

Residents Give Hand to Commission In Construction of New Power Line

By A. H. NEAVE
Daily News Correspondent

FRANCOIS LAKE — Farmers and residents between Burns Lake and Francois Lake are helping the B.C. Power Commission speed the job of providing power to this area.

Work has already started, with those residents who are to be supplied, with power busy all week clearing bush, fell trees, cutting and hauling poles. The poles are being dug in as soon as they arrive. At times there have been 30 men working and at one time they were getting the clearing done almost as fast as the surveyors could mark the way. By doing the work this way, it will be possible to extend the ever line further and more homes will have electricity. The monthly rate will be lowered and the Power Commission will not ave such a large financial outlay.

Decision to help out in this manner was reached at a meeting of the Farmer's Institute attended by Cyril Sheldor, MLA. Members promised at that time to help with the cutting of brush, providing poles and digging holes with them.

With such help it was agreed that the line could be extended beyond the 20-mile limit.

Spring has come to Francois Lake. The pussy willows are out and the robins have been busy finding nesting places. Although there have been some bad places in the road it is possible to get through every day, as work has been done on the road recently.

Jack MacDougall celebrated his 81st birthday last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Calder and their little grandson Jackie Wiens are visiting friends in Prince Rupert for two weeks.

Tom Nash has returned from Kitimat. He had a short visit this side of the lake. They were at Tatlayo for some time this winter, when Everett was logging.

One of John Keefer's cows had twins last week, but they both died.

Dick and John Johnson spent part of their holidays with their sister Mrs. Albert Jeffrey.

Bob Wardrop has moved from Cheteknuk Lake to Burns Lake.

Ted Spanke has a cut eye from a jogging mishap while he was working up Nadine River. He was cutting cane with a few weeks.

STEWART — John Neel was elected governor when the Portland Canal Lodge No. 1218, Loyal Order of the Moose, held its annual election of officers.

Others elected to office were H. D. White, junior governor; C. L. Hole, prelate; John Haahil, treasurer; and Nick Old, trustee. Scott Foote is acting secretary.

Installation of officers will take place tomorrow night April 22.

STEWART — Chapter 16 Women of the Moose here celebrated its 16th anniversary with an "Open House" which a number of charter members were able to attend. The chapter now has 99 members in good standing and are carrying out worthy projects in the community.

In card games that followed Mrs. J. Neel won first prize in whilst and Mrs. H. Wilkinson took consolation. Men's first whilst

Made For Her Own Romance . . . Muriel King's "Occasion" Dress

PATTERN M242
by Muriel King

PROMINENT DESIGNER

What does a Prominent Designer wear on that most important day? Muriel King, couturier to society's elite, fashioned this exquisite creation for her very own wedding dress! In a completely romantic mood — the lovely princess lines — flowing from the soft curve of neckline, through a slender bodice, to a wonderful swirl of skirt. Graceful in exit — the waist nipped by decorative lacing, deep unpressed pleats below. The "for keeps" original — a glowing blue in satin; the date-time dress of tissue taffeta, lit with brilliant rhinestone buttons. Your own sewing choice might be a faille, silk shantung, or bright polished cotton. The flattering lines of M242 adapt so very beautifully to almost every fabric — the simple style so very wonderful to wear!

Pattern M242 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 10 requires 0½ yards 39-inch fabric.

Canadian Compromise Between Britons And Americans UBC Dean Tells Club

The Canadian is a man of balance, history, Dean Andrew said, undemonstrative — a man who regards stability as a highly desirable thing, a person who has neither the British love of country nor the Americans' love of a spectacle, a Prince Rupert audience was told last night.

The speaker was Dean G. C. Andrew of the University of British Columbia English department who outlined the national characteristics of the Canadian people in an hour-long talk entitled, "Is There a Canadian? Does He Exist?" to the Prince Rupert Canadian Club at the Civic Centre.

NO CLEAR CUT TRAITS

There is a Canadian national, Dean Andrew opined, but not with the clear-cut characteristics of the Englishman, American or other nationals.

The Canadian character is made up on the one hand of the French and on the other the Scot with the addition of people from central and northern Europe.

First contribution to national identity had been made by the French, with their strong sense drew said. Himself a fifth generation Canadian, Dean Andrew said, while the British seemed to have conquered Europe with the mantle outlook of England, the Canadian, as a Canadian, had himself, "what did he do for?"

While others spoke on the "Canadian's indecisiveness as dullness," he developed our own sense of humor, not which he found among friends.

Dean Andrew, who has lived in both eastern and western Canada and travelled widely, said during the 1930's it had been impossible for Canadian to establish some identity in Europe. However, he said, polite interest had given way to genuine interest.

SOLID FEED

VANCOUVER (C) — New poultry feed formulas under test at the University of British Columbia show big increases in growth rates, says Prof. Jack Blair. The formula "UBC 1935 Ration" takes only 1.71 pounds of feed for each pound of gain on the fowl, he reported.

Exciting New Dessert

It takes Carnation's double-richness and special blending qualities.

NO other form of milk will do.

(Makes a 9-inch pie)
1 cup undiluted CARNATION
EVAPORATED MILK
1 package lemon-flavored jelly
powder
1/2 cup boiling water
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
crust
From Condensed Milk

Chill undiluted Carnation in freezing tray until soft ice crystals form through milk. Dissolve jelly powder in boiling water. Add sugar and 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Cool. When chilled Carnation until stiff, add remaining lemon juice and continue whipping until very stiff. Add jelly mixture; whip fluffy. Fold in lemon juice. Turn into pie shell. Chill.
