Improving Poor Plays Sign of Top Actress

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (A)—It is one thing, say experts on the theatre, to be successful actress in an excellent play. It is another to lift up a not-so-good play by sheer acting ability.

They feel that Shirley Booth has passed the second test.

The brown-eyed, red-haired Miss Booth raked in all sorts of acting awards with her performances in "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," "Come Back, Little Sheba" and "Time of the Cuckoo." SUPERB ARTISTRY

THEY PROMOTE SAFETY—On their holday this young couple takes time out to make sure they arrive there safely. Following the advice of highway safety experts, they schedule a coffee stop every two hours of driving time, pull into a roadside restaurant or stand, stretch their legs and relax and drink a cupof coffee for energy and to overcome fatigue. Safety experts recommend this practice as a pleasant as well as practical way to cut down highway accidents.

PREMATURE ACTION Rhode Island adopted a rescolution renouncing allegiance to two months before the Declaration of Independence.
