

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Smaller Cards—They Pack a Big Punch
Now, the avid kibitzer, decided to get into the game and on the very first hand he got a lesson in alertness and the proper handling of cards.

The three to trump! Masters opened his diamond, the eight was played from Mr. New's hand. The four and seemingly small and seemingly ruined play actually ruined Master's chances of getting a contract.

Champion killed the jack and the result was a draw of 10 diamonds and became a second de suit.

Champion had seven solid spades and clubs in the air of diamonds. All he had to do was to set up in hearts—which he accomplished.

THE OUTCOME?

We could do about what Mr. New did as he was entered on the bidding:

"Mr. Champion, I never could have made tricks if you'd made them at the first trick." Still didn't get it and Mr. Masters what he thought.

"It is right," said Mr. New, "you should have seven of diamonds at my lead of the two. You could tell there were three cards higher right outside of my hand. One of these was on the was in your hand."

SEED HAND
the only one of them closed hand. Now the higher diamonds

Russian Morals Under Fire From Newspaper

By RICHARD R. KASSISCHKE
MOSCOW (UPI)—The big Soviet press campaign to clean up Russia's morals has taken a new tack. Cut out the cussing, the men are told.

Komsomol Pravda, the organ of the Soviet Communist Youth League, is spearheading the effort to shush profane and vulgar language.

A drive against drunkenness and hooliganism already has been going on several months and has had good results, news papers claim.

Now Komsomol Pravda has cast a disapproving glance toward the Urals industrial centre of Sverdlovsk. The paper spread over two columns a letter from a Sverdlovsk citizen complaining of vulgarity, heard about town.

"Clean these evil words out of our rich, expressive language," the paper admonished.

NEW GIRL FLED

The letter writer had this to report about some workers in a big plant:

"One recently began to speak to a new girl worker there but the language he used was so bad the girl fled."

"There is also even a kom-somol member who continually uses vulgar and abusive language, in serious as well as jesting conversation."

"And still another worker, only 17, who feels he shows he's grown up when he uses evil language . . ."

CANDIDATE CARRIED AWAY

BEAULAH, Wyo. (UPI)—State representative E. Keith Thompson got carried away with himself in campaigning for the Republican nomination for Congress. He wandered from one hayfield to another handing out campaign literature.

Finally a rancher told him he had crossed the state line and was soliciting votes in South Dakota.

could Champion have? Not the nine spot because that would mean I would have led an honor, not my fourth highest.

"To sum up," continued Mr. Masters, "you should have known that Champion had only one diamond higher than the eight and that it was either the ace or the king or the queen. So why put up the jack unnecessarily? If you'd played your seven, nothing could have prevented us from winning three diamond tricks and two hearts."

Mr. New saw the logic of all this and he admitted his error. He shook his head sadly. "These things are so darn much easier to see when you're sitting on the sidelines," he muttered.

"You're too late, Daddy!"

Little terrors with big bowlfuls don't give a pig-tailed whoop that more faulders can't out of Corn Flakes this morning than any other cereal. But it does happen, because Kellogg's Corn Flakes just naturally taste best to more people. Always have. Still do. No wonder so many women pick up a square package of Kellogg's Corn Flakes every time they buy any cereal of any kind. It's real good "tomorrow-morning insurance."
