Slight damage to James Hickey's farm equipment resulted from a thunder and lightning storm which hit this district last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Hickey and John Keefe were working with a team and mower when the storm struck. The team, startled by lightning striking close, ran away, damaging the mower.

The rainy weather is hitting the local hay crop. Only a few farmers have managed to get in their crops to date.

Mrs. Lawson's nephew, Mr.
Douglas Kerr of Prince Rupert, and his two sons, Bruce and Ronnie, have been visiting here at the Lawson home.

Mr. Earle Henke has left Francisco Lake for a new post at Kitimat. His family will remain here until accommodation is available at Kitimat.

Also leaving Francois are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilkes, whose new home will be in Vanderhoof where Mr. Wilkes is operating a grader for the department of public works.

Returning to make their home here are Mr. and Mrs. Toni Gattinger and son Patrick. Mr. Gattinger will be employed at Burns Lake.

McLeod-Tangen Vows Said At Cathedral Here Today

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral here was the scene this morning of a pretty wedding ceremony uniting Marlon Tangen, RN, daughter of Mrs. A. Tangen of Camrose, Alberta, and Richard McLeod, son of Mrs. J. H. McLeod of Prince Rupert, and the late Mr. J. H. McLeod, MBE.

The Rev. Canon Basil S. Prockter conducted the ceremony for which white gladioli graced the church.

Given in marriage by Mr. E. W. McLeod, the bride was charming in a white linen dress with wide white picture hat and other accessories in red, with a nosegay of red roses.

Her only attendant was Miss Irene Aube, RN, wearing a frock of navy blue shantung topped by white bolero, white accessories, and carrying pink roses.

Mr. Edward Cappieck was groomsman and usher was Mr.

Lyle Hussey. Wedding music was provided by Mr. Peter Lein, organist.

Following the ceremony, the bride party enjoyed a wedding breakfast at the home of the groom, where the toast to the bride was proposed by Canon Prockter.

For their wedding trip, by plane to Vancouver and by car to San Francisco, the bride changed to a smart suit of air-force blue with navy and red accessories.

On their return, the newlywed couple will reside at 305 Third Avenue West, Prince Rupert.

Drivers Warned

REGINA (CP) Warning of a "get tough policy" was given in provincial magistrate's court by C. F. Rigby, J.P., to motorists who show no consideration for their fellow drivers.

OVER ALL — Topping everything, from cottons how to sweaters later, the versatile "blouson" adds a pretty note to practically every costume. Done in warm fall shades, in a clever ditto pattern, the little accessory jacket has three-quarter sleeves and deep armholes and ties snugly about the waist. It is designed by Glentex.
