COLLEGE ALL-STAR GRIDDERS MEET NFL CHAMPIONS FRIDAY

CHICAGO (M)—Coach Curly Lambeau of the college allstars has the necessary ingredients—sharp passers, fleet runners and a rugged line—to topple the mighty Cleveland Browns in the 23rd all-star football classic Friday night at Soldier Field.

The Browns, National Football League champions, want no part of another setback like the one they suffered last year. The 30-27 defeat shook the professionals' pride. It was the seventh victory for the all-stars in 19 meetings against the pros.

Lambeau has been sending the collegians through their paces in two-a-day practice sessions, concentrating on long and short passes. "You can't beat the pros by running,"
