort and durability at low cost.

$16.95 up

You Got Better Value Too — at

GORDON & ANDERSON
Dial 3014

WHITE OWL

10¢
Suggested price INVINCIBLE

Bursary Objective Reached Through Successful Nurses Ball

The Prince Rupert Registered Nurses association bursary objective of $150 was realized Saturday night when more than 200 people attended a successful annual Nurses Bursary Ball in the Armories.

Catering was handled by Mrs. W. N. Poole; decoration, Mrs. R. W. Long and Mrs. Arthur Williams; music, Mrs. J. S. Lindsay and hall arrangements, Mrs. Kenneth Wilmet.

Other members assisting were Mrs. Eric Janes, Mrs. K. H. Anderson and Mrs. Adam Wildgoose.

LEAVES FOR VANCOUVER

Anthony James, 52 Market Place, left this morning by CPA plane for Vancouver, where he will attend the British Columbia Government employees' association convention, October 5 and 6. Mr. James will return to the city Sunday.

In and Around Masset

By ART SENFT

MASSET — Big news around here is the arrival of the snow-load of road building equipment. The arrival was greeted by many local citizens, who spent hours examining the huge pieces of equipment and figuring on a fairly rapid completion of the road to Port Clements.

tion of a good crop. Come picking incidentally is a fine way for our locals to earn extra cash for those Christmas extras. Speaking of Christmas—did you realize just how close it really is?

Trim Infant Receives Names

The three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris McAllister Trim, of Bella Bella last night received the names Wanda Charlotte at a baptismal service in St. Andrew's Anglican cathedral. Canon Basil S. Proctor officiated. Godfather was Fletcher Alfred Hemmons and godmothers were Mrs. Mona Linton and Elaine Ferraby.

