

Redlegs To Get Tougher

Cincinnati Players Lauded by Alston

By JOE REICHLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 1956 all-star game, won by the National League Tuesday 7-3, furnished proof it is no accident Cincinnati Redlegs are in first place in their circuit.

Furthermore, it is the consensus of Brooklyn manager Walter Alston, Cincinnati's own pilot Birdie Tebbetts, a majority of the writers and the 28,843 spectators who attended the game that Redlegs are going to be tougher than ever from now on. Alston, who directed the winning National League all-stars, was generous in his praise of the six Cincinnati players in action, five in the starting lineup.

Noting that three of them—first baseman Ted Kluszewski, shortstop Roy McMillan and second baseman Johnny Temple accounted for six of the National's 11 hits, scoring three runs and driving in two more, Alston said意味fully:

"Their performance here should help them the rest of the season."

Tebbetts, who was the Nationals' first base coach, grinned broadly when asked about his firelings' showing:

GAIN CONFIDENCE

He had a right to. Kluszewski had two doubles in two times at bat and drove in a run. Temple had two hits, one RBI and a stolen base, and McMillan had two singles. In addition, Temple and McMillan executed the only double play of the game to snuff out the American's biggest threat.

"I'm proud of my guys," Birde said. "A lot of wise-guys snickered when all those men

British Open "Dull", Antiquated Says Leonard

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BOISCHATEL, Que. (CP)—Golfer Stan Leonard Tuesday compared the famed British Open with a Vancouver caddies tournament and gave the latter even the nod for thrills and organization.

The Lachute, Que., professional let his hair down to explain why he and Toronto player Al Balding cut short a European trip to return.

Leonard, formerly of Vancouver's Marine Drive, arrived back Saturday and Balding the next day. Both will be firing Thursday in the $26,800 Open over the Royal Quebec Golf Club course here.

The pair opened in the Canada Cup, fading after a brilliant start. They finished well down in the Open and terminated commitments to play on a Commonwealth team against the U.S. Ryder Cup team.

In an interview, Leonard called the British Open "cold blooded" and the organizers, the Royal and Ancient Club "antiquated."

OK AT WENTWORTH

He got more kick out of a endles tournament in Vancouver as he did in his home of England. There was more than disappointment with the lack of facilities. At Hoylake for example, the golf club didn't serve any meals in the club for the brass, competitors or anybody . . . cold food or sandwiches could be bought.

"Of course, we had never been there before. Possibly those who have gone from this side year after year know about making arrangements for accommodations. We didn't know what we were going to run into."

Leonard said arrangements at Wentworth for the Canada Cup tournament were perfect.

So many little things kept building up that he and Balding had decided to come home. He said he felt Balding would express the same general views as himself.

FED UP, GENERALLY

"Three months ago Balding and I were asked to play on the Commonwealth team and we accepted for July 20-21 at Sandwhich."

"Although we were committed . . . we would have had to wait more than two weeks. We didn't think this a good business deal."

"As chief organizer of the Commonwealth group said they would have to try to get two other Canadians and that he would have to apologize to the Canadian Golf Federation that no Canadians were on the team. I don't know if he meant the Royal Canadian Golf Association or the Canadian Professional Golfers Association or what."

"I concede we did wrong in letting him down, but you can't realize how thick and snowballed and we were fed up generally. When we went to bed at night we felt like crying."

"It had been my lifetime ambition to play in that Open."

ZATOPEK HAS OPERATION

BERLIN (UPI)—Czech running ace Emil Zatopek underwent an operation for a hernia in Prague Tuesday, the official East German news agency ADN reports. According to ADN, Prague doctors said Zatopek would not be able to resume training for six weeks.

WINDSOR, ONT.—Don Jasper,

192, Duluth, Minn., outpointed Jim Saunders, 223, Winnipeg (8).

