Court Quashes Appeal By Vincent

VICTORIA (UPI)—The B.C. Court of Appeal Wednesday dismissed the appeal of Lawrence B. Vincent against a conviction of murder in the shoelace strangulation of 12-year-old Donna Lee Corbett.

Vincent's lawyer said he will ask the remission authority in Ottawa to commute the death sentence to imprisonment.

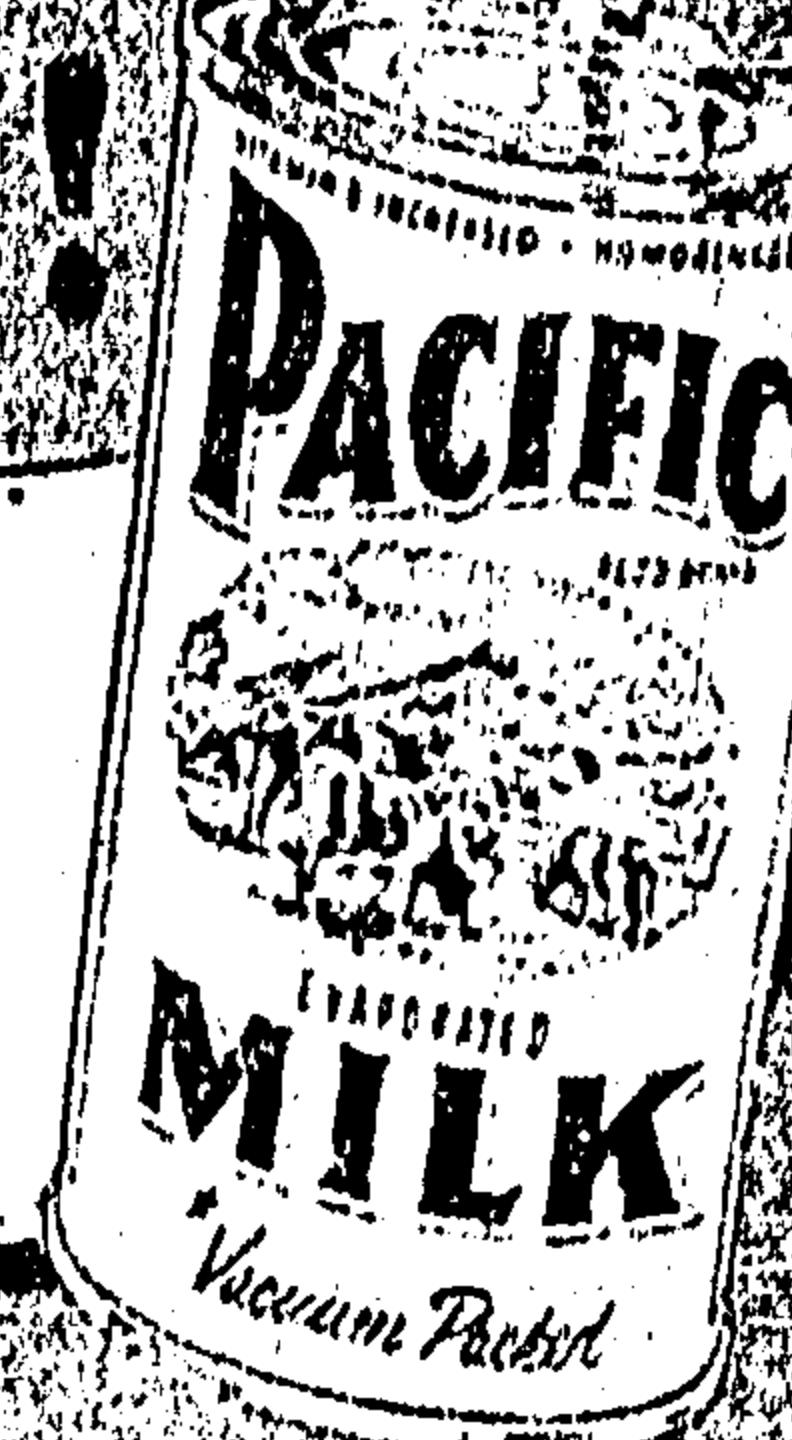

The 26-year-old carnival worker is scheduled to be hanged June 14.

Vincent was tried three times for the murder of the Quesnel, B.C. girl. He was convicted twice, and one trial resulted in the jury failing to reach a verdict.

The Auto Corner

Submitted by The Prince Rupert Auto Club

THE "BUTTERED" club in Brantford, Ontario co-operates with police in traffic safety. Canadian boys and girls organized the club as an answer to teen-ager road recklessness. Its name is "Buttered" and its objective is motorizing safety.

Boys think they have solved the problem of racing in a way that will not be dangerous to anyone."

The club has a code of ethics which the members must obey. Among infractions prohibited by the rules are exceeding the 30-mile speed limit in the city, gunning motors at stop lights and racing against other drivers.

Racing is not racing on city streets or public roads, but on a private race track made sure no racing on public roads the club offending members the amount the police fine.

Rail Group Seeks Support

City council support of ton-mile tax on trucks and buses was sought Monday by the Prince Rupert Ship By Rail Association who presented council with a brief and showed a film to demonstrate on effects heavy truck loads made on roads in the United States.

The local association proposes that a study be made and a recommendation sent to the provincial government branch of the Chevrol Royal Commission on transportation. Members feel that trucking concerns are not sharing their share of the cost of road building and upkeep from gasoline tax and license fee money.

Truckers, they say, is by taxing trucks and bus companies on the miles they cover and the load they carry. The association also calls for stricter enforcement of speed and weight laws with regard to trucks.

IMPORT PARTRIDGES

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (UPI)—The Saint John Branch of the New Brunswick Fish and Game Protective Association is buying 500 partridge eggs from a hatchery in New York state. They will be incubated at Westfield and after the hatching season the young partridge will be released in suitable areas at various points.