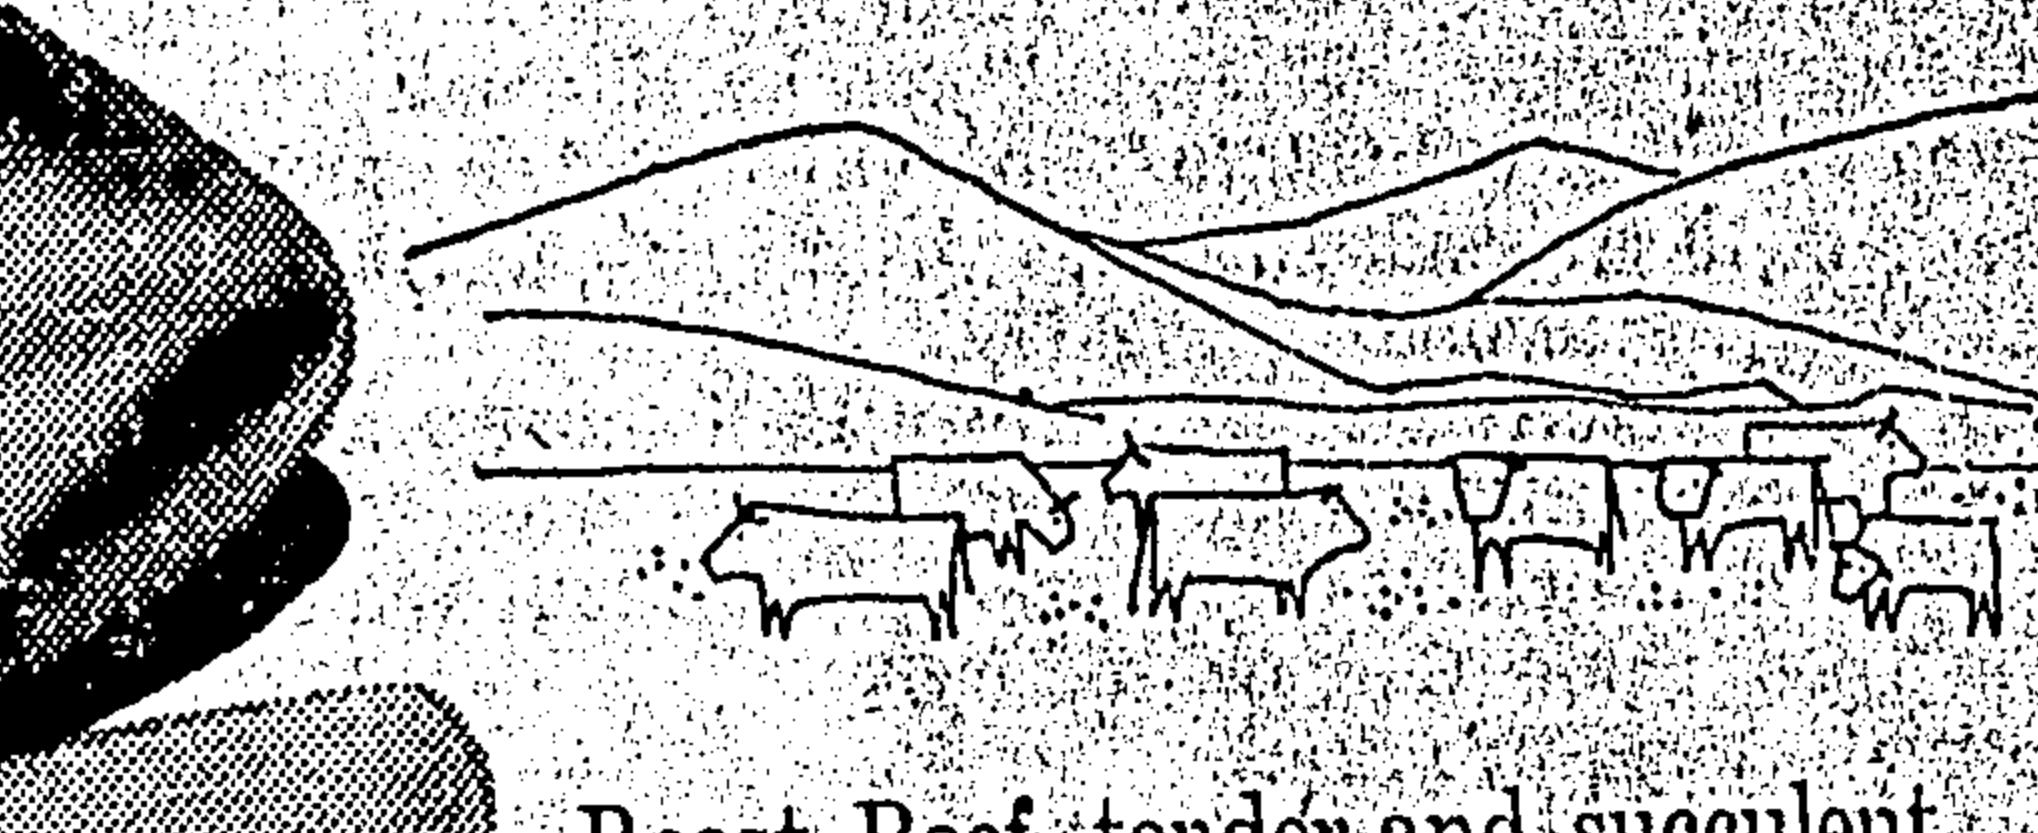

FINEST WAXES for FINEST SHINES

CORBY'S Special Selected CANADIAN WHISKY

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