SPECIAL CLEARANCE

25% OFF

Sewing Hassock With Every
NECCHI

10% Down
$10.00
Per Month

Gordon & Anderson Ltd.
DIAL 3014

Prince Rupert Daily News
Wednesday, July 11, 1956

EARL CALDWELL (left) and Frank Opsal, both of Vancouver, will represent Canada in the next Olympic games. They tied for first place in the Olympic event at the Canadian trapshooting championships in Calgary. (CP Photo)

Field of 125 Set Tomorrow For Fourth $26,800 Open

By CHARLES BABIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BOISCHATEL, Que. (CP)—A field of 125, including a host of world's top pros, tee off Thursday in the fourth annual $26,800 Open golf tournament. First prize money is $5,000.

The three former champions will seek to repeat. They are Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., who won the first tournament in 1953, Bud Bolischer of Apple Valley, Calif., the 1954 winner and defending champion Gene Littler of Sings Hills, Calif.

The 72-hole event also features amateur Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., who won the Canadian Open championship at Pointe Claire Sunday. Arnold Palmer, the 1955 Canadian Open king, is in along with a list of stars that includes Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Mike Schuh of Grossinger's, N.Y., Tommy Bolt of Houston, Texas, Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Texas, Jimmy Demaret of Klamath Lake, N.Y., Jackie Burke, Jr., Klamath Lake, this year's masters winner, and Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, who dropped the Canadian Open crown in a play-off with Sanders.

NHL TOURNEY TODAY

Returning to Canadian fairways after competing in the British Open are honored stars Stan Leonard of Lachute, Que., and Al Balding of Toronto. Host pro Rudy Huot predicted a four-round score of 274,277 on the par-72 Royal Quebec Golf Club course would be enough to win. Pat Fletcher of Montreal, 1954 Canadian Open champion, said the winner would have to do it in 272 strokes.

The National Hockey League championship, an annual feature of the tournament, brings together today star center Jean Beliveau of Montreal Canadiens, Marcel Pronovost of Detroit Red Wings, Jean-Guy Gendron of New York Rangers and Jim Morrison of Toronto Maple Leafs.

The puck stars play individually this year. In previous tournaments, they had competed as teams.

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Joe Louis started his professional boxing career at Chicago 22 years ago with a one-round knockout over Jack Kracken. He received only $30 for the fight but a year later was paid $217,337 for sprawling Max Baer to the canvas in four rounds.

NEVER TOO OLD

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UPI)—E. J. Edgars is being treated at hospital for a hip injury suffered in a fall while he was trying to learn to ride a bicycle. The police report on the accident listed his age as 73.

another person who knows good beer just enjoyed a glass of

PILSENER

FOR FREE DELIVERY
PHONE 4-1032

VANCOUVER BREWERIES LIMITED

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

Yerema Cans Canfisco, Has Big Night at Plate

Savoy's Bill Yerema had himself a ball last night at Gyro park holding down Canfisco to two early-inning hits, while his own big bat and those of his team-mates hammered out a 14-3 victory in a Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball league game.

Yerema who tightened up after allowing two Canfisco runs in his nine-inning stint, gave up in the first inning and another seven walks, four of which resulted in runs, and hit four for every squad for the remaining five times at bat with two triples and two singles.

Canfisco initiated the scoring in the first when Yerema gave up a walk, a passed ball, another walk, a single to Darrell Young scoring Dick Nickerson and a fly to centre which scored Ron Yuen.

Savoy didn't make anything of Canfisco starter Chris Erickson until the second frame when Yerema tripled and Pilfold brought him home with a tworunner respect bordering on downright funk.

Ribot, an unbeaten four-year-old colt from Dormello staid on the shores of Lake Maggiore, comes from Milan to contest the £23,000 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth stakes. The race, to be run at Ascot July 21, usually determines the unofficial European champion.

So fearless is Ribot's reputation, however, that the best horses have gone into hiding. The original entry list has shrunk to about a dozen, and the bookmakers have made the Italian colt an odds-on chance to win the 1½-mile event.

Ribot is rated perhaps the best horse produced by Italy since the Great Neurco, now one of Europe's leading sires. By Tenerani out of the speedy but temperamental mare Romanella, Ribot has won his 13 races to date by margins ranging from a head to a crushing 15 lengths.

