

Senior Cage Playoffs Start Tomorrow Night

Senior B basketball playoffs will get underway tomorrow night instead of Tuesday as originally planned, it was learned today.

Lyons Hold Lead In Women's Loop By Slim Margin

Lyons only took one point in their game with Annettes Tuesday, in the women's five pin bowling league but they still hold the A loop lead six points ahead of Art Murray's who lost four points to Gordon and Anderson, now tied for second place with 26 points.

Only two points separate second and fourth places in A loop and seven teams are bunched in the running.

In B loop, Hi-Fliers split their games with Super Service and moved a point ahead of second place Wratshall's who went down 3 and 1 in their fixture with Pacific Cats.

Individual honors in A loop were tied for high single game between Peggy Thompson of Lyons and Norma Warne of Cloverleafs who both posted scores of 272. Alice McMeekin of Annettes took high three score on 722 and New Laurel with 936 for team high single and G & A with 2759 team high three.

Co-op took both players honors in B league, Mary Ross getting high single on a 292 score and Marianne Harberg taking high three score with 601.

McKay's got both team high single and three on scores of 935 and 2594.

Former Mounted Policeman Leads New Brunswick Rink

MONCTON, N.B. (CP)—A 50-year-old retired policeman, now city assessor for the city of Edmundston, guides the broom-and-stone destinies of New Brunswick's provincial champion rink in the Canadian Curling Championships at Regina March 7-11.

Skip Edgar J. (Eddie) St. Pierre, whose rink won the provincial title at Moncton recently, retired from the RCMP in 1947.

The grocery outsold the motormen 10-8 and 6-5 in the first two quarters, matched four points each in the third and romped home 11-4 in the final frame. R. Pedersen paced the winners with 11 points while Don Haudenschild got a like amount for Frizzell's.

Manson's staved off a last quarter rally by Fraser and Payne Wednesday to eke out their 27-26 win. The jewellers outscored their opponents 3-2.

In the first two quarters matched six points in the third and were outscored 11-8 in the final quarter. J. Currie of Fraser and Payne was the top point-getter with 14, while D. McIntosh of Manson's netted 7.
