Dutch Miss Enjoys Canada

ESSEX, Ont. (CP)—The pretty little Dutch girl who was Canada's 100,000th immigrant from Holland is not ready to use her return ticket—at least not yet.

About the return ticket—there is no idea in her head of returning to Holland permanently but she thinks it would be nice to go home for a visit sometime.

While she learns and improves her English, she would like to work as a domestic but there is no work in Essex she spends her time helping her mother.

She plays the organ a little. Her favorite composers are Mozart and Shubert but the mention of a tune on the hit parade. brought a big smile.