He won last year's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in Paris by three lengths, but probably his outstanding performance came at Milan in the Premio del Jockey Club when he strolled home by 15 lengths, with the good French horses Cordova II and Savoyard among the also-rans.

Mounties Aid Angels By Drubbing Rainiers

By The Canadian Press
Los Angeles, trailing Seattle by a game Monday, overcame the deficit Tuesday night by beating Portland 6-3 while the Rainiers were absorbing a 13-0 drubbing from Vancouver Mounties in Pacific Coast League baseball.

At the same time, Hollywood came within seven games of the league-leaders by registering a 5-3 win over San Diego.

San Francisco shut out Sacramento 5-0. The two clubs are 11½ and 13 games off the pace, respectively.

Mounties gained their win over Seattle with 17 runs from three Seattle pitchers. First baseman Ron Jackson led the onslaught with the first homerun ever hit over Vancouver's centre field wall—a 450-foot drive-plus two doubles.

Wednesday's schedule has Sacramento at San Francisco, San Diego at Hollywood, Los Angeles at Portland and Seattle at Vancouver.

PCL Standings

By The Associated Press

	W	L	Pct.	GB.
Seattle	57	37	.590	-
Los Angeles	58	39	.594	-
Hollywood	49	43	.538	7
Sacramento	44	47	.484	11½
Portland	44	48	.478	12
San Francisco	40	50	.408	13
San Diego	43	51	.457	14
Vancouver	31	59	.300	22½

BOSTON (UPI)—Isaac Logart, 149½, Cuba, outpointed Wilber Wilson, 147½, Boston, (10).

And GO PLACES

with the Navy. Life in the R.C.N. keeps you on your toes. As a Seaman in Canada's modern fleet you develop new skills while you earn good pay (recently raised). Enjoy travel, adventure, prestige; gain new friends in the Navy. Come between 17 and 25.

See The Naval Recruiting Officer

at
HMCS CHATHAM
Prince Rupert, B.C.

