Mr. Heinsite's Deuce Discourages Club Suit

It is easy enough to recognize the desirability of signalling for the continuation of a suit when you have one or more of the top honors in the suit. Sometimes, VATICAN CITY (AP)—Children from all parts however, it is desirable to signal for continuation of the world sang and danced around Pope Pius today when you have only small cards. Such a situation arose in today's deal. Mr. Muzzy's club overcall was pretty bad but at least it gave Mr. Heinsite a clue as to Miss Brash's distribution --- a clue which he should have used to steer his partner into the best

Mr. Muzzy opened the king of clubs, the trey went on from dummy and Mr. Heinsite played the deuce. This discouraging card made Mr. Muzzy pause in spite of the fact that Miss Brash had dropped the queen. A SHIFT

After some thought he shifted to his lone heart with the idea that he might ruff a heart return. This would have done him no good as he had a sure trump winner anyway.

In any case, Miss Brash won the heart, took three top spades, then led to dummy's acc of dia-leads by the defenders would monds and returned a diamond, have shortened Miss Brash's Mr. Heinsite took the second dia-trump holding to the point where