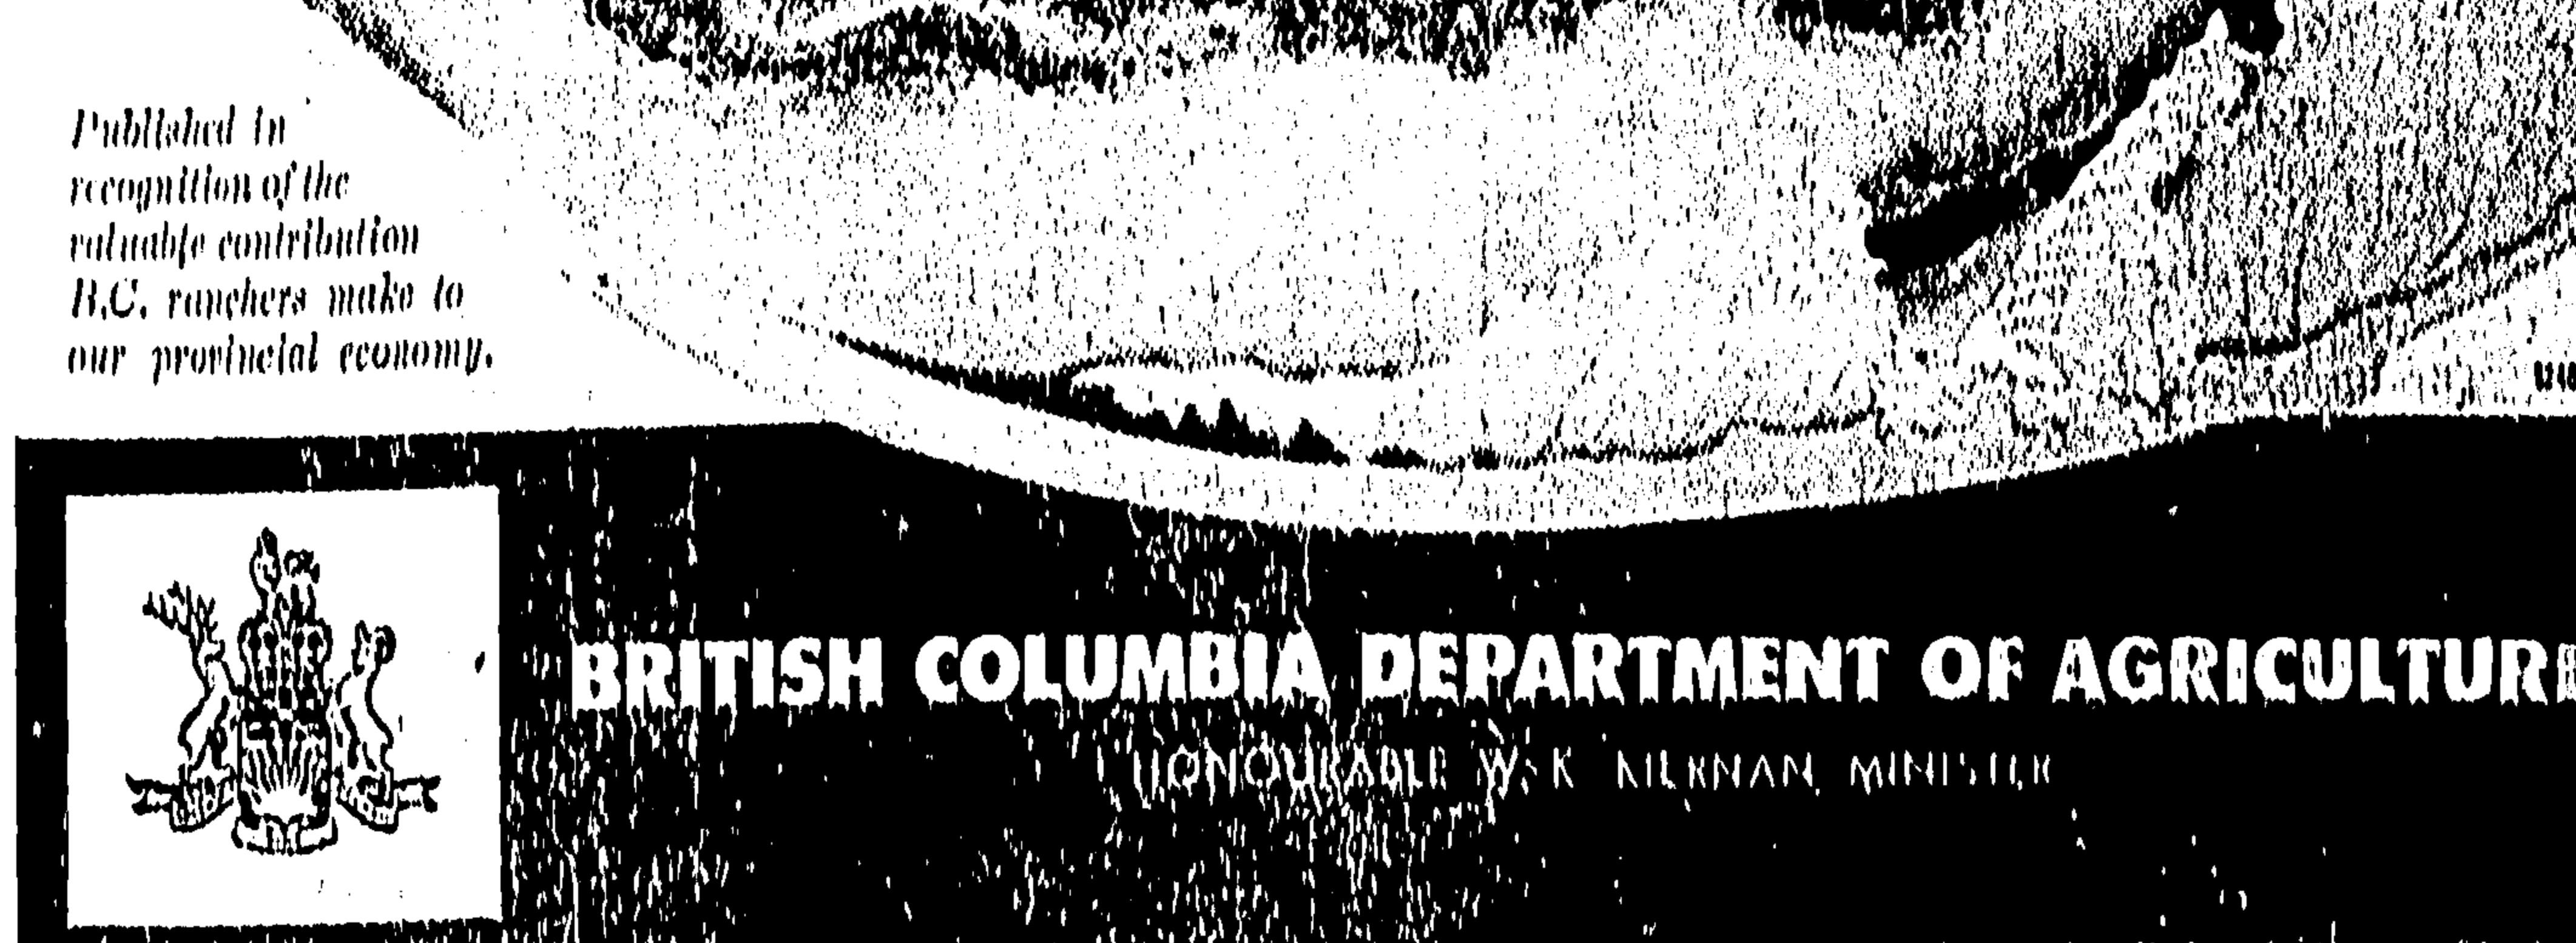

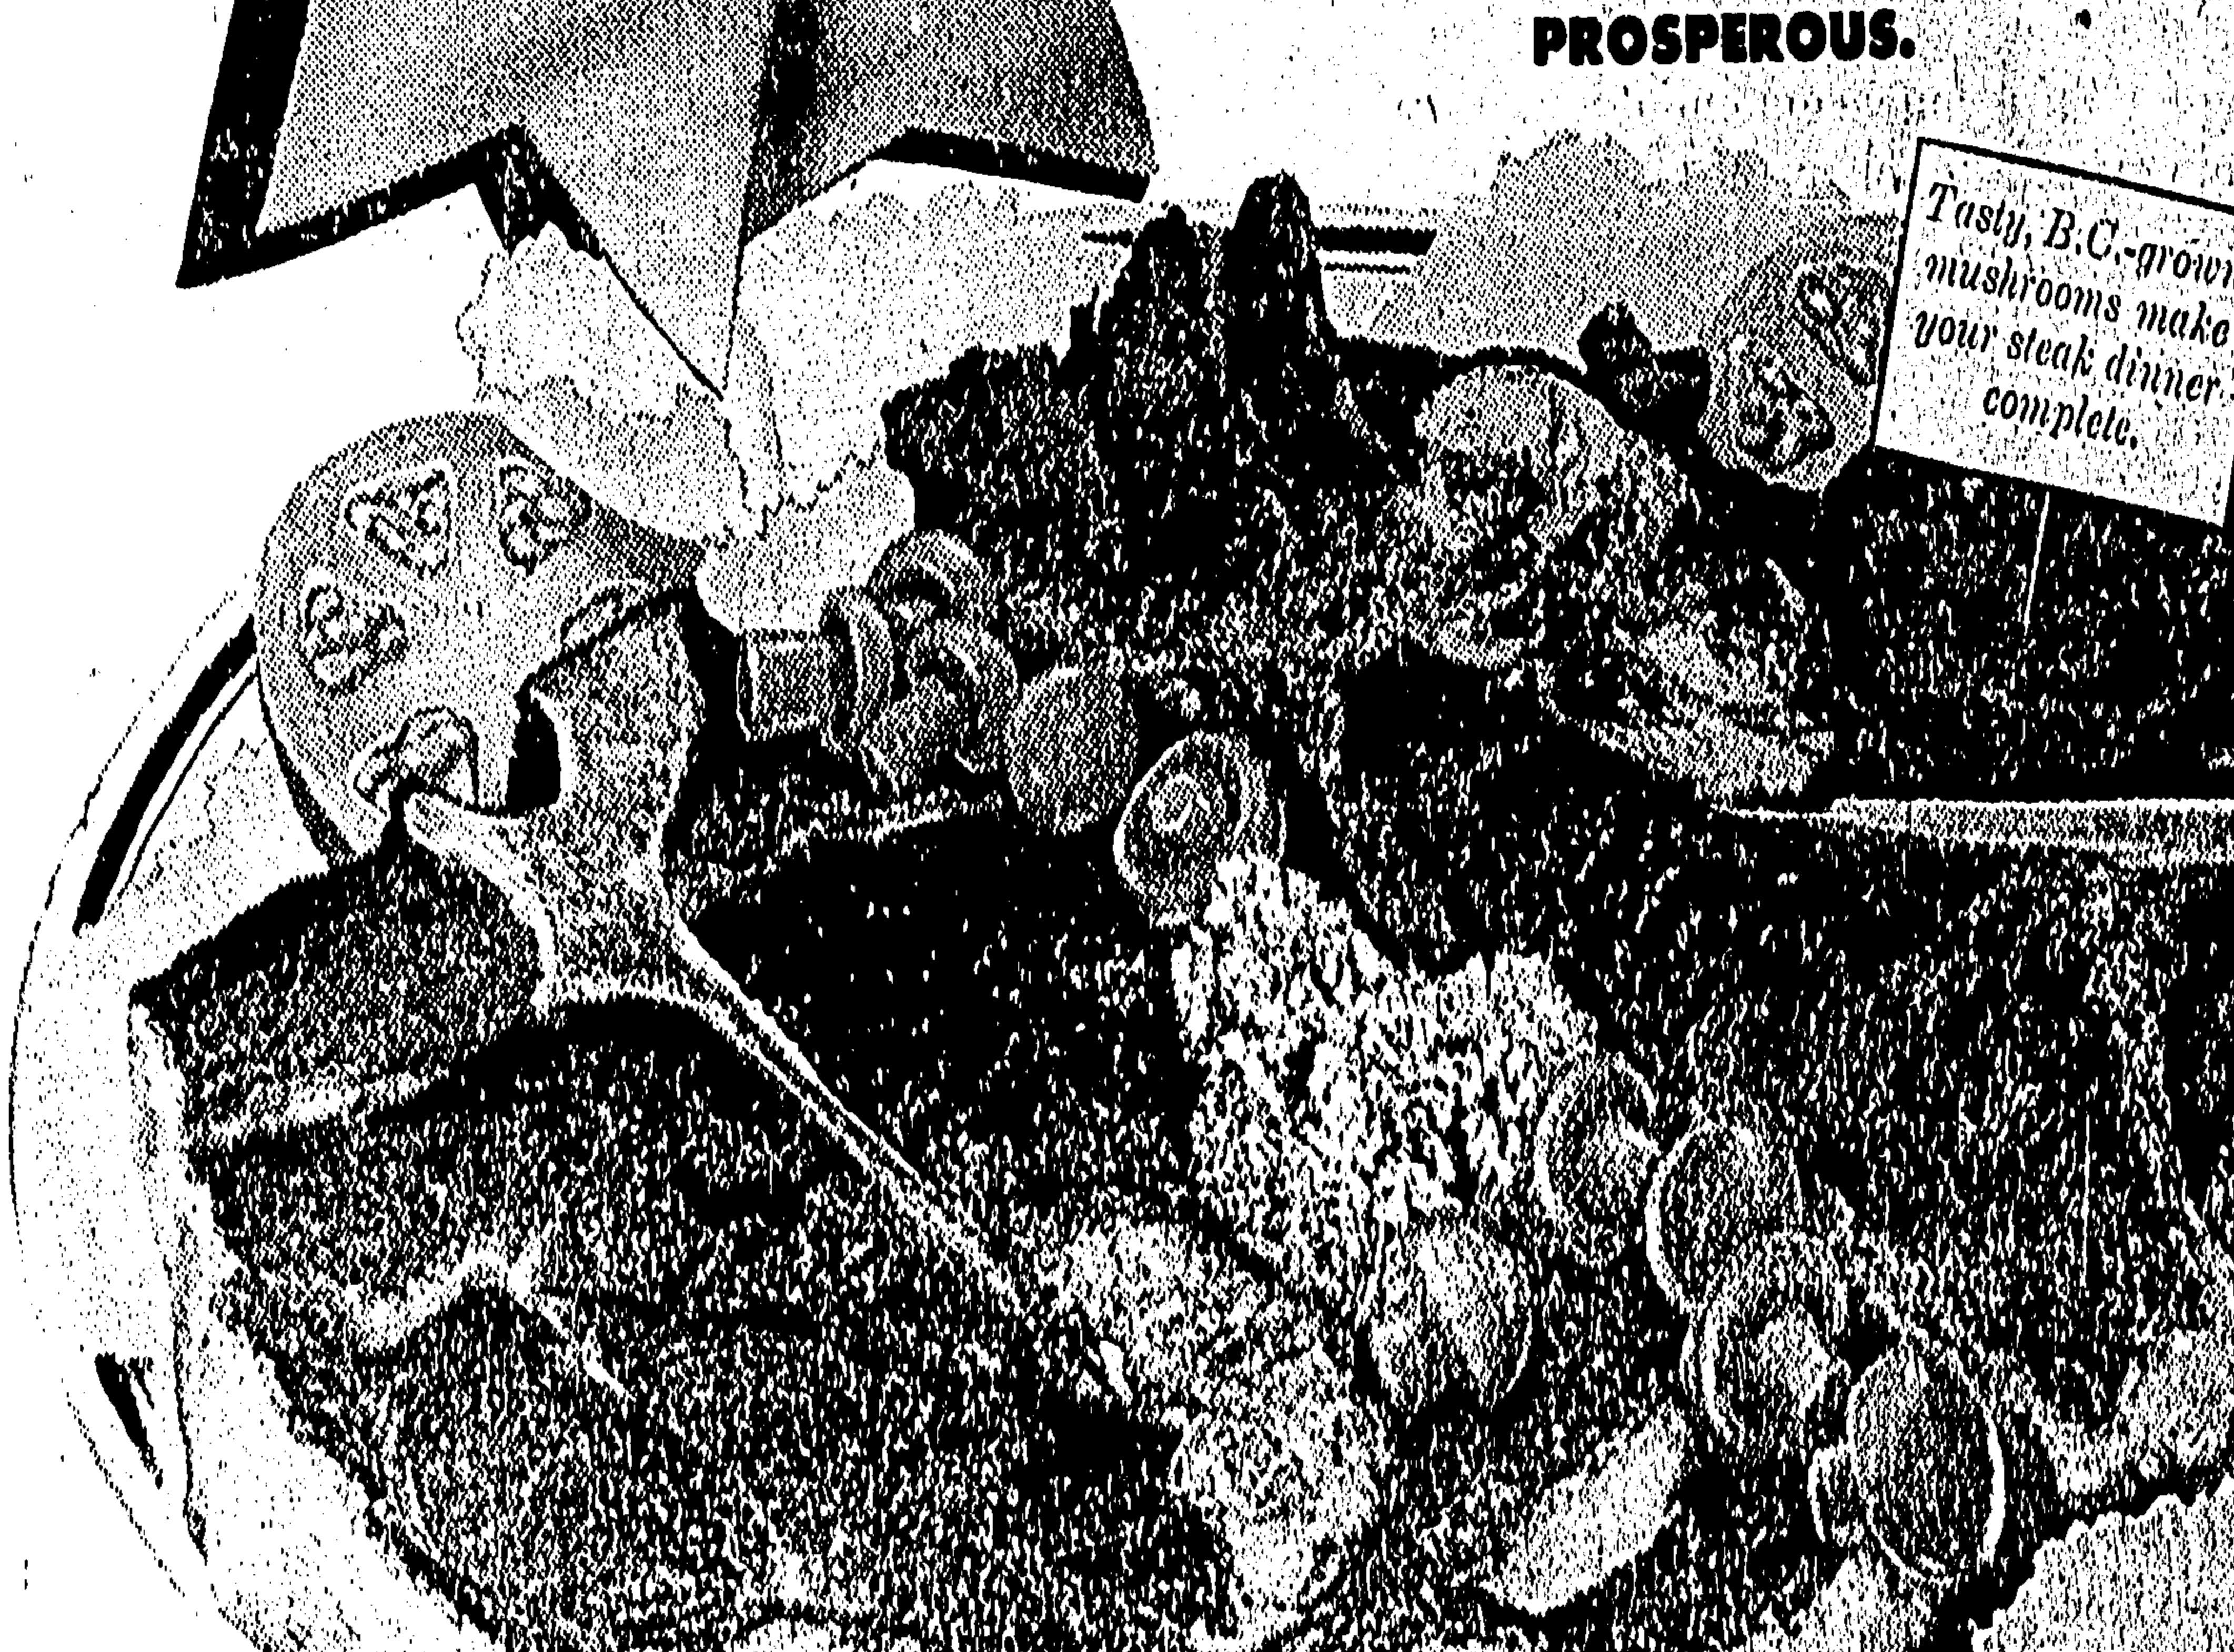

From British Columbia's Famous Cattle Ranches

Roast Beef, tender and succulent, Steak, prepared the way your family likes it best—always make a hit. And this is the time of year to enjoy beef at its best. The famous, grass-fed beef of British Columbia is now on the market. Each time you shop for meat choose B.C. Beef and you get the finest. When you buy B.C. foods your dollars stay in British Columbia.

BUY AND ENJOY B.C. FOODS — HELP KEEP BRITISH COLUMBIA PROSPEROUS.

Tasty, B.C. grown mushrooms make your steak dinner complete.

BRITISH COLUMBIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

CONCURRENTLY W. K. KILKMAN, MINISTER

British Columbia Dept. of Agriculture