VICTORIA ()—Swimmer Florence Chadwick leaves Victoria today, three days after her failure to conquer the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

The famed swimmer had ten with Lieutenant-Governor' Clarence Wallace and Mrs. Wallace Wednesday and discussed her unsuccessful attempt to swim the 181/2 miles stretch of chill water between Victoria and Port Angeles, Wash.

Meanwhile, it is reported Miss Chadwick's team is already making preparations to train here next year in a second attempt at the swim.