HILLBILLY HOEDOWN

Stage Show No. 2

With FREDDIE LANG
and SHIRLEY HILL

CIVIC CENTRE

Friday, July 13

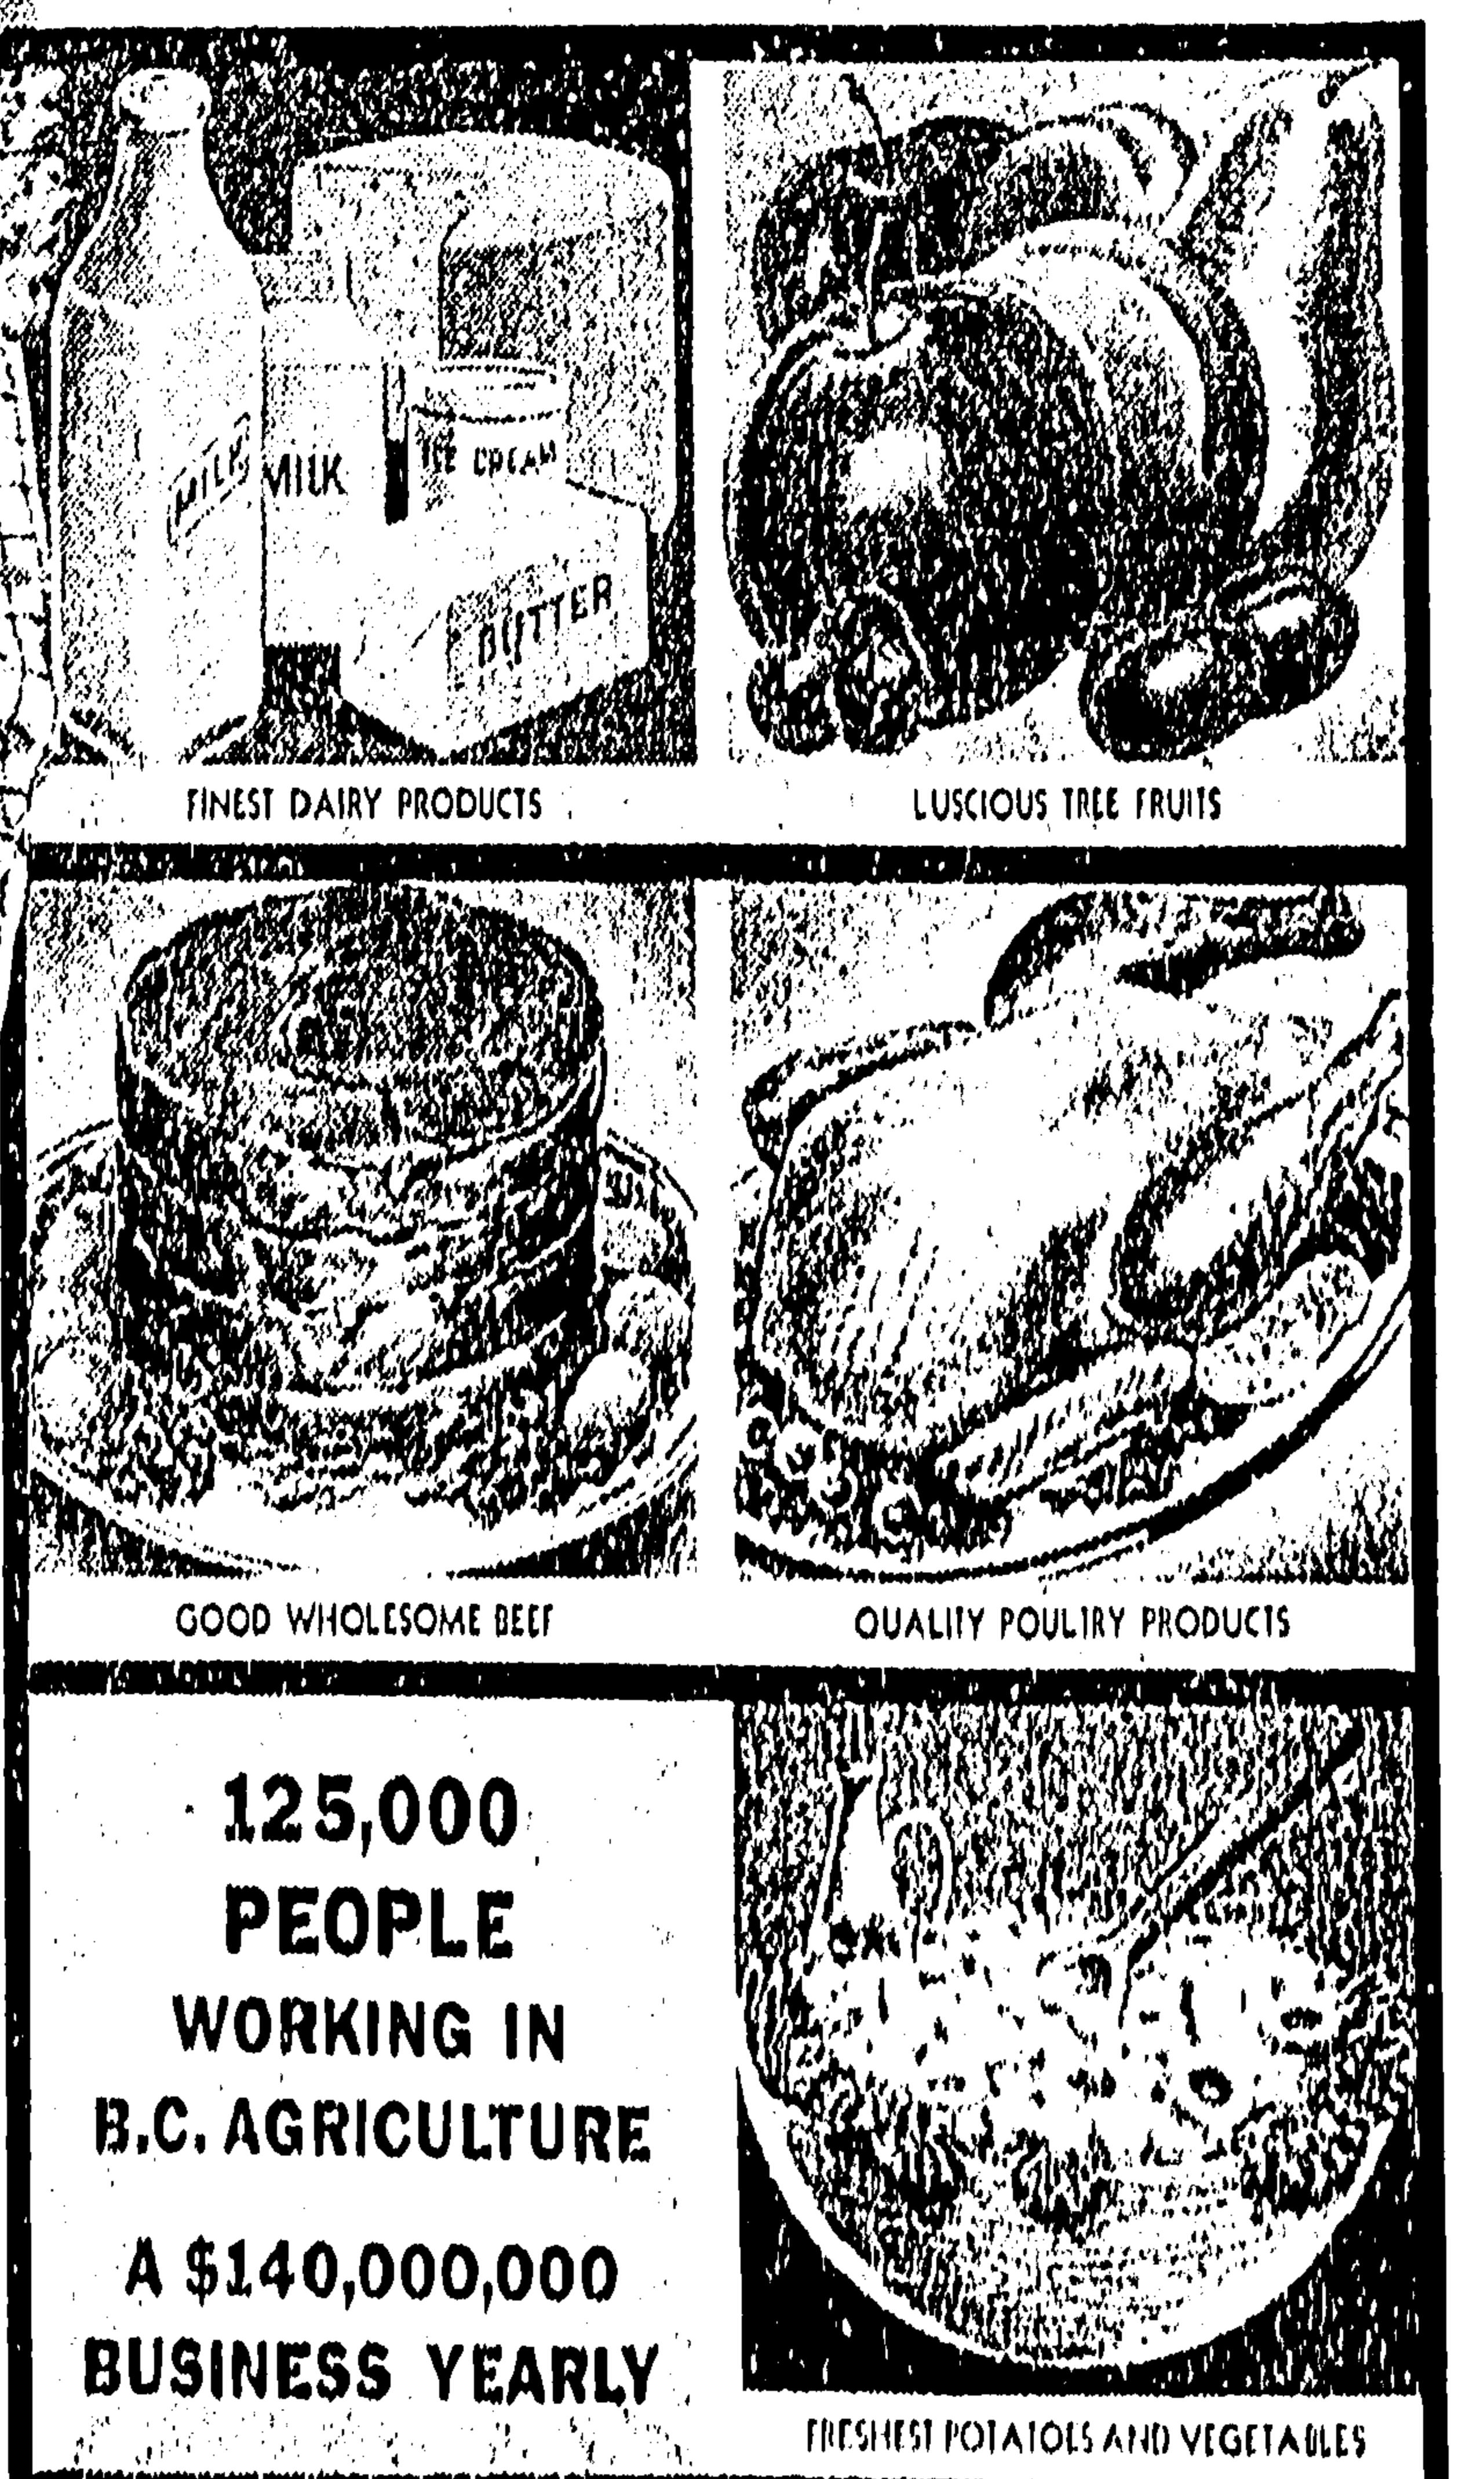

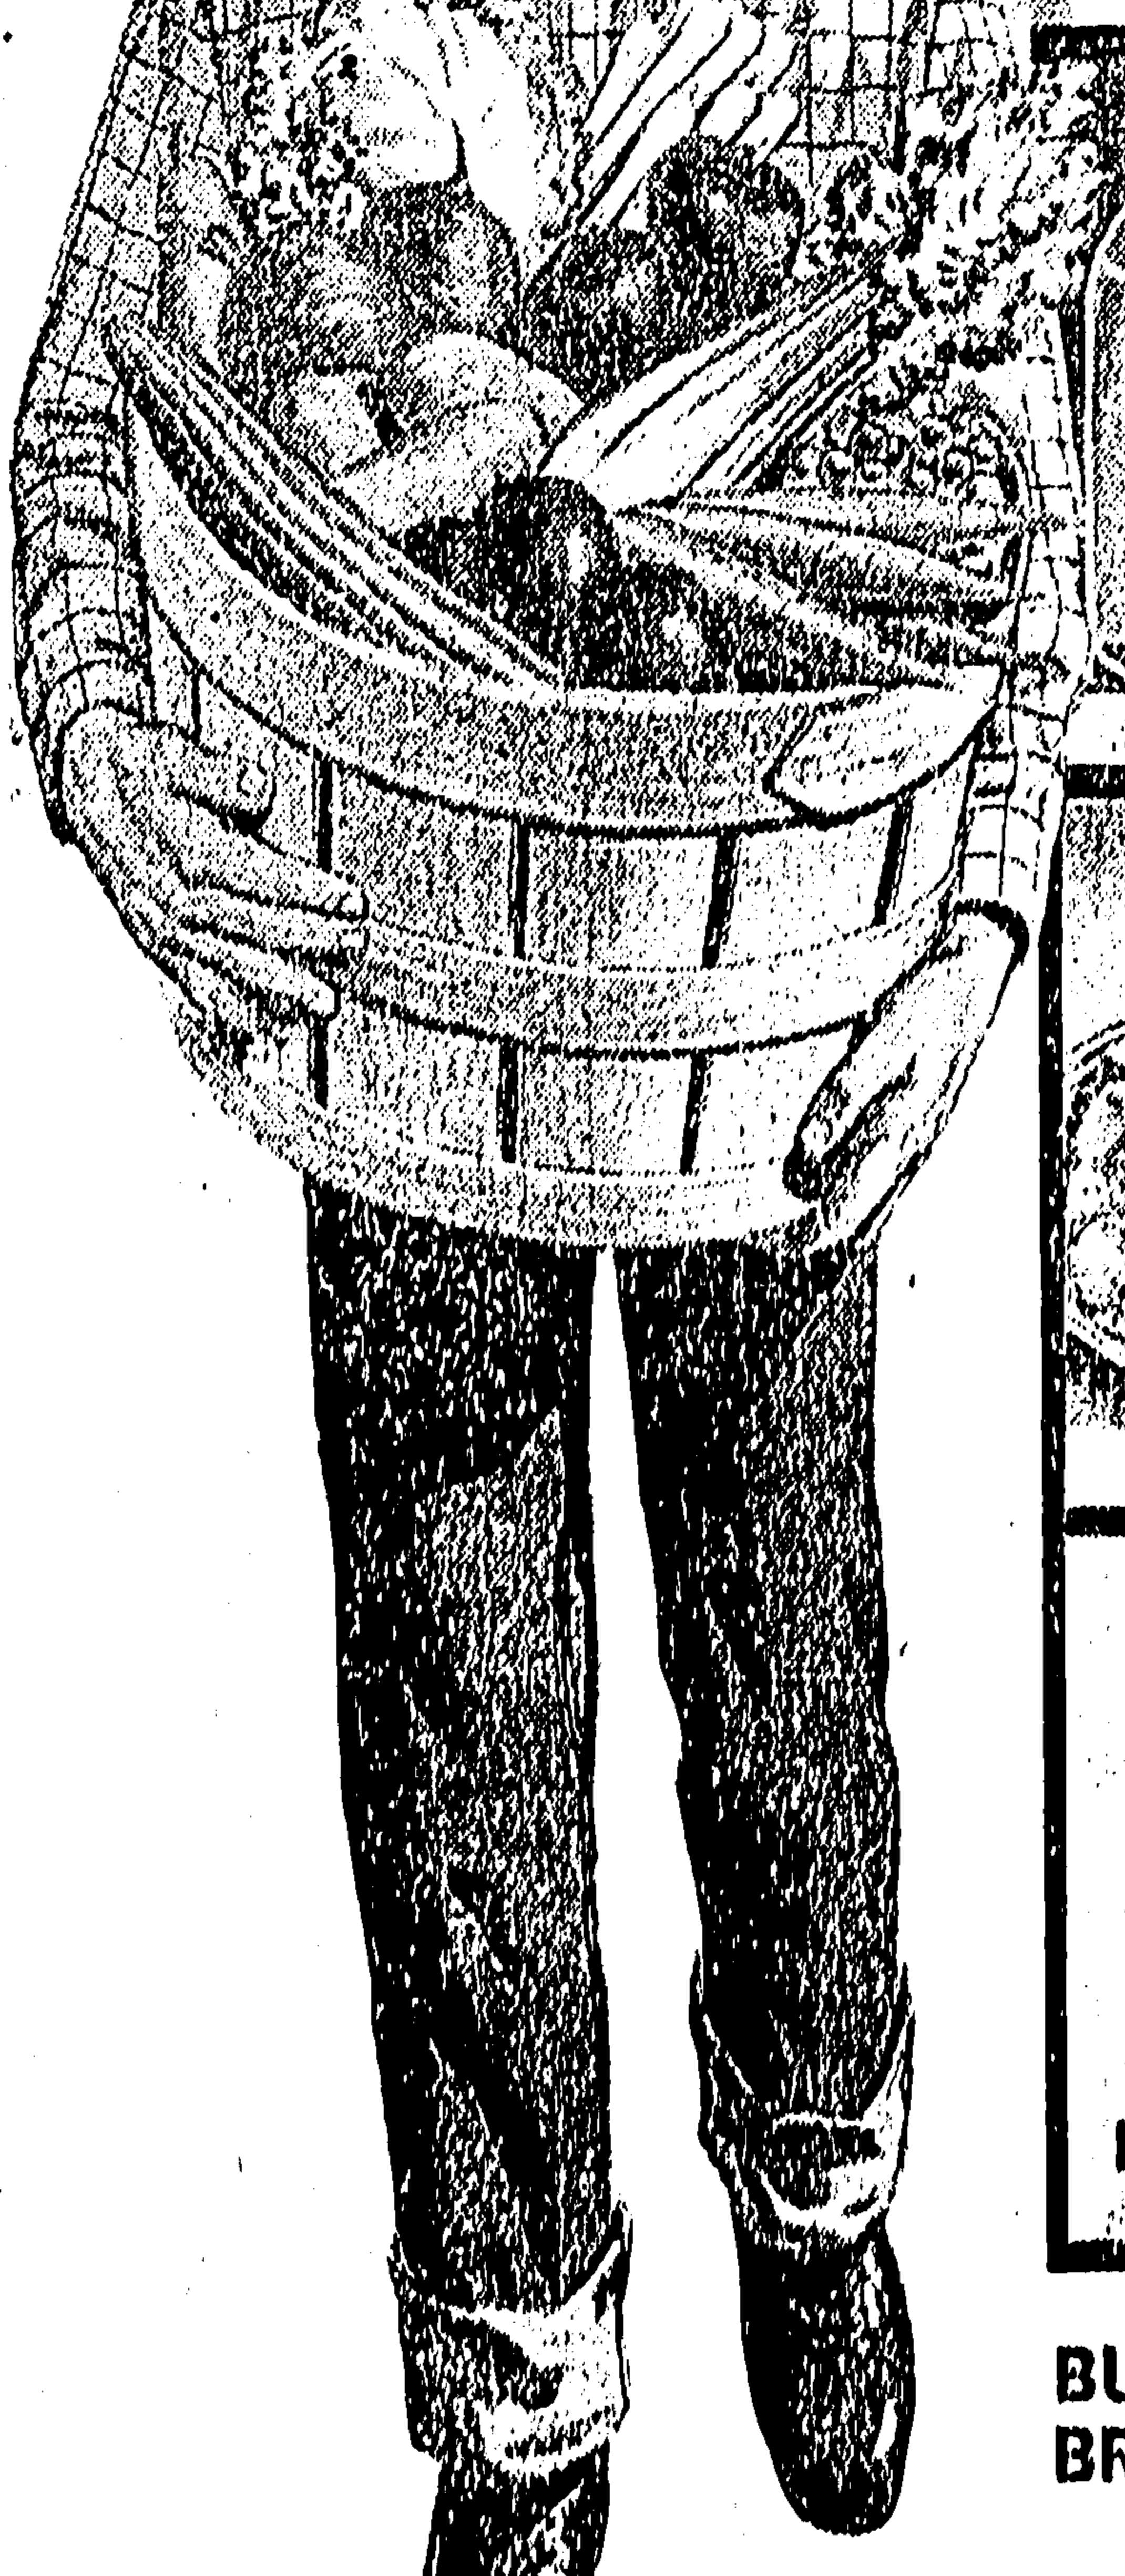

ADULTS—75¢;

STUDENTS—50¢; CHILDREN—25¢

THE FARMERS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

bring you the finest fresh foods you can buy!

The people of our agricultural industry—on farms, ranches, orchards—supply us with a bounty of good food. When you buy their products, your family and your community benefit. By assuring steady payrolls and employment in agriculture, you help maintain a strong economy in which all business thrives. Buy and enjoy B.C. foods every day. Keep your food dollars working in British Columbia.

125,000
PEOPLE WORKING IN
B.C. AGRICULTURE
A $140,000,000
BUSINESS YEARLY

FRESHEST POTATOES AND VEGETABLES

BUY B.C. FOODS AND HELP KEEP
BRITISH COLUMBIA PROSPEROUS

Published in recognition of the valuable contribution B.C. farmers make to our provincial economy.

BRITISH COLUMBIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

HONOURABLE W. K. KIERNAN, MINISTER