

Kayhi, Booth Clash Tonight In Inter-School Cage Series

The Ketchikan High School Kings, boasting a comfortable two-game edge, arrived in Prince Rupert today with coach Bill Martineson to complete the 1955 International inter-school basketball series with Booth Memorial High School tonight and tomorrow.

The 10-man Ketchikan squad took a big lead in the annual tournament at the beginning of December by downing the Bo-Me-Hi eagles 54-37 and 57-42 in the Alaska end of the series at Ketchikan's new high school gym.

Team taking to the floor tonight is the same one with which coach Martineson received the Frank Murkowski Trophy for the second straight year.

Kayhi players who arrived today with uniform numbers in brackets are: Maddox (35); Mackie (21); Corbin (33); Huff (25); Hulse (14); Gilbert (30); Thomas (41); Montgomery (21); Marshall (33); Kinick (22).

The seven-man squad Don Hartwig took to Ketchikan has been strengthened with the addition of five players.

Added to the travelling team of Mike Young, Don Haudenschild, Jim Johnson, John Lamble, Bob Sankey, Eugene Nelson and of the inter-school tournament Phil Thom are Art Hellin, Ted Leask, Nelson Morven, Bob Kelsay and Bill Smith.

Tonight Golds will meet Frosty at 6:30 p.m. while today with a team from the morrow, Dom's meet Gold's in their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 decision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Last night, Rainmakers worked out with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Team taking to the floor tonight is the same one with which coach Martineson received the

Frank Murkowski Trophy for the second straight year.

Kayhi players who arrived today with uniform numbers in brackets are: Maddox (35);

Mackie (21); Corbin (33); Huff

(25); Hulse (14); Gilbert (30);

Thomas (41); Montgomery (21);

Marshall (33); Kinick (22).

The seven-man squad Don

Hartwig took to Ketchikan has been strengthened with the addition of five players.

Added to the travelling team

of Mike Young, Don Haudenschild, Jim Johnson, John Lamble, Bob Sankey, Eugene Nelson and of the inter-school tournament

Phil Thom are Art Hellin, Ted

Leask, Nelson Morven, Bob Kelsay and Bill Smith.

Tonight Golds will meet

Frosty at 6:30 p.m. while today with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Last night, Rainmakers worked out with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Team taking to the floor to-

night is the same one with which

coach Martineson received the

Frank Murkowski Trophy for the second straight year.

Kayhi players who arrived today with uniform numbers in

brackets are: Maddox (35);

Mackie (21); Corbin (33); Huff

(25); Hulse (14); Gilbert (30);

Thomas (41); Montgomery (21);

Marshall (33); Kinick (22).

The seven-man squad Don

Hartwig took to Ketchikan has

been strengthened with the addition of five players.

Added to the travelling team

of Mike Young, Don Haudenschild, Jim Johnson, John Lamble, Bob Sankey, Eugene Nelson and of the inter-school tournament

Phil Thom are Art Hellin, Ted

Leask, Nelson Morven, Bob Kelsay and Bill Smith.

Tonight Golds will meet

Frosty at 6:30 p.m. while to-

day with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Last night, Rainmakers worked out with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Team taking to the floor to-

night is the same one with which

coach Martineson received the

Frank Murkowski Trophy for the second straight year.

Kayhi players who arrived today with uniform numbers in

brackets are: Maddox (35);

Mackie (21); Corbin (33); Huff

(25); Hulse (14); Gilbert (30);

Thomas (41); Montgomery (21);

Marshall (33); Kinick (22).

The seven-man squad Don

Hartwig took to Ketchikan has

been strengthened with the addition of five players.

Added to the travelling team

of Mike Young, Don Haudenschild, Jim Johnson, John Lamble, Bob Sankey, Eugene Nelson and of the inter-school tournament

Phil Thom are Art Hellin, Ted

Leask, Nelson Morven, Bob Kelsay and Bill Smith.

Tonight Golds will meet

Frosty at 6:30 p.m. while to-

day with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Last night, Rainmakers worked out with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-

cision from the tars at Booth return exhibition game between

gymnasium. Last Thursday, the Prince Rupert Challengers

same Bo-Me-Hi squad were de-

cisioned 33-26 in an exhibition

Saturday.

Team taking to the floor to-

night is the same one with which

coach Martineson received the

Frank Murkowski Trophy for the second straight year.

Kayhi players who arrived today with uniform numbers in

brackets are: Maddox (35);

Mackie (21); Corbin (33); Huff

(25); Hulse (14); Gilbert (30);

Thomas (41); Montgomery (21);

Marshall (33); Kinick (22).

The seven-man squad Don

Hartwig took to Ketchikan has

been strengthened with the addition of five players.

Added to the travelling team

of Mike Young, Don Haudenschild, Jim Johnson, John Lamble, Bob Sankey, Eugene Nelson and of the inter-school tournament

Phil Thom are Art Hellin, Ted

Leask, Nelson Morven, Bob Kelsay and Bill Smith.

Tonight Golds will meet

Frosty at 6:30 p.m. while to-

day with a team from the

Royal Canadian Navy frigate

their regular league match, mov-

"Stettler" and took a 42-21 de-