

Basilio Regains Crown

MOOSE MOVE GAME OUT FRONT

Contender Avenges
Loss to Saxton

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Carmen Basilio, apparently as tough and destructive as ever, wore the welterweight crown again today after annihilating Johnny Saxton "for the sweetest win of my life."

"This was the one I wanted to win more than any other," said the craggy-faced, 29-year-old Basilio following his technical knockout at 1:31 of the ninth round over the cocky, 20-year-old defending champion in War Memorial Auditorium Wednesday night.

"I beat him in Chicago and got robbed, this was my answer. If he wants to fight me again, I'm willing. I fight for money, I'll fight Ray Robinson, too, for the middleweight title; if Saxton has had enough." I agreed to give Saxton a return fight and he can have it anywhere but in Chicago.

Even with his lopsided triumph, Carmen still is burning over the unanimous but controversial decision which Saxton scored over him in Chicago last March 14. That not only cost the ex-marine the title but a lucrative outdoor money match with middleweight king Ray Robinson. Now he hopes to get a crack at Sugar Ray before long.

SAXTON WILLING

"I want the fight and I'll beat him the next time," said Saxton through swollen lips. A bandage covered the left side of his mouth where nine stitches were required to sew up a wide long gash that had spurted blood during the one-sided fray.

"I fought his fight—not mine," the dethroned New Yorker said bitterly. "The boos of the crowd upset me. Instead of boxing him like I did the last time and like I planned to do again, I went out and slugged with him. I wanted to show those fans Next time I'll fight for Johnny Saxton and win my way."

Basilio's vengeful pounding was thorough.

Gaunt with his ribs showing through his taut skin, the 148-pound local pride took charge in the third round with a slashing body and head attack that had Saxton bloody, reeling and helpless in the ninth round when referee Ul Belz halted the massacre.

Taylor issued six walks, three of them in the seventh, but struck out 10 hotel batters.

Loser was Lloyd Lahti, who was tagged for eight hits, including two doubles to Taylor, who aided his own cause by driving in two runs. Lahti gave up three walks and fanned one.

Braves Back in NL Lead
After Edging Brooks 8-7

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee Braves call it "the biggest one yet."

Brooklyn Dodgers kiss it off with a "so what?"

They both could be right about that humdinger of a comeback 8-7 victory the Braves grabbed from the Dodgers at Ebbets Field Wednesday, regaining undisputed possession of first place in the National League race.

Whether they were punchy from pennant pressure, the victory definitely was "the biggest one yet" for the Braves. It had to pick them up, relax some of the tension as they moved into Philadelphia for a twi-night double-header tonight against the Phillies—only club in the league with an edge 8-10 over the Braves.

DODGERS NOT HURT

But the Dodgers, idle today had a point, too. "It didn't hurt us. We were one game down when they came to town, and we're only one game down now. They had to win it. But so what? There's 15 games left."

If any club was hurt by the decision, it was Cincinnati. The third place Reds, also with 15 games left, fell three games behind while being held to just three singles by Johnny Antonelli in an 8-0 loss to the New York Giants.

Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 3-0 in the only other league game scheduled.

New York Yankees and Kansas City Athletics, walloping three between them, erased the American League's one-season home run record set in 1950 at 973 as the A's beat the league leaders 7-4.
