Stewart Pair Mark Golden Wedding

Special to The Daily News
STEWART—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. (Bill) Crawford, long time residents of Stewart, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary here June 20.

The couple were honored by family and friends on the occasion, marking 50 years of married life, and received many congratulatory telegrams and letters.

Mr. Crawford is head of the Crawford Transfer Company Ltd., which he founded many years ago, and also is local agent for Imperial Oil and Union Steamships. Of their family, the youngest daughter, Miss Jeanann Crawford, RN, is at home; Mrs. L. A. Edith Behnke resides in Stewart; Mrs. W. T. Muriel Esselmont at Haney, B.C., and Mrs. J. B. (Helen) Watson in the east.

STEWART—W. R. McElroy, divisional engineer for the provincial public works department, visited Stewart last week to inspect the Bear River project on rock wall. He was accompanied on the trip by his wife and J. Haig, deputy minister of public works.
